MAN CAUGHT AFTER HUNT

John Saltalamachia Charged With Contempt of Court and Misdemeanor Assault on Wife.

That he slashed his wife's throat from ear to ear and out and permanently defaced her face is the charge against John Saltalamachia, who will appear before Circuit Judge Tucker this morning for contempt of court and who also must face a complaint of assault with intent to kill, sworn out in the district attorney's office.

RESIDENT OF PORTLAND FOR 40 YEARS DROPS DEAD

Sebastian Pymale, 51 1/2 Grand avenue, who dropped dead last Thursday on the Morrison bridge as the result of a cerebral hemorrhage, was a pioneer resident of Oregon and had made his home in Portland for the past 40 years. He was 82 years of age.

WIFE-BEATING CHARGED

In a fit of anger, Fred W. Humbert beat his wife with his crutch, says Mrs. Myrtle R. Humbert in a suit for divorce filed in the circuit court yesterday. He was on crutches, she explained, because of injuries received when he was shot by a negro porter in a barber shop in which Humbert was employed. Other divorce suits filed yesterday were: Lullia Waterman against W. J. Waterman, Mary F. Brannon against Hugh Brannon and Myrtle J. Gentry against Benjamin Gentry.

WALLACE HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Linn Wallace, who was arrested Saturday night after he is said to have used a knife in an argument with C. E. Robertson in a downtown restaurant, was held by Municipal Judge Rossman on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. His bail was placed at $100. The trouble is said to have started as the result of a disagreement about the switchman's strike.

TRUCKS SUPPLANT 'DONKEYS'

Auto-trucks instead of donkey engines are to be used in logging a 100-acre tract on the Mount Hood loop road just purchased by the Sandy Lumber company. The property was sold by E. H. King of Cherrville and brought $10,000 for approximately 5,000,000 feet.

CLUB LUNCHEON ANNOUNCED

A luncheon of the Aero club of Oregon has been called for noon today at the Oregon grille. Notices of the meeting have been sent out by George Quayle, secretary.

ROAD BIDS TO BE ASKED

Bids for the paving of portions of the St. Helens road where test pavement laid in 1918 is not standing the traffic wear, and also for pavement along Montgomery drive and Columbia boulevard will be asked by the county commissioners after the return of Ralph W. Hoyt, chairman of the board, from San Francisco, where he is attending the world trade congress. It is hoped to begin work directly after the close of the congress. The county's general fund contains $284,957.21 and the road fund is $58,491.70, according to the report of Auditor Martin submitted to Commissioners Holman and Muck yesterday.

COLLINS FUNERAL HELD

Funeral services for Mrs. Odile F. Collins, 72 Oregon pioneer who died Saturday, were held yesterday morning from St. Mary's cathedral. Burial was at Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Collins had been a resident of Portland since 1858. She was a native of France, but came to this country with her parents when a small child. They moved to Portland shortly after their arrival in the United States. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. Miller, and two sons, Percy J. Collins and William F. Collins, all of Portland.

BAPTIST DRIVE GOES ON

Oregon Subscriptions Total More Than $400,000; Million Wanted. Baptist leaders of Oregon announce an extension of the $1,045,000 campaign of the Baptist new world movement drive, which opens April 25 in 36 states of the union. With the total now more than $400,000, they have decided that the campaign would continue "until nearly every cent of the $1,000,000 has been subscribed." The total in the national campaign for $100,000,000 has passed the $50,000,000 mark, according to reports received here today from Dr. John Y. Aikman, general director in the campaign. These reports are very incomplete, and the national leaders believe that several million dollars have been subscribed without having come to their knowledge.

AUTO DRIVER TRIAL SET

C. J. Anderson Faces Charge of Involuntary Manslaughter. C. J. Anderson, driver of the automobile in which Gustave Johnson was killed November 21, 1919, at East Eighty-second street and Powell Valley road, will be tried for involuntary manslaughter in the circuit court June 10, the date being set yesterday by Presiding Circuit Judge McCourt. Johnson was killed in a collision between Anderson's car and one driven by Myahale Underwood. Damages of $5000 were awarded Mrs. Josephine Johnson, widow, in the circuit court recently.

MOONSHINER DRAWS GUN

Federal Revenue Agents Capture Still and Liquor in Woods. Tony Surino, alleged moonshiner, drew a revolver on a federal revenue agent in the woods north of Hillsboro late Sunday night in an effort to escape arrest during the progress of a raid. The revenue agent, who worked out of the Portland office, crashed his own weapon over Surino's head and rendered him unconscious.

TRIO TO APPEAR TONIGHT

Pipes-Konrad-Hutchison Group to Give Concert at Hotel. A musical event of this evening will be the appearance of the Pipes-Konrad-Hutchison trio in recital at the Hotel Multnomah. This will be the last appearance of the season for this organization. The MacDowell club has sponsored the trio chamber concerts for two seasons. The programme this evening includes a Beethoven trio, No. 7, in four movements; a Wolf-Ferrari trio, opus 7, in three movements, and two short numbers, a minuet by Gouvy and the Elegie by Josef Suk, which will be repeated by request.

TWO TOWNS FAVOR TAX

Silverton and Wilsonville Indorse School Measure. "The people of Silverton and Wilsonville gave the two-mill tax measure for elementary education their unanimous indorsement at meetings held Friday and the Marion County Parent-Teacher association added its belief in the bill Saturday," said Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, president of the Oregon Parent-Teacher association, who spoke before these meetings last week and who will leave today for eastern Oregon in behalf of the measure, expecting to be gone until the day before election.

FIVE MISHAPS REPORTED

DAY'S ACCIDENTS MOSTLY OF MINOR CHARACTER. Three Men Injured by Falls—All Taken to Local Hospitals for Treatment. Five accidents, most of them industrial, were reported to the police yesterday, injuries ranging from those of a minor character to a fractured leg. John Brothner of Lebanon, Or., employed as a painter on a building at Nineteenth and Johnson streets, sustained a fractured leg yesterday when he fell from a second-story scaffold. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. Mr. Brothner is 52 years of age and married.
