

LION CAUSES SCARE IN NEW YORK HOTEL

Pet of Leavenworth, Wash., Man Excites Waiter.

ANIMAL HIDDEN IN BOX

Lunge for Raw Beef Carried by Hotel Employee Is Too Much; Patron Asked to Leave.

NEW YORK, May 24.—A 900-pound full-grown, bushy-haired lion Sunday caused much excitement and some labor unrest in the Hotel Belleclaire, where he is sharing a first-floor suite with his owner, Thomas R. Zann, a retired lumber merchant of Leavenworth, Wash., arrived at the hotel yesterday afternoon with the lion in a large canvas-covered wooden case, which was hoisted through a window.

Lion Leaps for Raw Beef. The beef was obtained by a waiter and when he entered Mr. Zann's room Jim was on a window seat, but the sight of raw beef was too much. Jim made one lunge and in a few seconds was sole owner of the beef. His knees knocking together, the waiter ran to the window and told him, "The thing that came in the piano box was a ferocious lion."
