SHANNON HAS HOPES OF MEETING LEONARD

Pacific Coast Lightweight in City, Starts Training.

BENJAMIN TO FEEL FIST

Eddie Feels Certain He Is the One Who Will Bring About the Downfall of the Champion.

BY DICK SHARP. Eddie Shannon, Pacific coast lightweight champion, who meets Joe Benjamin in the headliner of the boxing programme to be staged by the Portland boxing commission at the Armory Friday night, June 4, hopped off the Pacific coast looking a better man than at any time he has visited this city.

The first question he shot at Matchmaker Bobby Evans, who was at the depot to meet him, was "Will I be given the match with Benny Leonard in the second night?"

Shannon To Take On All Boxers. Shannon plans to return to the coast early this morning and starting this afternoon, will take on all boxers available at the London club.

While a good many boxers are willing to tackle Leonard for the sake of grabbing the western belt, the purse, few, if any, of the present-day lightweights are of the opinion that Shannon is the man to knock out the champion.

Of Course There's the "It". Should Bobby Evans be unable to close with one of the eastern topnotchers, Shannon, the western boy that should be used with the champion here, for the little harp has done everything the boxing commission has asked for.

Andre Anderson, the giant Chicago heavyweight, will be seen in action in the semifinal against Willie Bill Reed, Tiny Herman, Young Hector or Willie Keeler.

Should Bobby Evans be unable to close with one of the eastern topnotchers, Shannon, the western boy that should be used with the champion here, for the little harp has done everything the boxing commission has asked for.
