CARS COLLIDE HEAD-ON

Two Men Injured and 100 Chick- PANTAGES

THE DALLES, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—As a result of a head-on collision this morning on the paved highway two miles east of here of an automobile driven by O. H. Gibson and a truck in which A. P. Watterson and B. A. Reed were riding, Mr. Watterson is lying in a local hospital with a fractured collarbone. Mr. Reed suffered a deep gash on his knee and the back of his head was in knee and with a fractured collarbone. Ar. Reed suffered a deep gash on his knee and the back of his head was injured.

The truck was demolished and the front of the automobile caved in.

The casualties of the wreck consist of 100 chickens, which were being taken to market.

Car Upsets, Occupants Injured.

THE DALLES, Or., June 4 .- (Spe-THE DALLES, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—When the automobile occupied by Bert Scott turned over this morning on the road east of the city. Scott was injured about the right hip and Mrs. J. W. Ward and little daughter Dorls, who were riding to this city with him, suffered minor hurts. The car did not work properly, so Scott stopped to investigate. When the repairs were made he started again. Then the car overturned.
