

Reducing the High Cost of Men's and Boys' CLOTHING

Permanent Reduction of 10%

This store makes no bones in saying that we believe the price of clothing is entirely too high. In fact, it has gone beyond the reach of the average man. It is our firm conviction that the public has reached the limit of buying power. With this idea before us, we have decided to make a general reduction of 10% on all men's and boys' clothing.

WHY AND HOW WE CAN DO THIS
Manufacturing and selling direct, eliminating all middlemen, gives us the prestige and power to make this price concession. We have just completed the making of about one thousand special tailored high-class suits, which go on sale today with our regular stock at 10% reduction.

MEN
Remember, that we sell a good first-class pure wool suit, all extra well tailored and in a variety of models, for young, middle-aged, or elderly men, at from—

PRINCE SEEKS FILM FAME

SALARIES LURE SECOND SON OF EX-KAISER.

Eitel Friedrich Wearies of Automobile Business Because of Small Return.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

PARIS, May 3.—(Special Cable.)—Many young German "noblemen," including the former Kaiser's second son, Eitel Friedrich, are anxious to become movie stars, according to Winfield S. Sheehan, who has just returned to Paris from Berlin and is on his way home. Mr. Sheehan says that several counts, barons, dukes, and princes have proposed to him that they be engaged to act before the screen.

They are at the end of their purses and presumably have heard of the "fabulous" salaries paid to movie stars. Most of these young aristocrats wish to go to California and lead in cowboy and wild west pictures, in which the shooting and riding especially appeal to them. Eitel Friedrich is weary of the automobile business, in which he has been engaged, and complains that he cannot make enough money at it to live respectably. Other heirs of noble houses mournfully play in proof that they are dead broke, the old clothes and celluloid collars they are wearing. Some have been driven to live in hall bedrooms.

RELIGIOUS TRUTH SAFE

Modern Learning Declared Not to Detract From Fundamentals.

Modern learning with its scientific basis has in no way detracted from the fundamental truths of religion, and the Bible in turn does not discount science. Such was the theme of Rev. Edward Constant, pastor of the Highland Congregational church, who spoke yesterday morning at the monthly meeting of the Portland Ministerial association at the Y. M. C. A. Fifty-one members were present. Little discussion followed the address of the morning.

A mandate should be placed over Armenia by the United States and should be backed by American federal appropriations according to a resolution adopted by the association. Copies of the resolution were voted to be sent all Oregon congressmen. F. J. Meyers of the Portland school for the blind spoke in behalf of a proposed city school for the adult sightless. His plan was given the endorsement of the association.

ITALIAN CHEMIST SCORES

Production of Synthetic Ammonia Pronounced Success.

ROME, May 3.—Production of synthetic ammonia is announced by Dr. Casale, prominent in the Italian chemical industry, who says he has solved the problem by the use of special machinery and a chemical reagent of his own invention. The process requires no material except air and water and works automatically without expense for attention, energy or material. It forces a mixture of nitrogen and hydrogen through catalyzing tubes at a pressure of 220 atmospheres and transforms the two gases into pure ammonia.

Dr. Casale expects soon to employ units that will enable Italy to have 300,000 tons of ammonia for fertilizers each year, besides surplus production for export. The undertaking is financed by American capital and the plant has been visited by Alfred Denis, an American commercial attaché here, who has reported to Washington.

TOURIST RATES ASSURED

SIX RAILROADS MAKE CONCESSION FOR SHRINERS.

Other Lines Now Are Expected to Fall Into Line as Result of Committee's Fight.

Six railroads yesterday announced that they will give summer tourist rates, practically a fare and one-third, to the Shriners coming to Portland over their lines in June. These big transportation companies, which refused to abide by the decision of the Transcontinental Passenger association made in Chicago shortly after the roads were turned back to their owners, are the Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Illinois Central, Rock Island, San Diego & Arizona, and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle.

This announcement was given out by J. A. Cranston and Fred G. Buchtel, of the general committee of the Shrine, who have made a strong fight for reduction in fares from all the roads of the country.

It is probable now that many temples, particularly members of some temples not yet heard from, will report at once to headquarters, for the fare matter has been in abeyance ever since the roads went back to their owners. Previous to March 1 the government authorities had refused any concessions to the Shrine committee, which made application
