WIFE STARTS REVOLT AND GOES TO DANCES.

Husband Complains That Children Are Taken From Sunday School and to Parties.

Religion weighed against dancing yesterday in Circuit Judge Kavanaugh's court and the scales are not destined to dip in either direction until the attorneys for Lucy and Charles Gittus have finished arguing that couple's divorce proceedings this morning. Sixteen years of married life with church part of the week and all day Sunday as the chief recreational attraction were too much for Mrs. Gittraction were too much for Mrs. Gittus. She declared her independence and claimed Saturday night for her own. On these Saturday nights she took her daughter and went to dances at Woodman hall, while her husband forgot his sorrows at a movie. A great shadow came over his life and in the past year he has gone to church but once and then his wife kicked about it the whole time." Mrs. Gittus was thorough in her revolution.

West Has Delegates.

Northwest delegates to the convention of the National Association of Realty Boards, which will be held at Kansas City June 2 to 5, left Portland in two special cars yesterday morning over the Union Pacific system. Twenty-three members of the Portland Realty board will represent this

"Since her dancing began," the hus-band declared, "she discouraged the two children from going to Sunday school. She said Saturday night was of the Pacific coast and northwest hers and she wanted to dance. That the only night I feel I can go any-here with her when I'm working." "Do you know what the shimmy was the firm reply.

Mrs. Gittus filed sult for a divorce twice before she carried the proceedings through. Her husband, who is 16 years her senior, is fighting it.

PIG KEEPERS PRAISED Sudge Commends Three Men bu Admits Law Violated.

The enterprise of three men who stood before him charged with keep-ing pigs in the city was commended yesterday by Municipal Judge Ross-man, who expressed the belief if more people became producers the question of the high cost of living would cease to be a factor.

At the same time the judge admitted that there was a technical violation of the law involved, and he gave the three men until June 15 to dispose of the porkers. dispose of the porkers.

The three men, living in the vicinity of Lance avenue and Tenino street, who were arrested were Richard Sandstrom, S. W. Watson and M. J.

Charges against them were pre-ferred by Mrs. J. H. Murphy of 4402 Penino street.

Portland mothers, as expressed by the members of phalanxes of women's clubs, do not mind if their darling daughters go but to swim, but they have absolutely no intention of said daughters hanging their clothes on a hickory limb for the purpose, not of bathing, but of parading.

The bathing-girl parade has not yet been abandoned. Not yet, but soon. A committee of the women, consisting of Mrs. A. F. Flegel and Mrs. Senett comedy, "Gee Whit," and the Pathe News. Open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock of the following morning.

TOO MUCH RELIGION IRKS the entertainment committee of the Shrine and assure them just exactly why and wherefore they oppose the parade of youthful charms, arrayed in knitted, silken or other bathing—or supposed-to-be bathing—garments.

Charles F. Berg, chairman of the entertainment committee, is authority for the statement that if the women present valid arguments why the parade should not be held, said parade will be tossed into the discard. The women have the arguments. They intend to present them. Vale the bathing-girl parade!
