

WASHINGTON BEATS CALIFORNIA CREW

Bears Creep Up Near End in Heartbreaking Sprint.

LEAD IS SCANT SIX FEET

Coxswains Increase Pace as Shells Tear Through Water for Premier Honors of Coast.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Wash., May 24.—(Special.)—With a lead of six scant feet the purple and gold oarsmen forced their shell across the finish line and defeated the California crew in the annual varsity boat race, held on Lake Washington this morning.

The race was postponed after the Washington shell capsized when half way through the course. California's heartbreaking sprint during the last half mile was the feature of the race, and officials and witnesses are frank in their opinion that had the course been 20 yards farther, victory would have gone to the gold and blue.

The Bears lost to stroke. Then the variety race was run to be the hardest fought and the closest ever witnessed on northern waters.

Washington was leading by a quarter length, which was increased to a half length in the next few hundred yards. Washington was hitting a 21 stroke to California's shorter 31.

At the two-mile point Washington gained the lead which was responsible for their victory. They responded to the coxswain's call for an increase of one in their stroke, and the home boat took a three-fourths length lead, which was widened then from a full length to a length and one-half.

The real grind began. California increased its stroke to an extent that recaptured a quarter length, and Washington added another notch to its speed in an effort to maintain the lead.

Washington was pulling 26 stroke, getting in front of the leading California boat by a rowing to the northern method of cording. California was leaping ahead with a heart-breaking back-of-stroke to the minute and fighting to win.

The freshmen race over the two-mile course showed clearly the supremacy of the Washington yearlings. The Californians got under way first and won a length lead in the first 200 yards.

The Washington youngsters forged ahead and increased their lead from one length to five in the last mile. Time was 19 minutes and 54 seconds.

The sportsmanship of the Californians has caused much favorable comment in Seattle. It was the wish of the southern crew that the race be rowed over after the Washington shell was swayed by the high waves.

The line-ups follow: California: Stroke, Larsen; 7, Downs; 6, Reinhard; 5, Marquand; 4, Deroulet; 3, Meehan; 2, Captain Hinshaw; bow, Rogers; coxswain, Winstad.

Washington—Stroke, Captain Brandenbater; 7, Eggen; 6, Clark; 4, Nord; 3, Burke; 2, Nedler; bow, Magnuson; coxswain, Wagner.

WILD AIR WINS METRO STAKE

Whitney Colt Takes Mile Handicap Classic.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Henry Payne Whitney's Wild Air won the metropolitan handicap at one mile at Belmont park today over three other starters.

Verdure, led across the finish by two open lengths. The favorite, Whitney's S. C. Hildreth's Thunderclap, hard driven, was second, six lengths in front of On Watch, an added star owned by G. W. Hill.

Tassel, also from Hildreth's stable, was five lengths away.

The winner and the Hildreth pair were split favorites with the public at odds of 11 to 10, with as much as 6 to 1 being laid against the added colt On Watch.

It was the smallest field that ever competed for the Metro stake, which was inaugurated in 1891. The value of the race to the winner was $3865.

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

Two leading characters, Noah Beery and Marguerite De La Motte, of "The Sagebrusher," now showing at the Rivoli theater.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Majestic—Tom Moore, "Duds." Peoples—Eugene O'Brien, "His Wife's Money." Liberty—Nadimova, "The Heart of a Child." Columbia—Mae Murray, "On With the Dance." Rivoli—Emerson Hough's "The Sagebrusher." Star—Harry Carey, "Bullet Circle—J. Warren Kerrigan, "The Lord Loves the Irish." Globe—Corinne Griffith, "Human Collateral."

ANYONE can make jazz out of a symphony out of jazz, said Mischa Guterson, director of the Rivoli orchestra in speaking of a concert number being used this week. There is no jazz on this week's programme at the Rivoli yet the number to which Mr. Guterson had reference is "The Vamp." It is played with a delicacy and finish that lifts its melody from the common place to a charming study emphasized by a novel arrangement in which the piano, played by Francis Longy, has an important role.

"The Sagebrusher" is the photoplay feature at the Rivoli. This is a picture made under the direction of the same producer as the Zane Grey stories and while from the pen of Emerson Hough is very much of the same type, its cast in many important respects is different from other productions. Roy Stewart plays a prominent part as does Marguerite De La Motte, Noah Beery and Arthur Morrison.

A matrimonial agency starts the plot of "The Sagebrusher" off with a woman leading by a quarter length to a homesteader who has lived years of the common place to a charming study emphasized by a novel arrangement in which the piano, played by Francis Longy, has an important role.

Music of the Columbia string orchestra under the direction of Vincent C. Knowles is said by Manager Raleigh to be responsible for a large share of the success of "On With the Dance" now in its second week's run.

CHICAGO HEAVY WANTS FEW MORE COAST EASY ONES.

"Red" Wade Announces Intention of Chasing Fred Fulton Until He Takes to Cover.

"Red" Wade, his heavyweight championship contender, Andre Anderson of Chicago, and Dick Brenton, California bantamweight, arrived in Portland yesterday from Seattle where the latter two battled last Friday night.

Wade is going to bundle him up and chase Fulton all over the country until he forces him into the squared circle.

Bobby Evans, matchmaker of the Portland boxing commission, and Matchmaker Frank Kendall, of the same commission, held a conference with Wade yesterday regarding the services of Anderson within the next few weeks.

St. Paul light heavyweight, has been mentioned as a possible opponent for Anderson here. Bobby Evans has been dickering with Jack Reddy, Mike's manager, for over a month and may close a match between the St. Paul boxer and Anderson.

KILBANE IS HELD TO DRAW

Lew Tandler Loses Hard Fight to Eddie Fitzsimmons.

Need to Meet North Pacific.

Disappointed because the independent college track meet was called off at Salem the Reed college and showing at the Columbia theater. Few persons realize this, however, as the Columbia theory of a musical setting is to make the picture more prominent and not to attract attention from it to the orchestra. Although the picture is ultra modern and fashionable, the music selected is from the conservative and more established masters. "I Love You Truly" is its theme.

Red Hawthorne has been used throughout the Liberty theater this week as the floral decoration. Great sprays of it adorn the fountain in the foyer as well as in the huge baskets placed in conspicuous places throughout the entire theater. Single sprays and writing desks on the mezzanine floor.

Matt Moore, who easily holds the title as champion ex-brother-in-law of noted motion picture actresses, plays the leading role in Marshall Neilan's latest production, "Don't Ever Marry." If Mr. Moore's three brothers had followed this injunction, Matt, himself, perhaps he would be the ex-brother-in-law of Mary Pickford, Alice Joyce and Grace Cunard.

The picture is a comedy, produced with the same consummate master-craftsmanship which Mr. Neilan showed in "The River's End" and it will be released through the First National Exhibitors circuit.

Shirley Mason recently realized a life-long ambition. She has always wanted to be a boy so she could "go barefoot." When Maurice Tourneur offered her the role of Jim Hawkins in his big screen version of "Treasure Island," Miss Mason jumped at the opportunity.

"What sort of a costume do I wear?" she asked. "Well," said the famous producer, "if you follow Stevenson literally, you really ought to go around barefoot, but—"

"Wonderful!" exclaimed the actress. "When do I start?" "Only one little thing troubled Miss Mason—she was afraid playing a boy's part would mean cutting off her hair. But Mr. Tourneur soon reassured her that boys—and men too—do not cut their hair until they are 17 or 18 years old."

Robert McKim is the proud daddy of a brand new baby boy. Director Hugh Ryan Conway, who is telling "Bad Bob" what to do in Upton Sinclair's "Money Changers," reports that there is no sign of Mr. McKim's reforming in pictures as yet. McKim's reforming son will be as famous a screen villain as his father.

GIBSON TO DIRECT JOE BENJAMIN FIGHT

Eddie Shannon Ready for All Lightweights.

LYNCH TO MEET HERMAN

Irishman Wants Chance at Leonard if Victor in Bout Scheduled for Wednesday.

BY DICK SHARP. Billy Gibson, who directs the affairs of Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard and Joe Benjamin is not going to take any chance on entrusting Joe Benjamin in the hands of others, when the lanky lightweight exchanges punches with Eddie Shannon at the armory June 2, for the holder of the lightweight champion has gone on record as saying that he and he alone will direct the Benjamin attack when the gong sounds for the Celt and his new lightweight to face the barrier.

In his match here with Freddie Anderson, Benjamin looked anything but the improved fighter the standard notices said he was, his judgment of distance being off color and the punch he was supposed to have developed in the east failed to put in its appearance.

Since meeting Anderson here Benjamin has taken on Eddie Mahoney and Joe Miller. He had little trouble in winning the call over Miller, who is rated as one of the leaders in the California four-round game, scoring a knockdown over the rugged Miller, a trick that few if any other boys ever accomplished.

Miller has won decision over Johnny McCarroll, Liberty champion, besides holding Alex Trambilas to a draw, something that few lightweight figure to do, as Alex outgrew the lightweight ranks quite some time ago.

In his match with Mahoney, Benjamin entered the ring with a badly bruised right hand and, though Mahoney was being looked after from the start, he was unable to do anything nearly stowed the Irish lightweight champion away in the final canto with a snare left cross.

The affair with Mahoney was called a draw. Any boy who can trim Joe Miller and hold Eddie Mahoney even for a night is a contender for the title of the Irish lightweights in America, so there must be some ground to Benjamin's claims that he was sick when he met Anderson.

In facing Shannon, Benjamin will be meeting a lad who has unlimited confidence in his ability to defeat any living lightweight. Shannon is of the opinion that he can defeat both Benjamin and Leonard. Shannon has Matchmaker Evans to wait for the outcome of his go with Benjamin before he makes a move to meet the champion during the Shrine week and though the matchmaker is at present negotiating with several of the best lightweights in the business and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton to take on the celebrated second, it may be that Shannon will have his wish if he is able to dispose of Benjamin.

"Well," said the famous producer, "if you follow Stevenson literally, you really ought to go around barefoot, but—"

"Wonderful!" exclaimed the actress. "When do I start?" "Only one little thing troubled Miss Mason—she was afraid playing a boy's part would mean cutting off her hair. But Mr. Tourneur soon reassured her that boys—and men too—do not cut their hair until they are 17 or 18 years old."
