

FIGHT OVER TREATY TO GO TO CHICAGO

Work Started on Troublesome Planks.

ONE TO BE ON MEXICO

Attitude on Industrial Relations Will Be Put in Platform.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Republican platform builders went seriously to work tonight on the more troublesome of the planks remaining to be finished.

One of these was the declaration on the treaty of Versailles and the league of nations, a subject of long standing and bitter controversy.

Complicating the task temporarily, was a reaction against the platform programme worked out by some leaders in Washington.

Reaction Complicates Task. The irreconcilables and the mild reservationists of the senate are prepared for a hard battle on the treaty plank.

Policy Declared Wanted. The men of our group think we are entitled to a straight-out, affirmative declaration of our attitude on the foreign policies handed down by George Washington and James Monroe.

Fall's Plank Opposed. There is a general feeling that little trouble would be encountered in bringing an agreement on the Mexican plank.

CHICAGO, June 6.—(Special).—George M. Sunday, son of the Rev. Billy Sunday, who calls Hood River, Or., his home, is a chip off the old block.

There was a rush for first position in the Washington delegation this afternoon when one of Senator Harding's managers suddenly began telling "fictitious" tales.

Watch Jonathan Bourne. The word quietly passed out from the headquarters of one of the candidates for the nomination of the "dark horse" campaign, it was declared by a political manager of another candidate.

Washington Delegation Got in. The Washington delegation got in this afternoon at the headquarters of the delegates.

Ex-Senator Chauncey M. Dewey, 58 years young, arrived Saturday as a delegate from New York, remarking that this was his first national convention.
