"My, what a beautiful park!" That was the exciamation of a atron who has been coming to THE OAKS for several years. She had just noted the improvements we have made at the big playground for the 1920 season. Portland is distinguished for scenic beauty-and one of the Sity's most beautiful spots is THE OAKS. Nowhere in the nation is a park so ideally situated: none is so complete for the refined entertainment of so many

We are next door to nature out ere and it is the out-of-door easure that hale and hearty sople enjoy and need.

It is all available to you for the ix-cent car fare from First and Alder streets if you come before P. M. any day but Sundays, or holiday. Come today-this is
