All Our Boys' Clothing Reduced in Price. There you have in a nutshell a very important piece of bargain news. There are plenty of price reductions listed in the papers these days, but the larger part of the reductions are mere camouflage when the quality of the goods on sale is taken into consideration. The boys' clothing we sell is designed to give wear, to look well and to cost as little as such quality can be produced for. We have thousands of customers who buy every bit of clothing needed for themselves and their boys. They do so because they know it pays them to do so.
