Figure Licenses Increase.—More ishing gear will be in operation on Fishing Licenses Increase.—More fishing gear will be in operation on the Columbia river this season than ever in its history, as already there is about a 20 per cent increase in the number of licenses issued and to scason is but six days old. Indications point toward an average run of fish, according to Carl D. Shoemaker, secretary of the fish commission. So far his office has issued permits for 834 gill neis, 245 set nets, 58 traps, 29 fish wheels and 33 selnes. Last year on the same day there were but 25 seines recorded. The seines always make the heaviest catches.
