

FIGHTING IRISHMEN
HEAD CARD MAY 12

McCarthy and Murphy to Go 10 Rounds.

OTHER BOYS NOT PICKED

Bob Leads Known and Liked in Portland — Gorman and Mascot May Appear.

BY RICHARD R. SHARP.
Johnny McCarthy, the fighting fishman of San Francisco, will meet Frankie Murphy, the fighting Irishman of Denver, in the ten-round main event of the fist card at the Milwaukee arena Wednesday night, May 12.

Matchmaker Frank Kendall has been planning on using Battling Levinisky and "Spud" Murphy of San Francisco in the main tangle, but when he failed to receive an answer from his telegram to Dan Morgan, Levinisky's manager, yesterday, he signed Frankie Murphy, the Denver weight, to meet McCarthy in the topline bout.

The Denver boxer made a great hit in his ten-round tangle against Stanley Willis here recently, and although not in the best of shape, worked like a champion and showed himself to be a ready two-fisted boxer and the best looking prospect that has invaded this neck of the woods from the east.
McCarthy is a great favorite with the Portland fistie fans and in his last appearance before them won a ten-round decision over Alex Traas-man in a battle full of action. Mc-Carthy and Traasman fought a four-round draw in San Francisco last Friday night, but according to the telegraphic report of the battle Johnny had the better of the milling.
The Murphy-McCarthy match will be backed with a strong bill of bouts which will be announced within the next few days and both Joe Gorman and Billy Mitchell may appear on the card against worthy opponents.

Johnny Noye is still in town and he may oppose some good lightweight in one of the special events.

The first request for the reservation of seats for the Benny Leonard bout here June 21 was received yesterday by Bobby Evans, matchmaker, of the Portland boxing commission.
Evans received a letter from Clay Hite, Seattle promoter, asking to have six seats set aside and to send the bill at once. Hite is a well-known reserved for a well-known Seattle Shriner, who is a great boxing fan.

Just who will be Leonard's opponent here in a six-round tangle, says Evans has in mind at present George Papa, the European champion, who arrived in this country several days ago to box under the management of Georges Carpentier's manager, Des-camp, an opponent of the same class as other well-known lightweights.
It might be Irish Paty Cline, Charley White, Frankie Murphy, Johnny Dungan, Harvey Thorne or Willie Jackson. There is plenty of time to line up a suitable opponent for the champion in the ten-round tangle. Des-camp and Evans are going to look the field over thoroughly.

Charley Swinehart was a Portland visitor Sunday to talk business with the local matchmakers. His main is finding plenty of work up north.
Frankie Malone has fought Eddie Jackson and Bert Forbes, Joe Mandot look on Bobby Harper twice, while Albie Nock will make his Seattle debut tonight, meeting Charley Mc-Carthy, the Canadian lightweight champion, in the main event of the way veterans' show.

Danny Edwards, another member of Swinehart's clan, is boxing Harry Mansell on the same bill.

Stanley Willis has been signed by Manager Hill to box in Aberdeen, May 17. His opponent in the tangle is Albie Nock or Travis Davis. Willis will weigh 150 or so, and Nock should make the better fight with Willis.

Eddie Kane keeps sending out letters demanding that Georges Carpentier accept the offer of Mike Collins to fight Tom Gibbons ten rounds.
Carpentier, however, is probably too smart to accept such a bargain.
As never a fellow as Gibbons ten rounds for a defeat, which wouldn't be an imposition on either side, a showing would mean the loss of the fight with Dempsey and all the money that Carpentier is sure to receive for such a fight.

There are several fellows that Carpentier had better keep away from.
On the Tom Gibbons. The other is MIKE O'Dowd.

Fred Fulton need not be mentioned, of course, as he has been conveniently forgotten that there is any such person.

POLITICAL ROLES
POPULAR ROLE

Combine Could Beat Johnson
but Nobody Will Sacrifice.

SENTIMENT BEING SPLIT

State Not Believed to Be for Californian, but Other Candidates May Give Him Victory.

SCENE FROM ALICE LAKE'S "SHORE ACRES," WHICH WILL CONTINUE ON THE RIVOLI SCREEN THIS WEEK.

With four candidates seeking the popular choice of Oregon as presidential nominee, there is growing feeling that the best way to eliminate Hiram Johnson is the concentration of votes on one of the other three candidates. An ardent supporter of Johnson, who has been making a survey of the situation, admits that if the opposition can center on Wood, Hoover or Lowden, Johnson will lose Oregon, but otherwise he likely will win because of the division.

Throughout the state, among the republicans who have been dissatisfied with Senator Johnson's attitude toward the league of nations and because of Senator Johnson's attitude toward the republican party in the past, the thought is spreading that the Californian can be disposed of effectively by the throwing of support to one of his rivals. The main handicap, however, appears to be that there is no disposition on the part of those opponents to sacrifice themselves.

The Wood campaign was the first started in the state and the Wood organization in every county and town. It is the most complete organization possessed by any of the contenders.
Being thus entrenched, there is little prospect of the Wood campaign being thrown into the discard.

Lowden, Tio.
The Lowden campaign, which was second in the field, has not advanced greatly and there is only a skeleton organization. Lowden, an the situation now stands, is not considered a strong contender. There is, nevertheless, an increasing sentiment friendly to Governor Hoover, but is as a second choice, not necessarily second choice in Oregon, but second choice in the minds of the voters. The Hoover campaign, the last in the work in "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," "True Heart Suzie," "Scarlet Days" and "The Idol Dancer" established her as an actress of unusual charm and beauty.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, April 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Y. Seymour, parents of the deceased, at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Lloyd Ingraham, director for Mildred Harris Chaplin in her latest picture, "Old Dad," a "First National" release has had his hands full picking extra girls for the first big location work of the production. The site selected by Mr. Ingraham is in the immediate vicinity of Pasadena.

Jack Pickford is about to start work on his next picture, "The Man Who Had Everything," under the direction of Al Green. Mr. Green has had the direction of the most recent of the Jack Pickford releases.

Tom Santschi has returned from a long sojourn amid the bright lights and gay nights of New York. He has purchased a new home in Hollywood.

Blanche Sweet, starring in the production "Leona Goes a-Hunting," has been confined to her home with bronchial trouble. Henry King, the director, is, however, making rapid progress with scenes in which the star does not appear.

Bessie Barriscale will play a character in her next film, called "Life's Test."

led to get of the ground three men up to bat. The locals simply had things their own way and but for loose playing with things coming so easy the visitors might not have scored at all.
There were numerous errors on both sides but none were costly to Cottage ninth.

Four Entries Received for Second Annual Field Day.
ALBANY, Or., May 3.—(Special).— Albany, Lebanon, Brownville and Hillsburg high school teams have entered for the second annual Lin county track and field meet to be staged on the campus of Albany college next Saturday, May 8. R. W.
McNeal, director of athletics at Albany college, will have charge.

It is generally believed that Lebanon, an easy winner last year, will again triumph. Albany has several good entries but is devoting most of its attention this spring to baseball.
Hillsburg took second place last year and will enter several former point-winners. This will be Brown-ville's first appearance in the contest.

Mr. Hawley Sees Dairymen.
C. L. Hawley, formerly a member of the state senate and now a candidate for state food and dairy commissioner, was circulating among the dairymen at the Benson yesterday.
Mr. Hawley, who has no one to oppose him for the nomination and who is generally believed to have no one to vote for in his primary.

Sample Ballots Appear.
Sample ballots have made their appearance and been on display at displayed in hotels and at cigar stands. The ballot is the one that will be used in Multnomah county.
It contains none of the names that voted on, as the measure will be on a separate ballot for the state election to be held the same day as the primaries.

Mr. Powell Attends Council.
Perry Powell of Polk county was registered at the Benson yesterday for the legislature, seeking to represent the Vaughn-street grounds with The straw vote was taken. The

HARBOR BILL HELD SAFE PROVISIONS BELIEVED LIKELY TO SURVIVE CONFERENCE.
Improvements and Preliminary Examinations Affect Waters of Northwest.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, May 3.— All provisions for river and harbor improvements and preliminary examinations of waterways in the northwest included in the rivers and harbors bill as passed by the senate are likely to survive the conference of the two houses.

The continuing improvements on the Columbia, Willamette and Snake rivers are not mentioned in the bill but are included in the lump sum appropriation. Allotments will be made for this work later by the board of engineers of the war department. Several items are specifically mentioned, as follows:

Among the preliminary examinations provided for are the Tualatin river, Tillamook bay, the Columbia river between Chinook, Washington, and Sand Island, Coos Bay harbor and Isthmus slough and another for connecting the deep water of Willamette slough at St. Helens, Or., with the deep water of the Columbia river.

Another survey provided for is with a view of removing the inshore end of the south jetty of the Nehalem river.
The secretary of war is authorized to credit local interests at Newport and Toledo with all the work done on the south jetty and inner channel of the Columbia river. The cost of the work is estimated at $1,000,000. The prices insofar as the work conforms to the standards required by the government engineers.

Another provision inserted in the senate bill and which is likely to be accepted by the house conference, permits the city of Raymond, Wash., to discharge its entire cash obligations in the improvement of Willapa harbor by depositing $75,000 with the secretary of the treasury to the credit of the secretary of war.

AGGIES HOME FROM TRIP

SQUAD LOSES TWO AND WINS
ONE IN WASHINGTON.

Remainder of Year's Athletic Program Shows Busy Time for Corvallis Men.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COL-LEGE, Corvallis, May 3.—(Special).— Coach Jimmie Richardson and his Oregon Aggie baseball squad returned to Corvallis today, after an invasion of the University of Washington and the Washington State college campus.
Oregon Agricultural college won the one game against the Cougars, but lost two to the Huskies and one to the first by a close score, but the second went to the sound team by a wide margin.

Two games were scheduled with each institution, but the last one of the Washington State college series had to be called off on account of bad weather in Pullman. There is some chance of playing this game on the Aggie field Thursday, when the Washington States come to Corvallis, making a double header. Games are to be played here with Washington State college on Wednesday and Thursday, and against the Stanford university team on Friday and Saturday.

"Lefty" Miller, port-side hurler for the Aggies, will be able to do some work this week. An abscision in his elbow kept him from making the northern trip. Richardson hopes to have him in shape to help out in the University of Oregon games.

After this week the team will have six games—two at Eugene against Oregon, May 14 and two with University of Washington at Corvallis on May 17 and 18, and two return games with Oregon on the home campus May 21 and 22. The team will meet with Stanford university, which has been on the calendar for May 8, the Aggie team, under Coach Hager and Trainer "Dad" Butler, will leave Corvallis the evening of May 8. The Aggies will remain in California and compete in the Pacific coast conference meet which will be held at Palo Alto on May 15. A dual meet with Oregon at Corvallis on May 22 will complete the track schedule for this year.

COTTAGE GROVE WINS EASILY

First Game of Season With Yon-

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., May 3.— (Special).—Cottage Grove won its first game of the season on May 3 at the home grounds Sunday in a one-sided contest with Yoncalla, the score being 19 to 3. In six innings Yoncalla led to get of the ground three men up

to bat. The locals simply had things
their own way and but for loose play-

BOXER DIES WHILE IN RING

Opponent Is Arrested and Held on Manslaughter Charge.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 3.—Louis Sulle, 18, of this city, dropped dead in the boxing ring at the Acorn Athletic club tonight after he had sparred for seconds with "Young Saxon," a 17-year-old boxer. Persons at the ringside said no heavy blows had been struck and Medical Examiner Garlick reported no evidence of external injury on Sulle's body.

"Saxon," whose real name is Anthony Relattha, was arrested and held in bonds of $1000 on a charge of manslaughter.

STANFORD DEFEATS OREGON

Listless, Featureless Game Taken by California, 11 to 7.

EUGENE, Or., May 3.—The Stanford university baseball team won from the University of Oregon in a listless and featureless game on the diamond this afternoon by the score of 11 to 7.

The teams will play again tomorrow afternoon. The score:
