WEEK END MARKED GOLF ACTIVITY

Special Events Scheduled by Portland Clubs.

3 EVENTS AT WAVERLEY

Four-Ball Team Match, Lauder Medal and Directors' Cup Tourneys to Be in Progress.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. The coming week-end will be marked with much activity at the various golfing rendezvous surrounding Portland—special events being scheduled at the Waverley Golf Club, Portland Golf club and the Tualatin Country club.

At Waverley, no fewer than three separate tourneys will be in progress, a four-team match, Harry Lauder medal tourney and the final rounds of the Directors' cup tourney, which has been in progress for two or three weeks.

The four-ball team match will be something unique heretofore. Teams will qualify medal score, handicapped, either on Saturday and Sunday, and the two teams with the lowest net aggregate scores will play the final on Monday, handicap to be in holes up, according to the rules of golf.

Similar to the Directors' cup tourney, which has been in progress for two or three weeks. The Harry Lauder tourney will be a simple round, medal score, handicapped, and the player with the lowest net score will be awarded the distinctive medal offered by the famous Scotch comedian.

CYCLE PRIZES OFFERED $100 ADDED CASH TO BE GIVEN FOR FASTEST MILE. Speedway Inducements for Two-Day Meet Should Pull Some Fast Times.

George K. Cassidy, of the General Tire company, will not only put up an outfit of tires and inner tubes for the winner of the five-mile sidecar race at the Rose City speedway Sunday and Monday, but will also present $100 in cash to the Portland rider who wins the mile speed trial championship during the two-day meet.

The racer making the mile in the fastest time during the entire meet will grab off the big cash prize. The Firestone and Goodyear companies, as well as all of the local bicycle dealers, are putting up tires and cycle merchandise to be competed for in extra and novel ways to be pulled at this year's gathering of speed demons from all over the Pacific coast.

The program will be run off in rapid-fire manner, commencing at 2 P. M. Sunday and Monday afternoon (Decorations day).

Manager Ely, of the Hippodrome theater, has announced the entry of a whirlwind motorcycle in the event, which will hold the boards at his house next week. The rider and his special-built machine will be seen in a parade tomorrow night, starting on Broadway, between Morrison and Yamhill streets.

All local riders are invited to take part in the parade and be a guest of Mr. Ely next Tuesday night at a theater party. The "whirlwind" entry has already ridden the Rose City speedway track.
