

LIMIT ON BISHOPS' POWER IS PROPOSED

Change in Naming District Superintendents Urged.

CONFERENCE TO DECIDE

Nomination of Candidates Would Go to Methodist Conference for Approval Under Plan.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 6.—An effort will be made at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session here to limit the powers of the bishops of the church by requiring them to nominate candidates for district superintendent in each district of the church, and allow the annual conference to confirm the appointment, it became known today.

In case the annual conference should refuse to confirm, the bishops would then have to nominate another person. This matter is receiving spirited discussion in the committee on itinerancy and will probably be reported out of committee within a few days.

In his address at the night session, President Lynn Harold Hough of Northwestern university, made a plea for adequate salary for public school teachers. He spoke on the subject, "Methodism and the Intellectual Life," urging intellectual freedom in educational institutions. He said:

Conservative Radical Held Best.

"There are two prominent types in the industrial, political and religious world. They may be called the bourgeois and the radical. The bourgeois is the man who appreciates so highly the good things in the present scheme of things that he wants to keep them all. The man of the other extreme sees so vividly the good things to be that he is willing to destroy the values of the present.

"The true progress of the country depends on what may be called the conservative radical, the man who joins to the approved values of past experience, the readiness to adopt new measures and make new experiments which do not destroy these values."

Dr. Hough defined Methodism as being first an individual experience of life of God in the soul of man, and second, a new sort of experience in the life of God in humanity.

League of Nations Indorsed.

He urged that it is the duty of the church to make both of these elements of religion vital forces in the life of today.

The committee on state of church has voted to report favorably the resolution referred to it which would instruct the conference to send to the president of the United States and congressmen the paragraph from the address of the bishops relating to the league of nations and which practically indorsed a league as a guardian of world peace. Just what the committee will report has not been announced.

Among matters pending before the committee on itinerancy are those fixing a minimum salary of $1000 a year for ministers and recognition of women in the ministry.

HEART BALM CASE HEARD

M. B. HOFFMAN SUES CAPTAIN FOR $50,000.

Wife and Defendant, J. G. Wallace, Deny Guilt; Jury Gets Instructions Today.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 6.—(Special.)—Whether M. B. Hannum, 68, restaurateur is entitled to $50,000 from Captain J. G. Wallace, widely known Puget sound tugboat skipper, in view of the alleged loss of Mrs. Hannum's love, is to be decided by a jury in Judge John S. Jurey's department of superior court Friday. Testimony in the case was completed tonight and adjournment taken for the court's instructions and final argument of counsel.

Hannum recited that he and his wife, Charlotte Victoria Hannum, were married January 19, 1915, and lived together in reasonable harmony until about July 1, 1919, when Captain Wallace began to "press his attentions." Captain Wallace was said to have bestowed upon Mrs. Hannum a diamond ring and silk clothing, and the two were represented to have met secretly for motor rides. The first of the year, charged the husband, his wife told him she no longer loved him, but cared only for Captain Wallace. They subsequently separated.

January 28, 1920, it was deposed that Mrs. Hannum and Captain Wallace were discovered together in a room at a local hotel.

"Before she met Wallace," testified Hannum, "my wife was willing to do what I wanted her to and I always did what she wanted in other words, we got along fine. Of course, there were the usual married couple's quarrels."

On the witness stand Captain Wallace admitted a friendship with Mrs. Hannum, but emphatically denied that there was any wrong doing. Mrs. Hannum backed up the assertion. She has been employed as a waitress in local restaurants.

NEW INDUSTRY RUMORED

Woodenware Plant May Locate at North Bend, Or.

NORTH BEND, Or., May 6.—(Special.)—It is reported here that the Menasha Woodenware company, a large wood-products concern of Menasha, Wis. is negotiating through its local representative, Herbert Armstrong, for a lease of several hundred feet of water frontage near the Bay Park mill from the Simpson estate with a view of establishing a plant for the manufacture of staves and barrel heads.

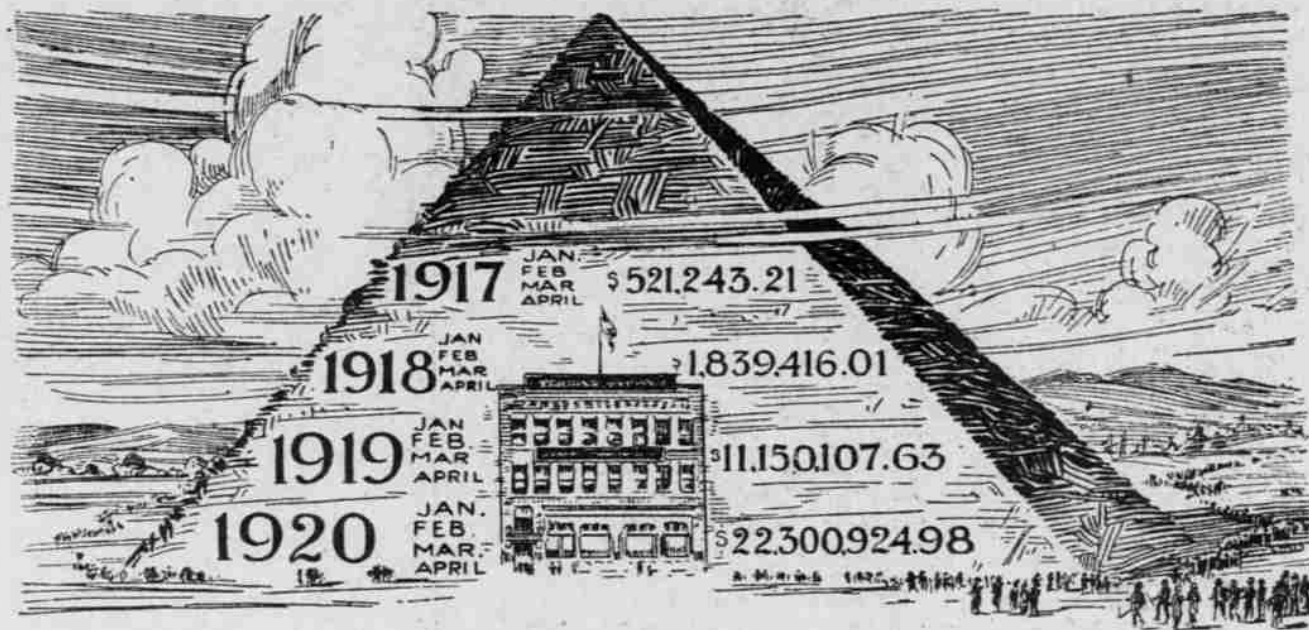

It is rumored the proposed plant will employ about 50 persons and that it will secure its supply of material largely from the local mills, using much of the waste that is now being burned.

Rational Home Remedy for Wrinkled, Baggy Skin

Shaking the face in a simple lotion made as follows, is the best thing known to dispense wrinkles, from the finest lines to the deepest crow's-foot: Powdered saxatile, one ounce, dissolved in witch-hazel, one-half pint. Your nearest druggist can supply the constituents. It is a natural and rational treatment, as it tends to remove the cause of those tell-tale signs of advancing age, worry or ill health. Having both astringent and tonic properties, the solution tightens the too-loose skin and tends to solidify the underlying muscular tissue. This smooths out the wrinkles and gives the skin a firmer supporting foundation. Obviously this effect must also reduce hanging cheeks, double chin and baggy neck. The remarkably prompt action of this hairless lotion is another commendable feature.—Adv.
