

WOOD'S PLEA FOR WHO MEELENG ONE

Dynamic Speech Delivered at Corvallis Meeting.

GREAT CROWD RESPONSIVE

Hoover Club Officials Urge Votes for General as Best Means for Beating Johnson.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 19.—(Special.)—The most lively and interesting meeting of the present campaign was held in the courthouse here last night, when Mr. Wood, who spoke to a crowded hall for nearly two hours, pouring in the broadside after broadside, after reason as to why Leonard Wood is the man the republicans of Oregon should vote for at the Friday primary.

Mr. Wood is a personal friend of General Wood and was a friend of Roosevelt, but the general expression of his remarks with intimate observation of the two men and their relation to each other and world affairs. He asserted that Wood is much more than the country's greatest soldier; that he is a statesman of rare ability, an executive with equal and a business man who has successfully conducted more large businesses than all the presidents of the United States put together.

He then proceeded to verify his statements by the logic that used up all the Wood buttons brought to the meeting, as the crowd filling out the meeting demanded them. He made no apologies for the fact that Mr. Wood had served his country faithfully as a military man, but asserted that it was the test of his achievements. He drove home his points with telling effect that brought round after round of applause.

Many men stood throughout the meeting. Every other candidate has had representatives, but the general expression on the street this morning was that the Wood meeting was the best of all and did most good for the cause, republicans.

After the meeting W. H. Savage, Benton county president of the Hoover club, gave out a statement favoring the candidacy of Mr. Wood. This morning Paul V. Marie, vice-president of the Hoover club, did the same thing.

"I believe that Mr. Hoover got out of the race with the idea in mind of making less possible the success of Mr. Johnson in Oregon," said Mr. Marie, who is president of the state fair board. "I believe that Hoover supporters should take their cue from him and place their votes where they will do most good. I believe that they should vote for Leonard Wood. While, of course, I speak only for myself, I am sure that there is an opportunity to cast my vote against Johnson for so fine an American as Leonard Wood."

Mr. Marie here today.

Paul V. Marie made practically the same statement this morning. "Not only can I conscientiously vote for Mr. Wood because of what he has done for our country, but I believe that I should vote for him because I believe that he is the best man to beat Johnson. I believe that I should vote for Leonard Wood. While, of course, I speak only for myself, I am sure that there is an opportunity to cast my vote against Johnson for so fine an American as Leonard Wood."

MILLAGE BILL IN FAVOR

CITY SCHOOL HEAD FINDS 9 IN 10 FOR MEASURE.

Principals of Suburban Districts Find Few Voters Actually Opposed to Levy.

"Nine out of every ten persons whom I meet say that they are going to vote for the elementary school bill," said D. A. Groot, superintendent of the Portland public schools, "and I think the sentiment in the state has turned our way in the last several weeks."

William Parker, principal of the Vernon school, who has headed the precinct canvass for that district, said: "The patrons of the entire district, comprising seven precincts, were wonderfully well organized and have completed the canvass of every house in the district; that meant getting in touch with about 1500 families, and in that entire canvass they met only seven persons who were openly opposed to the measure and we are trying to convert those."

The Benson Polytechnic band will play from a large motor truck in the downtown district today during the noon hour, and will give four-minute speeches on the 2-mill measure.

Mr. Walker wired: "Leonard Wood stands in. No immigration should be permitted of aliens who cannot intermarry with Americans. America for Americans. I cannot conceive of a stronger position."

Mr. Walker early today wired asking that Mr. Scott, district attorney of the local Hoover club, use his influence in swaying votes to Wood. Mr. Scott, while he had already announced such an intention, thought the Wood position could be made even
