ACCUSED ROBBER HELD TO JURY.—William Whiting, arrested by Lieutenant of Detectives Maloney Tuesday on a charge of having robbed the house of James Manary, 1512 East Yamhill street, on April 2, was held to answer to the grand jury on a charge of larceny from a dwelling yesterday by Municipal Judge Rossman. His bail was placed at $1000.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS TO MEET.—With delegates in attendance from Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., as well as representatives from Bellingham, Everett, Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, the convention of the United Commercial Travelers which will be held in Portland tomorrow and Saturday, promises to be one of the largest meetings of its order held in the northwest. The session will close Saturday morning, after which the members will be taken over the Columbia highway to Cascade locks. On their return they will have dinner at Mrs. Henderson's chalet at Crown Point.

COUNCIL INVITES CAR OFFICIALS.—Officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company have been invited to appear before the city council this morning to explain if the company plans on fulfilling its part of the improvement order on East second street. The council officials say that no money is available to perform the work necessary by the company. City officials intimate that unless the street railway company proceeds with the work, the city will perform the improvement on East second street. The council officials say that no money is available to perform the work necessary by the company.

"SOFT DRINK" DISPENSER FINED.—William Lahey, proprietor of a soft drink establishment at 381 East Burnside street, was arrested Tuesday on a charge of violating the prohibition law by Lieutenant Robson and Patrolmen Kutter and Harze, fined $25 by Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday. Lahey was arrested after the policeman had analyzed some of the drinks which he sold. They reported that his cider and "grape" had a high percentage of alcohol.

VICE-CONSUL ON TRIP.—A. O. Bjelland, Norwegian vice-consul at Portland, has left for a four-months trip to Norway and will sail from New York June 4. He is accompanied by Mrs. Bjelland and does not expect to return until late in September. In Norway, Mr. Bjelland will attend a meeting at Bergenfeld of the stockholders and directors of the Norwegian-American line, which is reported to be considering an extension of its service to Portland.

STORE PROPRIETOR ARRESTED.—Harry Brown, proprietor of the Brown merchant store, 171 First street, was arrested yesterday by inspectors Swennes and McCulloch on a charge of receiving stolen property. His bail was placed at $2000. According to Lieutenant Rossman, the Brown store purchased about $500 worth of property reported stolen from stores in Marion and Clatsop counties. Some of this is said to have been recovered.

BROKEN LEG NO INTERFERENCE.—Although handicapped with a leg broken in two places, City Health Officer Parrish refuses to stop work. For two hours each day he handles executive detail work in connection with his office and he will adopt a policy, beginning today, to visit the office both in the morning and afternoon to keep in touch with affairs of his office. Dr. Parrish was injured last Thursday night at the armory.

PRESS CLUB TO WELCOME TAFT.—William Howard Taft will be informally introduced to the members of the Press club at their luncheon at noon today in the Benson hotel. W. S. U'ren will be the principal speaker, discussing "State Government Responsible to the People." Miss Marguerite A. Salomon and C. S. Chapman will speak briefly on forest protection.

WOMEN NEED $10,000.—Contributions continue to come in from over the state for the woman's building fund at the University of Oregon. The women of the state and the alumni of the college have raised all but $10,000 of the $100,000 fund which is to be matched by the state and a great effort is being made by the committee in charge to complete the sum by commencement.

STUDENTS PLAN RECEPTION.—The students of Washington high school are to give a reception at the school next Wednesday evening to the retiring principal, Hugh H. Herdman. The programme will be devoted almost entirely to the students and the alumni of the school. Plans have been made so that each class president of every graduating class since the school was opened will either be present or be represented.

DEPUTY MEAT INSPECTOR RESIGNS.—Dr. Charles M. Anderson, deputy meat inspector for the municipal bureau of health, tendered his resignation to Dr. C. C. Chase, chief inspector, yesterday to take effect June 1. Dr. Anderson plans to enter business as a veterinarian. His successor has not yet been named.

LACK FROM NAZARETH.—The ladies of the Catholic parish at St. Helens have a shipment of beautiful Armenian lace made at the Sisters in Nazareth. It will be sold at the store of Almyer Bros., oriental rugs, 10th and Alder streets, beginning June 1, at 5 o'clock.—Adv.

COMEDIAN WHO HAS WIDE POPULARITY COMES TO HEILIG.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK.

If a vote were taken as to who was the most-liked eccentric comedian on our stage, it is more than probable that Raymond Hitchcock would be the winner. Nobody in the theater game, on or off the stage, does more than "Hitchy" to stimulate and cherish this good will.

Hitchcock's mission in life isn't to act, but rather to show himself as he really is for public entertainment. Hitchcock is a fine tonic because he is one of the funniest of actors, and Hitchcock's big musical play, "Hitchy Koo," will open an engagement at the Heilig tonight for the remainder of the week.

INDUSTRY BEING SURVEYED.—Information is sought on part of census. Portland Business Men said Not to Realize Value of Work Now Under Way.

Managers of Portland industries do not seem to realize the importance of the character of the survey, that is being made in taking the industrial census for the government, say the officials in charge. The impression is said to have been gained by some that in some way it is a check on the volume of business handled, when in fact it is an attempt to gain the most complete information as to industries that has ever been gathered in connection with the decennial census.

RESTRICTION IS RENEWED.—Council Extends Ordinance as to Apartment Houses. Restrictions on the location of new apartment houses which expire July 1, 1920, were yesterday extended by the city council until January 1, 1921, through the passage of an ordinance introduced by City Commissioner Bayne.

DALES COUPLE MARRIED.—HOOD RIVER, Ore., May 26.—(Special.)—Jesse Oren Stanek and Miss May Vera Betts of the Dalles, came here yesterday and were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. McGinnis, cousins of the bride. Rev. D. M. Carpenter, pastor of the Christian and Missionary alliance, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Stanek will make their home in Wasco county.

BOOZERS FROM CANADAPOLIS. A business man who has just come to Oregon to make his home says: "Only in a few associations could business be developed to the present stage and still have so many of the possibilities untouched. My impression of Oregon is first, that you have a wonderful country; second, that you have done wonderful things with it; and third, that you can do still more wonderful things." Oregon has made rapid strides in the past few years and the possibilities for the future are almost limitless. But it behooves every loyal citizen to get behind Oregon industries and BOOZERS.
