

CHAMBER CAMPAIGN PURPOSE SET FORTH

Proclamation Issued by Advisory Committee.

ADVANCE OF STATE AIM

Meeting Held to Discuss Plans. Expansion Work to be Launched June 2.

The campaign advisory committee for Portland of the Oregon state chamber of commerce, headed by J. C. Answorth, president of the United States National bank, and comprising Henry L. Corbett, W. F. Norman, Jay Smith, John A. Keating, A. C. Spencer, Edward Ehrman and John P. Daly, issued a signed proclamation yesterday to the citizens of Portland, on the expansion plans of the state chamber. The statement follows:

"Believing strongly that the time is at hand when men in business, professional, industrial and agricultural life of Oregon should work unitedly to advance the civic, commercial and agricultural welfare of the state of Oregon, we have carefully examined the plans for broadening the facilities of the Oregon state chamber of commerce and believe that strong support should be given this movement.

Work Begins June 2.
"Work for the expansion of the state chamber of commerce will begin June 2, and there will be an intensive effort made on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 3, 4 and 5.

"Within the next few days an earnest attempt will be made to acquaint residents of Portland with plans and all are asked to go into the matter thoroughly and assist in the work.

"Portland owes a certain responsibility to the balance of the state, prominent citizens of which are earnestly supporting this movement. Oregon's possibilities can be advanced materially and she can be placed in the forefront of cities in the northwest by concerted effort at this time.

"We want you to join hands with us in this movement, to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities of Oregon.

Plans Carefully Made.
The statement was drafted at a meeting of the committee in the Oregon building yesterday afternoon, at which Mr. Answorth presided. Besides the advisory committee, those present were: Charles Hall of Marshfield, president of the state chamber; J. L. Thorburn, treasurer of the organization, and Julius L. Meier, chairman of the campaign executive committee for Portland.

Plans of the canvass for an adequate budget for the state chamber were come into in great detail, as was also the tentative programme of activities of the year. Mr. Hall and Mr. Etheridge answered questions.

It developed at the meeting that there will be a total of eight weeks preparation for the canvass for budget subscriptions in Portland, and the actual signing of subscriptions will be followed by an organization installation period of eight weeks. The plans for the canvass and methods of determination finally of the programme of activities and budget were explained by means of charts and aroused a good bit of interest.

FATHER ASKS FOR CHILD

MOTHER OF YOUNGSTER IS ACCUSED OF ABDUCTION.

Six Suits for Divorce Filed in Circuit Court—Two Plaintiffs Charge Desertion.

Recovery of his youngest child, whom he alleges the mother surreptitiously took from him, is asked by Joseph Fazio in a divorce complaint filed yesterday against Mary M. Fazio. The pair were married in May, 1914, and have two children, one of whom is in the care of the county. Mrs. Fazio abandoned her husband in 1917. Fazio asks for both children.

That her husband treated her cruelly, compelled her to support herself and became so disturbed mentally from the effects of liquor that it was necessary to send him to the state hospital are charges made by Mrs. Margaret Flanagan, who seeks separation from John Flanagan. They were married in 1905.

Strong drink, it is asserted, caused disturbances in the home of Mary E. Williams, who seeks a divorce from Benjamin Williams. Criminal treatment, non-support and desertion are charged in the complaint. They were married in 1907 and five years later Williams went to Missouri.

Agnes E. Schweitzer has filed suit for divorce from Phillip Schweitzer, whom she married in 1913. She says she threatened to kill her, called her names and compelled her to support herself by working in a factory. She asks $25 a month alimony and suit money.

Desertion was charged in two suits for divorce filed yesterday. Nadia Simmons, who was married to Lee H. Simmons in 1913, asserted that her spouse left her two years ago. Beatie V. Lynn said she had been living alone a similar length of time. She married Ira E. Lynn 12 years ago.

A SMART event of this evening will be the costume party or Spanish fiesta to be given at the Portland art museum. The tableaux and special dances with the art students in colorful and artistic costumes will be unique attractions. Society always attends the art museum affairs and the present function doubtless will be quite a brilliant festivity.

Another event of note for tonight will be the Irvington club dance, for which tickets have been going at remarkably good prices. There is no limit placed on the amount one may pay and so there is a keen rivalry among the committee members to see who can make the biggest success at ticket sellers. As a result a goodly sum will be added to the necessary club fund. The committee has planned the details quite carefully and it is safe to say that the party will be a success.

Society will be well represented at the Dent Mowrey recital to be given Tuesday evening at the Multnomah hotel. Friends will honor Mr. Mowrey, who is planning to leave later this summer for New York. He and Mrs. Mowrey were among the drama league players who recently went to Salem and gave some clever plays. Among the other

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 26.—(Special.)
—A bronze memorial has been presented to the college by the council of Jewish women of Portland in honor of Mrs. Rose Selling, formerly Miss Rose Jacobs, a graduate of the college in 1872, recently deceased. Mrs. Selling spent her girlhood days in Corvallis and lived here for some years after her marriage.

Because of the great interest in the Oregon Agricultural college and the loyalty for it which Mrs. Selling showed, the council of Jewish women decided upon this memorial. It is a bronze fountain and will be located somewhere on the campus.

ALBANY, Or., May 27.—(Special.)

She has been engaged to teach history in the Albany high school during the next school year. Her father, in his younger days, once served as superintendent of the Albany schools. Miss Horner has been teaching the past few years in the Roseburg schools.

Professor J. B. Horner has been head of the department of history in the state agricultural college for many years and has written a book as well as many articles on Oregon history.

A birthday luncheon was served Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock in the basement of the Westminster Presbyterian church, by the ladies of the congregation whose birthdays were in May. Mrs. Hayhurst spoke of her trip through eastern Oregon, of the excellent work done in Malheur county, of the clever play, "Back to the Farm," presented by the pupils of Nyssa; of the hospitality of the Civic club of Bend, of her 150-mile stage ride across the desert, traveling from one parent-teacher circle to another, and of many other points of interest.

Mrs. Kester, who came here to take the state bar examinations, told of the efforts of the women of Vale to improve conditions. The fight was made against the sale of cigarettes to minors and the business men took it up and co-operated. The need of amusements is great and the parents and teachers are endeavoring to have the school auditorium opened so that there may be supervised dance and entertainments for the young people.

The women present at the luncheon protested against the dry land bathing girls being shown as a feature of the Shrine entertainment and delegated Mrs. A. F. Fiegel to take the protest to the Shrine committee.

FLAG EVERYWHERE URGED

VETERANS ASK REAL MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE.

Mayor Supports Request of Local Post and Proclaims Monday Next Public Holiday.

"An American flag on every American house Memorial day" is the slogan adopted by Over the Top post No. 81, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and embodied in a proclamation issued yesterday by Mayor Baker. In his proclamation the mayor urges all business houses in Portland to close Monday, in order that former service men may join in the exercises planned by the various posts in Portland. Mayor Baker also asks that Monday be observed, not as a gala day, but in a spirit of solemn reverence for the dead who gave their lives for the nation. The proclamation follows:

"I, George L. Baker, mayor of the city of Portland, do, by virtue of my office, proclaim May 31, 1910 (Decoration day) a public holiday, to be observed not as a gala day, but in a spirit of solemn reverence for the heroic dead who have given their lives so that their nation could live on.

"Merchants and manufacturers and all employers are earnestly requested to close their places of business on this day, so that all ex-soldiers in their employ can join their posts and take part in the ceremonies planned for their commands, and that all employers and employees may likewise participate in the solemn ceremonies of the day as an outward expression of a deep and abiding love for and confidence in their country and to the glory of the departed dead.

"To our citizens let me earnestly commend the slogan of Over the Top post No. 81, which is 'An American flag on every American house Memorial day,' so that our country's flag, so generally displayed, may constantly remind all people within our city of the day and all that it means to our people."
