MARSHALL FIELD 3D OPENS WILL ATTACK

Captain Seeks Control of $125,000,000.

FUND TIED UP FOR YEARS

Suit in Superior Court of Illinoi Friendly, but to Be Argued to End.

CHICAGO, May 13. - (Special.)-Captain Marshall Field this week started an attack on the $125,000,000 will of his grandfather. Marshall Field Supported by Attorneys J. B. Stanch-field and Walter H. Pollock of New York, the action is before Judge Foell in the superior court. The trustees, executors and bankers who are administering the huge estate are rep-resented by a half score of lawyers. Young Marshall Field demands that the residuary trust, estimated at $125,000,000 be set aside and that be declared absolute in control of

Mr. Stanchfield, in outlining the isue, told the court that the will was schemes in the history of the world's finance for tying up property."
"It prescribed a system of entail in violation of law. He estimated that the estate would be valued at more than $450.000,000 when the trust ex-pired. Under conceivable conditions. might reach one billion dollars, The trust does not expire until 1956.

"Extraordinary Scheme" Alleged. "A most cursory reading of the will before this court demonstrates an ex-traordinary scheme for tying up properry and the accumulation of money never before equaled in Old England or In New England," declared Attor-Stanchfield. "During the life thus far of the residuary trust, 14 years, no money in the way of income has ever been al-lowed to escape. Marshall Field, now 26 years old, has never received from this residuary estate any income, "When his grandfather determined to make some testamentary disposition of his property it is presumable that he knew the laws of lilinois. He must have known if there were any laws in Illinois against the tying up of property. Had the will been pre-pared in 1907, it could not have con-tained some of the provisions that it contained."

Legislation Is Quoted. Mr. Stanchfield referred here to legislation following close upon the drawing of the Field will prohibiting the very kind of tying up of large estates which his "extra-ordinary tates which his "extra-ordinary scheme" provided.

The action before the court is fourfold, instituted by the Merchants Loan & Trust company, Chauncey Keep, Arthur B. Jones and Captain Field, who as trustees of the residuary estate merely asked the court to approve their accounts, the original bill was followed by a cross-bill by Captain Field asking the court to construe the 20th clause and to hold that the trust created by it is void and that he created by it is void and that he should receive the entire residuary Entering into the suit, which is friendly in its nature, although it will be earnestly argued, as a claim of Mrs. Nancy Perkins Field Tree, the widow of Henry Field recently married to Tree. In an answer to the cross bill she sets forth that, as the widow of Henry Field, she is entitled to a dower there is the process of the set of the cross bill she sets forth that, as the widow of Henry Field, she is entitled to a dower there is the second of the set of th a dower interest in his portion of the residuary estate.

Name Marshall Liked. Attorney Stanchfield intimated that

Attorney Stanchfield intimated that the reason why Marshall Field 3d was favored with the largest residuary bequest under the will was because of the merchant's personal liking for the name Marshall.

Captain Field, the first witness, identified the will and testified he was a son of Marshall Field 2d and a grandson of the testator. He was born 26 years ago and is married. He had one brother, Henry Field, who is dead, and one sister, Gwendolyn Field. dead, and one sister, Gwendolyn Field. His mother, Mrs. Malvin Drum-mond, died last year. She inherited one-third of $5,000,000. His brother inherited one-third of $5,000,000 and one-third of the residuary estate. On us brother's death the witness.

inherited two-thirds of the residuary estate, now inherited, with his children, all of it. Mrs. Henry Field's claim as a widow must be ruled upon by the court by the court.
Did your brother contract any marriage other than that to Nancy Perkins?" "He did not," said Captain Field.

tain Field.

This question is put to attack the claim of Henry Anteny Marsh, son of Henry Field, and queen of the chorus, Peggy Marsh. Miss Marsh took $100,000 in sum for her claim, but her lawyers contend that her son has a substantial claim. The boy was represented in court by his guardian, Edward F. Dunne, former governor. A supreme court ruling may possibly divide the residuary between the boy and Marshall

BIG AUDITORIUM ASSURED

Bond Issue of $125,000 Is Voted a . The Dulles.

THE DALLES, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—The Dalles will build a civic auditorium at a cost of $125,000. This was decided yesterday, when citizens went to the polls and gave the project a majority of 154 votes. Six hundred and twenty-four votes were cast. General obligation bonds to the extent of $50,000 also were voted. The bonds carried by a majority of 285. While considerable opposition to the auditorium bond issue developed, the valiant work of the American Legion, which is strongly behind the proposition to give music, literature and art a home in this city, carried the project over by a safe margin.

ROTARIANS GET CHARTERS

Clubs at Aberdeen and Hoquiam Inaugurated by Visitors.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 13 .- (Spe cial.)—Forty-five Rotarians from Se-attle, Tacoma and Everett arrived to-day to celebrate the presentation of charters to the Aberdeen and Hoquiam Rotary clubs. Fifteen more, headed by Fresident Titus, came from Cen-tralia.

The Hoquiam charter was presented to officers of the club at noon at a luncheon at the Hotel Grayport. Visiting rotarians and the Aberdeen club members attended. The Aberdeen charter was delivered to officers of the local club at a dinner tonight at

The event was a token of appreciation of nt was a token of appreciation of Thompson's efforts on behalf of post immediately following the Armistice day tragedy, when, with H. E. Veness, he toured the northwest, speaking on Americanization and giving a true version of the massacre of ex-service men.

BLAST KILLS LABORER

Premature Explosion Believed to

Have Caused Man's Death. ABERDEEN, Wash., May 13 .- (Spe cial.)—Carl Werner Lundeen, a resident of Aberdeen for the past 15 years, and employed as power man on road construction work on North river, about 12 miles from Aberdeen, was killed yesterday when a blast he had set exploded premarkely. set exploded prematurely.

Though the explosion was heard by other workers no attention was given workers no attention was given it and the body was not found until late in the afternoon.

Eugene Engages Teachers.

EUGENE, Or., May 13.—(Special.) Eight new teachers were engaged or the grade schools last night. W. R. Rutherford, city superintendent, said that 38 out of a corps of 48 have signed contracts and that they are either graduates of normal schools or colleges and universities. Ver lew of the grade teachers now em ployed here have been engaged, as most of them signed an agreement not to serve another year if Super-intendent Rutherford is retained.

Highway Contract to Be Let. STEVENSON, Wash., May 13.— (Special.) — Highway engineers are surveying government slide, five miles west of here on the north bank highway, for the purpose of letting a contract for construction of the high-way at this point up to standard specifications. This has been a bad piece of road and it will be a great benefit to have it improved.
