

CUPS AND PRIZES AWARDED STUDENTS

Best Junior Man and Woman Receive Recognition.

AVERAGE STANDING HIGH

Scholarships Based on Work Done at University of Oregon for Past Two Terms.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 17.—(Special).—Miss Nancy Fields of Eugene was awarded the Gerlinger cup offered annually for the best all-around junior woman and Thomas ("Nish") Chapman of Marshfield, the Koyl cup for the best all-around junior man at the junior prom Saturday night in the armory.

The Gerlinger, the gift of Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Portland, a resident of the university, is for scholarship, participation in campus activities and womanliness. Miss Fields, in addition to having a high record in scholarship, is an active woman in the Y. W. C. A. and treasurer of the Women's League. The cup bears the inscription "For manners are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature and of noble minds."

The Koyl cup is awarded by Charles W. Koyl, Mr. Chapman is the seventh man to receive it. He is president of the junior class and is a letter man in football, basketball and track. He was chosen All-Pacific Coast guard in basketball. He has served as sophomore man on the student council and is a member of Psi Chi, Phi Delta Phi Law Fraternity, Psi Chi, Psi Chi, Psi Chi men's honor society, and Order of the "O", of which he is secretary. The Koyl cup was won last year by Harold White of Cottage Grove.

Honorable mentions in the Gerlinger cup contest were given to Lyle Bryson, Dorothy Blythe and Marion C. Strap, all of Eugene. For the Koyl cup, honorable mention was given to Jack Benefiel of Portland.

Scholarships Also Awarded. In addition to the awarding of the cups, four scholarship prizes by Mrs. W. F. Jewett of Eugene were presented. Annabel Denn, a freshman from Roseburg, received first prize of $50 for the women and Leo Cossman, a junior from Creswell, the first prize of the same amount for the men. Second prizes of $40 each went to Irva Smith, a senior from Waterville, and Arthur Hicks, a sophomore from Cannon City.

Miss Denn's and Miss Smith's averages are both high. Miss Denn's being 1.18 in scholarship for the past two terms, 1 being considered perfect. Nearly every grade she received was 1. This grade is seldom given. Miss Denn is a major in the school of music. Miss Smith, who is an English major and an honor student, has an average of 1.2, which is also considered remarkable. The men's average is almost equally good.

Mr. Cossman's average is 1.2. He is a major in the school of education. Mr. Hicks' average is 1.24. His major is romance language. All these averages were based upon the grades of the past two terms.

DEALERS LEGALLY LIABLE

Prosecution Threatened in Cases Where Goods Are Misbranded.

BOISE, Idaho, May 17.—(Special).—Dealers in the state of Idaho are liable for misbranded goods. This is made clear by the state department of public welfare. Samples of so-called beverages which have been sold under the label of "Apricot Cordial, Non-Intoxicating," and "Blackberry Cordial, Non-Intoxicating," were tested and found illegal.

Seventeen students compose the club, and judging from past performances in the city their singing will be well worth hearing. The programme arranged for the two-hour concert is varied and offers entertainment designed to please those inclined to the classical, as well as those who favor the popular melodies.

ARLETA CHURCH IS FIRST

$36,000 Raised for Movement and $50,000 for Building.

The Arleta Baptist church of Portland reported yesterday the conclusion of the combined building and Baptist new-world movement campaign, with an allotment of $36,000 for the latter and $50,000 for a new building.

This places an Oregon church on record as one of the most liberal in the country, according to Dr. O. C. Wright, state promotion director for Oregon.

Rev. F. H. Devine of New York, editor secretary of the home mission society, spent a week with the Arleta church and directed the drive.
