The lack of a pinch hitter with a punch can be written down as one of the very best reasons why Portland lost, 4 to 3, to Salt Lake at the Vaughn-street ball lot yesterday. A rally in the ninth frame featured by two-baggers by Kingdon and Cox, nearly put the Beavers over, but nearly put the Beavers over, but Paddy Siglin popped out to Mulligan and the curtain was lowered.

Kallio and Polson heaved for the Beavers while Nick Cullop and Spider Baum worked for the Bees. Kallio went seven innings before being relieved by Polson. Cullop twirled into the ninth for Salt Lake, but after Wes Kingdon smashed out a two-bagger Manager Johnson vanked him bagger Manager Johnson yanked him Bees Wallop Horschide.

The Bees gave the horsehide a the ough massaging in the first frame Johnson and Krug pounding out trip while Bill Rumler doubled, th batting barrage netting two runs. After all this Kallio walked two men, but no more tallies were recorded in the initial inning.

Kallio went along in a steady fash ton until the sixth, when two hits and some bad breaks for him were responsible for two more runs for Salt Lake. Bill Rumler breezed a hit over second base. Sheely drew a walk Rumler stole third. Mulligan flew out to Maisel. Now for the break for Kallio. Sands hit a mean one down to Siglin, who found it too hot to handle. Rumler scored. Sheely came fomping on to second and over-ran the bag about ten feet. Siglin had already glaumed the ball and plach hitter, but did nothing. Siglin went out next, ending the game. Wes Kingdon played like a chan yesterday, grabbing two hits in trips to the plate and fielding ttionally. The Beavers dropped to fifth place yesterday. The score
