Young Woman Proves Match for Prosecutor.

TRAGEDY DETAILS BARED

"He Promised to Marry Me," Says Alleged Murderer—"I Am One Who Has Suffered."

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 19.—(Special)—Late this afternoon Miss Jennie G. Zimmerman, charged with the murder of her cousin, Dr. Henry Zimmerman, stepped from the witness stand with her story unspoken in any particular.

The grilling which began yesterday was the severest that any prisoner has faced in the superior court in a decade. District Attorney Wright piled the frail witness with questions which were frank, almost to the point of brutality. Much of the testimony along this line was of an unprintable nature. Miss Zimmerman made no attempt to condone her moral lapses. At all times she insisted that she had submitted only because she believed that Dr. Zimmerman, despite his many shortcomings, would marry her. The witness denied positively that she had been intimate with any other man.

The district attorney shot question after question with machine-gun rapidity. He jumped from one point in the testimony to another and generally to a subject which bore no relation to the preceding question.

Seasoned Lawyer Matched. At times his queries came so fast that Miss Zimmerman, charged with the murder of her cousin, Dr. Henry Zimmerman, stepped from the witness stand with her story unspoken in any particular.

"No, sir." Then you say you didn't shoot him? "I didn't say I didn't do it," the defendant replied. "Was it an accident?" "I tell you I didn't think of defending myself until he put his hand to his hip pocket and said, 'Don't you dare to tell her Miss Sadie Feldman or I'll blow your matter.'"

"Then you think he got what he deserved?" the district attorney parried. "No, sir."

Shooting Is Not Denied. "Then you say you didn't shoot him?" the district attorney demanded. "I didn't say I didn't do it," the defendant replied. "Was it an accident?"

"I tell you I didn't think of defending myself until he put his hand to his hip pocket and said, 'Don't you dare to tell her Miss Sadie Feldman or I'll blow your matter.'"

HOW TO BUILD UP ENFEEBLED NERVES

Radiant health is impossible as long as the nerves are weak. The nerves have absolute control of the body; they regulate the activity of every organ, they direct the supply of nourishment to every part. The movement of every muscle owes its origin to a nerve.

It is small wonder then that the general health suffers when the nerves fail, as they do when their nourishment becomes weak and insufficient. The nerves get their food directly from the blood. If the blood is weak and thin the nerves are slow to react, the most direct and effective way to tone up the nervous system is to rebuild the blood. This can be accomplished by the tonic which Miss Jane Docura, of No. 213 Montana street, San Antonio, Texas, endorses.

"I had a nervous breakdown following the death of my mother," relates Miss Docura. "My health was completely undermined and I was left without ambition or strength. My blood was thin and my appetite was poor. After eating there was a continuous throbbing in the pit of my stomach. I had severe headaches day after day. My nerves were in such a bad shape that sometimes I trembled like a leaf."

"I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in England several years ago with great benefit, so I decided to try them again. There was a decided improvement in my condition after taking the first box. The throbbing in my stomach stopped and my digestion was so much better that I was able to eat a good meal with enjoyment. My headaches became less frequent and then went away entirely. My nervousness has practically disappeared and I feel better than I have in a long time. I owe a great deal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and unhesitatingly recommend them."

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."
