

BISHOP, EXECUTED IN 1681, BEATIFIED

Treason Penalty Victim Is Honored at Rome.

TRITONS HELD IN BASILICA

Ceremony for Oliver Plunkett Is Attended by Count Plunkett, Representing Family.

ROME, May 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Oliver Plunkett, the Irish churchman who was made first archbishop of Armagh in 1689 by Pope Clement IX and who was executed for treason by the British, July 1, 1681, was today beatified with fitting ceremony.

The ceremony of beatification was held at 10 o'clock this morning in the Basilica itself, instead of the smaller hall of beatification, where such rites usually occur.

In the congregation were Count George Plunkett, representing the family of the archbishop; Sir T. Gratian Esmonde and family, Sean O'Connell, member of the Irish parliament, and the vice-mayor and members of the municipal council of Dublin.

English Bishop Is Beheaded

It had been originally announced that the mass would be celebrated by Archbishop Edward Esley of Birmingham, but Irish bishops objected to the choice of an Englishman and Monsignor Pietro Paolo, canon of St. Peter's church, of Dublin, was chosen.

The papal bull announcing the beatification was read, the relics were exposed and the curtain bearing the picture of the beatified one was withdrawn and the bell of St. Peter's rang out the tidings, being answered by peals from other churches.

Pope Visits Basilica

This afternoon there was even a greater concourse when Pope Benedict, in the midst of gorgeously-robed and uniformed dignitaries and attaches of the papal court, came to the basilica to beatify the relics. The ceremonies ended with the eucharistic benediction.

It was really Irish day at the Vatican. Cardinal Logue, the octogenarian primate of all Ireland, headed the list of distinguished churchmen present. With him were Archbishop John M. Hart of Cassel, 15 Irish bishops and many Irish abbots and pilgrims.

MANY THEFTS REPORTED

SATURDAY NIGHT BURGLARIES INCLUDE MANY ARTICLES.

Entire City and Second-Hand Store at Vancouver, Wash., Are Visited.

Burglars made the rounds of the city Saturday night and yesterday morning judging from the reports turned in at the police station yesterday and a quantity of articles ranging from jewelry to wearing apparel was stolen.

Mrs. T. T. Williams, Peninsula apartments, Killingsworth and Al-bina avenues, reported that her apartment was entered and two rings, a locket and a wrist watch taken.

Harry Avery, negro, reported that a quantity of clothing and other belongings were taken from him while he was working at a camp at Calvert, Or. He said that the articles which included a suit, a pair of shoes, a razor, were taken by a negro who left the camp for Portland.

The pair of shoes was located in a second hand shop by inspectors Hyde and Abbott. Inspectors are looking for the thief at Vancouver, Wash., who burglarized a quantity of articles taken, according to a telephone message received from the chief of police there. The stolen articles included jewelry, cameras, knives, a suit of clothes and a hand bag.

Mrs. A. Doszsch reported to the police that she saw a man come out of her house as she was returning late Saturday night. The police made an investigation but nothing was missing.

The Viking Marine Paint company of 487 North Twenty-ninth street, was broken into by burglars who broke the glass in the door. Nothing was missed.

Patrolman Johnson reported that he lost a valuable Masonic emblem watch chain.

COLLEGE PLANS FEATURE

Outdoor Service to Be Part of Commencement at Albany.

ALBANY, Or., May 23.—(Special.)—A feature of the commencement exercises at Albany college this year will be an open air service on the campus by the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations Sunday evening, June 6, at which Fred W. Neal, a member of the class of 1908, who has served several years as a missionary in Africa, will speak.

In the forenoon the annual baccalaureate service will be held in the First Presbyterian church and the sermon will be delivered by Dr. W. F. White, regional director for the Pacific coast of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

WOMEN END CONFERENCE

Methodist Missionary Society of District Meets at Gresham.

GRESHAM, Or., May 23.—(Special.)—The 15th annual conference of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Salem district, Methodist Episcopal church, closed here Friday after a series of annual reports and several special lectures on the different lines of endeavor. Outstanding among the speakers was Mrs. J. H. Parsons of Tacoma (Wash.) national bureau secretary for Alaska who gave fraternal impressions of that country and described the work among the Eskimos. Miss Ota Davis, superintendent of the Portland settlement center, was the principal speaker on Thursday. Mrs. George H. Alden of Salem was another speaker.

Gresham chapter won the silk flag for greatest missionary activity during the year. The newly-elected officers are Mrs. K. Burleson, McMinnville, president; Mrs. O. A. Eastham, Gresham, vice-president; Mrs. Clara Jack, Oregon City, second vice-president; Mrs. Emma V. Huddle, McMinnville, corresponding secretary; M. W. Patton, Forest Grove, secretary-treasurer. The department secretaries are Mrs. Charles E. Gibson of Newberg, young people's work; Mrs. A. G. Olsen, children's work; Mrs. C. J. Little, Forest Grove, literature; Mrs. F. Dunlap of Salem, temperance; Mrs. George Osborn, Oregon City, mite box; Mrs. Honnold, McMinnville, permanent fund; Mrs. C. C. Monmouth, evangelism; Mrs. M. C. Wire, Oregon City, supplies; Mrs. S. C. Clark, Forest Grove, stewardship; Mrs. Etta Loomis, Silverton, working fund.

COACH HAS PAGEANT ROLE

OLD STAGE VEHICLE USED IN CORVALLIS DRAMA EVENT.

700 Students Participate in Big Outdoor Portrayal of Development of Oregon.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 23.—(Special.)—A real prairie schooner and old-fashioned stage coach were featured in the historical pageant held here yesterday afternoon by more than 500 women of the women's physical education department, assisted by nearly 100 men. The history of Oregon was represented in the drama, beginning with the first entrance of white men.

Oregon's progress was shown in three episodes. The first included the early explorations and settlements—Indian days. The second told of the pioneer days—the passing of the Indian and coming of the white man. The third episode brought the "Spirit of Oregon," the "Spirit of Education" and the "Spirit of Oregon Agricultural College," telling of the growth of the state into strength and wisdom through co-operation and work.

Costumes that were typical of each episode were worn by the participants, some 20 military uniforms of the civil war days being worn. Indian costumes were in evidence, including feathers and war paint. The old-time bridal costume was pictured in a portrayal of the first marriage in Oregon, in which the bride party was led away by the stage coach and six horses.

Miss Edna A. Cooks, director of women's physical education, was director of the pageant and was assisted by other members of the faculty of her department and other departments. Some of the principal characters in the play were Miss Ethel Long, Caldwell; Miss Ida Linn Scharpf, Portland; Miss Lois Dorn, Pasadena, Cal.; Miss Evelyn Pulker, Astoria; Miss Edna A. Cooks, Corvallis, and Miss Florence Holmes, Portland.

On his way to Tacoma in a launch after he had been shot by Mrs. Carlson, Miller spent 29 years in Alaska, prospecting and mining over nearly every gold field. He came out several years ago with a "stake," the exact size of which he kept a secret. During his stay in Alaska he always went under the name of George Baker, and he made no intimate friends. Even after he settled at Joe's Bay on a small farm he took no one into his confidence.

Alaskan "Stake" Admitted. Once, while in a communicative mood, he informed Remann that he had a "stake" in Alaska and intended to spend the rest of his life quietly and at ease on a little farm. Miller's house and clothing failed to reveal even a scrap of information about his identity. He had no old letters or records. He had no old books. He had no bank accounts.

He carried large sums of money, however, and he had a small office and extracted several $100 bills. Remann said.

On his way to Tacoma in a launch after he had been shot by Mrs. Carlson, Miller spent 29 years in Alaska, prospecting and mining over nearly every gold field. He came out several years ago with a "stake," the exact size of which he kept a secret. During his stay in Alaska he always went under the name of George Baker, and he made no intimate friends. Even after he settled at Joe's Bay on a small farm he took no one into his confidence.

"Oh, I'm going to pull out of this all right. I think I will settle up my affairs for myself," he declared. He relapsed into silence and within ten minutes he was dead.

JUNIOR PROM IS HELD

Week-End at Agricultural College Ends With Dance.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 23.—(Special.)—The junior prom, the big annual social function of the year, was held last night as the last evening event of the junior week-end, approximately 500 couples being present. The dance was planned by a committee of juniors headed by Leo Spitzberg of Salem. Many graduates and former students as well as high school students and visitors attended the prom and other week-end events.

The junior vaudeville, another traditional event of the week-end, was held on Thursday and Friday nights before packed houses in the women's gymnasium and Majestic theater. Included on its programme were members of the college orchestra, a stunt by each of the classes and acts by individuals. But, unless a release, any very close-mouthed. He may have a wife and family, or brothers or sisters, somewhere. But, unless we find them the estate will go to the state. The probate of the Miller estate is now under way in the Pierce county superior court.

"I would like to locate the man's heirs," said Attorney Remann. "I would like to know his history. He may have had something to hide. I don't know. He never talked to anybody. He was always a recluse, and very close-mouthed. He may have a wife and family, or brothers or sisters, somewhere. But, unless we find them the estate will go to the state. The probate of the Miller estate is now under way in the Pierce county superior court."

Oh, I'm going to pull out of this all right. I think I will settle up my affairs for myself," he declared. He relapsed into silence and within ten minutes he was dead.

TUG OF WAR IS DRAW

Aggie Sophomores Swim Race After 15-Minute Pull.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 23.—(Special.)—For the first time in history of the college tug-of-war took place. The more tug of war pulled the other through the mill race in the annual contest. The tug of war was held this morning beginning at 9:15 and lasting 15 minutes, the maximum time agreed upon, after which the entire male portion of the sophomore class swam through the mill race, according to agreement.

Had the freshmen team been pulled through their entire class would have had to swim through, according to tradition. The time was limited to minutes to prevent injury to the men.

The annual burning of the green caps and ribbons of the freshmen was held just after the tug of war.

VICTIM OF WRECK DIES

Wife and Child Killed in Crash of Train and Auto Truck.

VALLEY, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—A woman and child were killed when an automobile truck in which he was riding with his family was struck by a Great Northern passenger train, died Friday night from his injuries. His 2-year-old daughter was killed in the collision, and Mrs. Snodgrass, a 7-year-old son were badly injured.

LEGION HALL OPENING DELAYED

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—Shortage of paper hangers and painters in the city has delayed the opening of the American Legion headquarters for another month.

S. & H. Green, stamps for cash. Holman Fuel Co. Main 252, 260-21. Adv.

SHE IS SO WILD She Won't Even Wear Clothes Because They "Smell Missionary"

WOMEN END CONFERENCE Methodist Missionary Society of District Meets at Gresham.

GRESHAM, Or., May 23.—(Special.)—The 15th annual conference of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Salem district, Methodist Episcopal church, closed here Friday after a series of annual reports and several special lectures on the different

DEAD MAN'S 'STAKE' REMAINS UNCLAIMED

Secret of Identity and Fortune Carried to Grave.

HEIRS ARE NOT LOCATED

Tacoma Farmer, Reputed to Have Alaskan Fortune, Dies at Hands of Woman Enemy.

TACOMA, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—Mystery surrounds the identity of George Baker, 60, Home Colony farmer who was shot and killed at noon May 8 by Mrs. Anna Carlson at his little home on Joe's Bay, near Tacoma.

It has been learned that Baker's real name was John Miller. Telegrams have been sent to Brookfield, Mo., where his relatives were reported to live, but Attorney Fred Remann, who is handling the estate, has been unable to locate anyone who ever heard of his name.

Search also is being made for a safety deposit box Miller is known to have had. One box already has been found. It contained bonds worth $4000.

Miller's statements to Remann over the period when Remann was defending him against lawsuits brought by Mrs. Carlson for breach of promise and false imprisonments, led Remann to believe there is still another box containing a small fortune.

Remann said that he had been unable to find all of Miller's property. Oregon's progress was shown in three episodes. The first included the early explorations and settlements—Indian days. The second told of the pioneer days—the passing of the Indian and coming of the white man. The third episode brought the "Spirit of Oregon," the "Spirit of Education" and the "Spirit of Oregon Agricultural College," telling of the growth of the state into strength and wisdom through co-operation and work.

Costumes that were typical of each episode were worn by the participants, some 20 military uniforms of the civil war days being worn. Indian costumes were in evidence, including feathers and war paint. The old-time bridal costume was pictured in a portrayal of the first marriage in Oregon, in which the bride party was led away by the stage coach and six horses.

Miss Edna A. Cooks, director of women's physical education, was director of the pageant and was assisted by other members of the faculty of her department and other departments. Some of the principal characters in the play were Miss Ethel Long, Caldwell; Miss Ida Linn Scharpf, Portland; Miss Lois Dorn, Pasadena, Cal.; Miss Evelyn Pulker, Astoria; Miss Edna A. Cooks, Corvallis, and Miss Florence Holmes, Portland.

On his way to Tacoma in a launch after he had been shot by Mrs. Carlson, Miller spent 29 years in Alaska, prospecting and mining over nearly every gold field. He came out several years ago with a "stake," the exact size of which he kept a secret. During his stay in Alaska he always went under the name of George Baker, and he made no intimate friends. Even after he settled at Joe's Bay on a small farm he took no one into his confidence.

"Oh, I'm going to pull out of this all right. I think I will settle up my affairs for myself," he declared. He relapsed into silence and within ten minutes he was dead.

WOMAN IS NEW FRIEND

Baker met the Carlson woman after he settled at Joe's Bay. According to his story, she made advances to him. He charged her with burning down his house and chicken house. At one time he had her arrested and tried for insanity, but she was freed. She charged he made love to her and promised to marry her. This he denied.

At the time of the trial of the suits totaling $15,000, which Mrs. Carlson brought against Miller, he had arranged for the sale of all his property and had a fortune in his shoes. He often declared if the jurists decided against him he would never pay the woman a cent.

"I would like to locate the man's heirs," said Attorney Remann. "I would like to know his history. He may have had something to hide. I don't know. He never talked to anybody. He was always a recluse, and very close-mouthed. He may have a wife and family, or brothers or sisters, somewhere. But, unless we find them the estate will go to the state. The probate of the Miller estate is now under way in the Pierce county superior court."

Oh, I'm going to pull out of this all right. I think I will settle up my affairs for myself," he declared. He relapsed into silence and within ten minutes he was dead.

THREE FIREMEN INJURED

San Francisco Plant Burns, Loss May Reach $1,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23.—Three firemen were injured and the plant of the Illinois-Pacific Glass company was destroyed by fire today. Officials of the company estimated the loss would reach $1,000,000.

MRS. O'CONNELL ELECTED

Lewis County Minute Women Officers for Next Year.

CHEHALIS, Wash., May 23.—Lewis county minute women in session here yesterday elected Mrs. M. T. O'Connell of Winlock as county councillor. She will be assisted in her work by Conservative Custodian FOURTH ST. WASHINGTON ST.

VALLEY, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—A woman and child were killed when an automobile truck in which he was riding with his family was struck by a Great Northern passenger train, died Friday night from his injuries. His 2-year-old daughter was killed in the collision, and Mrs. Snodgrass, a 7-year-old son were badly injured.

LEGION HALL OPENING DELAYED

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—Shortage of paper hangers and painters in the city has delayed the opening of the American Legion headquarters for another month.

S. & H. Green, stamps for cash. Holman Fuel Co. Main 252, 260-21. Adv.

SHE IS SO WILD She Won't Even Wear Clothes Because They "Smell Missionary"

WOMEN END CONFERENCE Methodist Missionary Society of District Meets at Gresham.

GRESHAM, Or., May 23.—(Special.)—The 15th annual conference of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Salem district, Methodist Episcopal church, closed here Friday after a series of annual reports and several special lectures on the different

Mrs. A. E. Rice of Chehalis as first vice-councillor, Mrs. Kina Bower of Centralia as second vice-councillor, Mrs. Finley Downs of Dryad as secretary and Mrs. Bertha Gage of Chehalis as historian. Mrs. Ruth Karr McKee of Vancouver, state councillor, gave an interesting and instructive address. Miss Myrtle Cottrill discussed the work of the women's legislative council, the session of which is to be held in Centralia May 25 and 26. The community sing was led by Miss Anna Eshlynd. Read of Centralia, who also sang a solo, "The Americans Come." Representative John A. Gentry of Wenatchee was presented to the convention and talked briefly.

BIG 'SPLASH' PREPARING

ROUSING EVENT IS PROMISED BY LOCAL POST.

Four Torpedo-Boat Destroyers to Take Part in Naval Pageant at Grays Harbor.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—The most rousing celebration Grays Harbor has had since the "harbor splash" idea took form a few years ago is promised by the local post, American Legion, in the programme for this year.

Four torpedo-boat destroyers have been promised the harbor by the federal government, and will take part in an elaborate naval pageant. An airplane will circle the city during the day and early evening. A mammoth community picnic will be held at Electric park in the afternoon of July 3. Ball games will be played and a programme of athletic events, aquatic sports, dances and other entertainment will be staged by the Legion and allied organizations.

The three-day celebration will start July 5, with a street parade. A double-header will be played by harbor ball teams in the afternoon, and a smoker will be an event of the evening. The smoker will be arranged in an out-door pavilion and the card calls for a pair of the highest-priced boxes ever put on in a local contest. Sunday, the Fourth, will be comparatively quiet, but a five-day programme is promised for July 5. A military pageant, a seaplane flight, an automobile parade and several ball games have been listed.

Miller's statements to Remann over the period when Remann was defending him against lawsuits brought by Mrs. Carlson for breach of promise and false imprisonments, led Remann to believe there is still another box containing a small fortune.

Remann said that he had been unable to find all of Miller's property. Oregon's progress was shown in three episodes. The first included the early explorations and settlements—Indian days. The second told of the pioneer days—the passing of the Indian and coming of the white man. The third episode brought the "Spirit of Oregon," the "Spirit of Education" and the "Spirit of Oregon Agricultural College," telling of the growth of the state into strength and wisdom through co-operation and work.

Costumes that were typical of each episode were worn by the participants, some 20 military uniforms of the civil war days being worn. Indian costumes were in evidence, including feathers and war paint. The old-time bridal costume was pictured in a portrayal of the first marriage in Oregon, in which the bride party was led away by the stage coach and six horses.

Miss Edna A. Cooks, director of women's physical education, was director of the pageant and was assisted by other members of the faculty of her department and other departments. Some of the principal characters in the play were Miss Ethel Long, Caldwell; Miss Ida Linn Scharpf, Portland; Miss Lois Dorn, Pasadena, Cal.; Miss Evelyn Pulker, Astoria; Miss Edna A. Cooks, Corvallis, and Miss Florence Holmes, Portland.

On his way to Tacoma in a launch after he had been shot by Mrs. Carlson, Miller spent 29 years in Alaska, prospecting and mining over nearly every gold field. He came out several years ago with a "stake," the exact size of which he kept a secret. During his stay in Alaska he always went under the name of George Baker, and he made no intimate friends. Even after he settled at Joe's Bay on a small farm he took no one into his confidence.

"Oh, I'm going to pull out of this all right. I think I will settle up my affairs for myself," he declared. He relapsed into silence and within ten minutes he was dead.

STOLEN AUTO IS WRECKED

Car Listed as Belonging to Portland Man Is Located.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 23.—(Special.)—Sheriff Johnson yesterday brought to town a wrecked automobile, apparently stolen and deserted on the edge of the Columbia River highway just east of this city. The car, which carries an Oregon license number 2728, was badly damaged. Two men, one described as unusually tall and the other a short, crippled fellow, were seen leaving the automobile. The body and motor parts, apparently beaten up with a hammer, were badly damaged. Tools were found buried in sand by the roadside.

The auto theft bureau has been making check of public garages of the city and this has proved so effective in the work of locating stolen machines that Lieutenant Thatcher said the check of private garages was to be tried also.

He said that a detachment of men from the auto theft bureau would be detailed for this new work today.

LEGION GAINS 400,000

Nation-Wide Drive Estimates Are Based on Partial Returns.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 23.—Estimates based on incomplete reports from all parts of the country received here indicated that the American Legion had added between 400,000 and half a million new members to its rolls in the nation-wide membership campaign of last week. The final check will be made June 1.

New York, Texas, California, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania all appear as contestants for first place in the race on the basis of early returns.

CUTOFF TO BE INSPECTED

Improvement of Sunset and Columbia Connecting Link Proposed.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 23.—(Special.)—A delegation consisting of the county commissioners, the county engineer and the Commercial club good roads committee will go to Walla Walla Monday to inspect the proposed cutoff to connect the Sunset highway with the Columbia highway. There are 22 miles of road to be improved, six of which are in this county and 27 in Oregon.

State aid will be asked to build the six-mile stretch, it being understood here that Oregon will improve its portion of the road. This will give an unbroken highway connection between Spokane and Portland, via Walla Walla and shorten the route considerably.

STOP SWAPPING CUSTOMERS

BRING IN NEW ONES!

Join the Portland Chamber of Commerce and increase your own prosperity by helping to develop the community

It works out that way—every time. Successful business men—the backbone of progressive cities—have learned that without civic development there can be little or no individual development. They find that the time, money, and effort spent in unselfishly furthering the interests of their community comes back to them with interest.

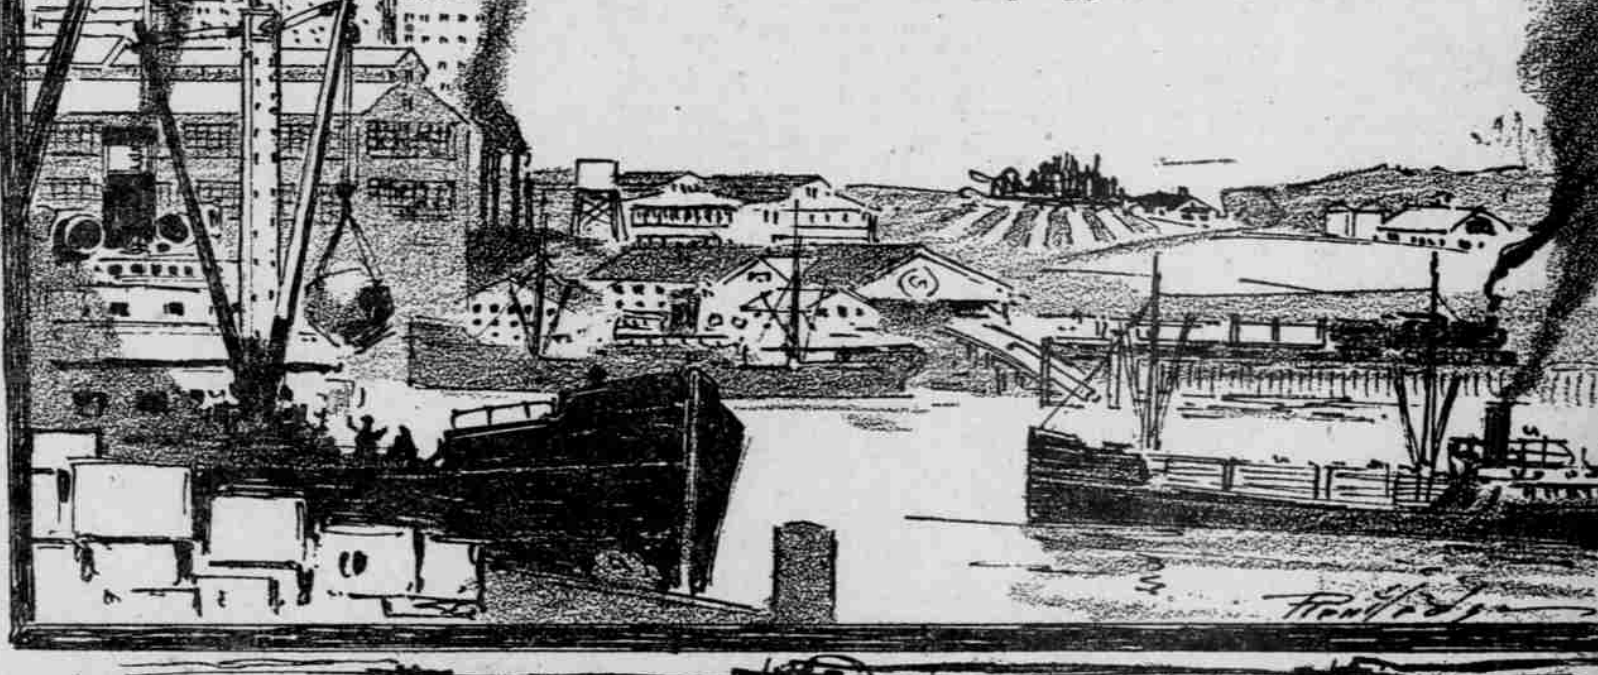

Working for yourself alone—ignoring the community's interests—is merely "swapping customers". No man ever reaped life's greatest rewards, either in money, happiness or the estimation of his fellow man—without playing his part in the work of bettering his community—such work as the members of the Portland Chamber of Commerce are doing.

The members of the Portland Chamber of Commerce are accomplishing good work—work that benefits Portland as a whole, and YOU as an individual. Join them, keep up your end of this work!

The Portland Chamber is constantly attracting "new customers". It is the most powerful factor in building up Portland. It is bringing in actual wealth. It is inducing new plants to come to Portland and thus building payrolls. It is helping to develop foreign trade and make Portland a recognized world port. All these things help you and you ought to help them by being a member of the Portland Chamber.

Join your Chamber of Commerce today!

Telephone Broadway 440 and ask for a membership application blank

highway with the Columbia highway. There are 22 miles of road to be improved, six of which are in this county and 27 in Oregon. State aid will be asked to build the six-mile stretch, it being understood here that Oregon will improve its portion of the road. This will give an unbroken highway connection between Spokane and Portland, via Walla Walla and shorten the route considerably.

Advertisement for Frank Naus Drug Store. Includes text: 'Your Drug Buying', 'Nothing bears more importance in the family than that department of its needs.', 'Quality drugs have helped build up our prescription reputation at Naus—while good service has also played its part.', 'The Store of "Dependable Drugs" Never Closes.', 'Maid O' Clover ICE CREAM', 'The Cream of Creams', 'Most ice creams look alike—but few taste alike. And where can you find better judges of things that taste good than "young folks"?' 'Wherever you see the MAID O' CLOVER Ice Cream sign you'll see them, and they seldom stop at one plate.', 'From the Quality MAID O' CLOVER Factory; at all good dealers; in all good flavors; bricks or bulk.', 'mutual Creamery Company PORTLAND', 'COR. 6TH AND ALDER STS. SELLING 50c. FRANK NAUS PORTLAND, OREGON. PHONE MAIN 7211.'