A STORY with plenty of thrills and excitement, and a pretty romance to give it color, will open tomorrow at the Star theater in "Bullet Proof," Harry Carey's latest Universal production.

The same cheery personality that won him such success in "Marked Men," "Overland Red" and other recent Universal screen features, characterizes his portrayal in "Bullet Proof" of Pierre, the athletic young man studying for priesthood, who forges a name to avenge the murder of his father.

The popular star has an excellent supporting cast and the story, written by John Frederick, was carefully filmed under the direction of Lynn Reynolds.

Kathleen O'Conner has the role of the girl with whom Pierre falls in love when he finds her half buried under a mass of dirt and rocks on a mountainside. While Pierre is trying to save her, she is both buried by a landslide and each thinks the other dead until they meet unexpectedly several years later.

MEN judge cigars by one or more of these 6 tests. Some cigars pass some tests and fail in others. Why? Because smokers' tastes vary; what one demands the other disregards.

Lord Baltimore is different. It is made to satisfy every test; no compromise with anything which any smoker of a high-grade, mild Havana cigar demands.

No matter what your test may be—one or all of the 6—you will find it satisfied in the Lord Baltimore. Wherever Lord Baltimore has been introduced it has won instant favor with smokers of quality cigars.
