

MR. PITTOCK'S WILL UPHHELD BY COURT

Judge Tazwell Finds no Fraud Nor Undue Influence.

DOCUMENT IS IN PROBATE

Decision is Made as Arguments End, It Being Held That Issues Are Too Clear for Call for Delay.

Nothing could have been more natural than that the late Henry L. Pittock should have desired the men who had been long associated with him and who understood his views to manage the Oregonian and continue his policies after death...

Decision Quoted was the largest which has ever been involved in a will contest in Oregon...

Explanation by the proponents of confidential relations between Mr. Pittock and Messrs. Morden, Price and Piper, the necessary secrecy observed and the reasons for it were explained...

Testimony Held Superfluous.

Emphasis had been laid in direct examination of witnesses for the proponents on the mental acumen of Mr. Pittock at the time of his death...

Testimony Held Superfluous.

It is not necessary to repeat the testimony of Mr. Pittock, which was already before the court...

SHIPPERS WANTED TO AID RAILROADS

Effort to Break Freight Jam to Be Made.

GALVESTON ORDER MADE

Interstate Body Tells Five Companies to Unload 2700 Cars at Expense of Consignees.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Shippers were warned by the interstate commerce commission today that they must co-operate with the railways and the government in breaking the freight jam.

The lawyer characterized the stand of the contestant as "utterly inconsistent," saying that "there could be no serious argument on the questions of fact so far as undue influence was concerned, and that that was the only issue in the case."

The argument of the contestant had been that Mr. Piper unduly influenced the testator in the making of the will...

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—In arbitrating the boundaries of Armenia, President Wilson, it is said, will insist that the new republic be given access to the sea through Batum, which the allied supreme council has tentatively decided shall be free port under inter-allied control.

The state department, it is understood, has begun the preparation of a memorandum designed to assist the president in the determination of the Armenian boundaries as the president will undertake this work regardless of the action by congress on his request that he be given authority to determine disposition of the revolving fund, provided in the transportation act.

GUAM GOVERNOR CHOSEN

Captain Ivan C. Wettengel Named for Important Position.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 28.—(Special Cable.)—Wettengel, commander of the cruiser Montana, now at the Puget Sound navy yard, and former captain of the battleship Oregon, today received word of his appointment by the president to be governor of the island of Guam, one of the unincorporated territories of the United States, and yet one regarded as of utmost naval strategic importance.

POINDEXTER BILL BACKED COMMITTEE TO MAKE FAVORABLE REPORT.

Delaying Transportation of Commodities Would Be Made Felony Under Measure.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Favorable report will be made today by the senate interstate commerce committee on the PoinDEXTER bill, designed to prevent interruption of transportation of commodities by railroads.

LOWDEN TREND NOTED

(Continued From First Page.) —of Kentucky and Fred W. Tolham, national treasurer of Illinois, were among those who reported that they were characterized as a trend toward Governor Lowden. Mr. Todd said: "There is a visible trend toward Governor Lowden today. The republican party in Illinois, we are all saying that Lowden's prospects are bright, and I believe his chances of nomination are excellent."
