SPEAKER SEES GAIN FOR WOOD IN STATE

Democratic Attacks Held Proof of Strength.

RECORD PROVES ABILITY

Montaville Flowers Gives Addres at Salem and Appears in Pulpit and at University.

SALEM, Or., May 17 .- (Special.)-The best evidence of the strength of Leonard Wood is the attacks made upon him by the democratic press. The democrats always attack the strongest republican candidate. With these statements Montaville Flowers, author and lecturer and life-long friend of William Howard Taft and Theodore Roosevelt, launched his address in the Grand theater here to-night, in which he lauded Mr. Wood as night, in which he lauded Mr. Wood as a man thoroughly American, a person of wide experience in world affairs and the candidate best qualified to occupy the position of president of the United States.

"Leonard Wood is so deeply born an American that he can be nothing else," declared Mr. Flowers, "eight of his ancestors having come to the United States in the Mayflower. He is a Roosevelt-American and nationalist. eLonard Wood has seen 25 years of unbroken service for his years of unbroken service for his country. He has been officially in all parts of America and knows the people's interests. He has been the confident of three presidents and in an

He is right on capital, righ on labor, right on the farmers, right on the league of nations and occu-pies the most judicial position among all the interests, and can give every-

"Herbert Hoover's practical withdrawal from the campaign in Oregon has greatly strengthened Mr. Wood's position, because of the candidates remaining in the field, he is the logical aspirant for the Hoover admirers to support.

"Leonard Wood's campaign has not stracked the character or the ability of any other candidate.

Convention Call at Issue. The contest of the King county delegation, according to statements of representatives of the contesting delegation, was based on the alleged refusal of County Chairman Charles D. Fullen to call the county convention to order at the hour named in the call of the convention. The contesting element thereupon, according to the statement of their representatives, called the convention to order, adopted a platform and elected delegates to he state convention

The "regular" delegation contended hat the delay in calling the conven-ion to order was due to the fact that ome of the democrats in attendance had not yet been registered, as pro-vided in the call, and that when the convention would have been called to order, the confusion resulting from the rival convention was so great as to prevent it. The contestants, on the other hand, charged that whatever confusion there may have been was caused by the "regulars" themselves, in an effort to prevent the consummation of their proceedings. # THE BEAUTY OF MECHANICS

Beauty in a motor car is more than finish deep. It goes into the mechanism.

The beauty of the Pierce-Arrow Dual Valve engine, which doubles the power without complicating the mechanism. is not visible to the eye. The harmony, of twin sparks igniting the gas simultaneously in two places and delivering the full force of the explosion, is never visualized except on blue prints.

But the result-smooth power, silent, quick-as-thought responsiveness, greater flexibility and higher efficiency in every working part-represents a beauty of mechanical achievement as distinguished in its way as graceful lines and luxurious fittings.
