

SHIP MAN AND WIFE FINED FOR SPEEDING

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Standifer Violate Traffic Law.

EACH IS ASSESSED $20

Portland Real Estate Man Makes Both Arrests—Motorcycle Taken Away From Reckless Driver.

It was a family affair with G. M. Standifer, Portland shipbuilder, and Mrs. G. M. Standifer when speeding cases were taken up by Judge Rossman in the municipal court yesterday morning. Each was assessed a fine of $20 on a charge of speeding.

The two were arrested by G. S. Smith, Portland real estate man, who carries a deputy constable's star. Mr. Smith arrested Mr. Standifer last Tuesday on East Sixteenth street. He reported that the shipbuilder was passing everybody on the street at the time.

On the following day the real estate man arrested Mrs. Standifer on Milwaukee avenue. Mr. Standifer pleaded guilty to the charge of speeding, his attorney appearing for him. Mrs. Standifer, who appeared in person, pleaded not guilty.

Speeder Goes to Jail. "It seems that every time I step on my motorcycle the tail there is an officer there to arrest me," declared V. R. King, who appeared in municipal court following his arrest by Motorcycle Patrolman Kelly. King, who had been arrested two times previous on speeding charges, was driving 42 miles an hour down Union avenue.

He was fined $25 and sentenced to one day in jail. Casper Dahler, who was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolman Kelly driving 43 miles an hour on Portland boulevard, pleaded guilty to the charge of speeding. He was fined $28. H. Courtney, whose attitude was a "hard-boiled" attitude when he appeared before Judge Rossman, charged with speeding, and the result was that the judge took his motorcycle away from him for 60 days.

"I think you and the public in general will be better off if you walk a while," declared the Judge. Courtney was arrested going 48 miles an hour on Williams street.

Streeter Is Fined. W. J. Pettit answered to two charges, that of passing a streetcar while taking on passengers and of speeding, and was fined on both charges. He was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolman Anderson after he is said to have passed a streetcar at Twenty-third and Thurman streets. He was fined $15 for speeding and an additional $10 for passing the streetcar.

L. O. Haro, who was arrested by Police Lieutenant Ervin driving 28 miles an hour on Union avenue, was fined $25.

Other traffic fines levied follow: John Groeger, speeding, $5; R. G. Harris, speeding, $5; C. E. Collins, speeding, $15; and P. C. Bartholomew, failing to give right of way, $5.

LAWS ARE HELD WEAK Stricter Marriage Laws Advocated by Bishop Sumner.

SALEM, Or., May 6.—(Special).—That more drastic marriage laws with relation to certification of health would aid materially in cleansing the coming generations, was the statement made by Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner to an address before the Salem Rotary club here today. His topic was "The Care of the Boy." Bishop Sumner especially referred to the need of an intermediate institution in Oregon in order that boys convicted of crimes might not be compelled to associate with vicious criminals.

John W. Todd, superintendent of the Salem schools, was elected president of the club. H. S. Gile was named vice-president. Other officers are W. I. Staley, secretary; William Walton, treasurer; and J. C. Perry, master-at-arms.

Sawmill Owner Had Liquor.

KELSO, Wash., May 6.—(Special).—Charles Ross, formerly superintendent of the Kalamia Lumber Shingle company sawmill at Kalamia, now owner of a sawmill at Dallas, Or., pleaded guilty to a charge of having liquor in his possession and was fined $125 and costs. Ross and four others were arrested more than a year ago after having secured liquor from a vessel at the Kalamia mill dock.

Water Enough for Irrigation.

YAKIMA, Wash., May 6.—(Special).—Officials of the reclamation service say there will be no shortage in the supply of irrigation water in the Yakima valley this season if carefully used. The recent cool weather conserved the supply and counteracted the fact that the snowfall in the mountains last winter was smaller than for many years.

Kelso Girl Rescued by Brother.

KELSO, Wash., May 6.—(Special).—Myrtle, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Young, fell 15 feet from a pile of lumber at the C. A. Taylor mill into a small pond of water. Her 9-year-old brother Everett, attracted by the screams of the little girl's companions, saved his sister from drowning.
