

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. PITCOCK. Published by The Oregonian Publishing Co., 115 South Street, Portland, Ore.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $8.00. Daily, Sunday included, six months, $4.50.

variable beauty of the northwest is not of persuasive power that brook the neglect of the state which has long since made its wonderful outdoors their most captivating and convincing argument.

THE VETO OF THE BUDGET BILL

President Wilson has destroyed one of the most valuable factors passed by the present congress. Need of a budget system has been realized more generally every year since appropriation of a billion dollars in two years prompted somebody to coin the phrase "budget bill."

WHO TURNED UP THE SUPPLY?

One of the most incomprehensible features of the gasoline shortage is the almost utter absence of adequate explanation concerning its origin. Little has been said of that, while praiseworthy, but it has been decanted upon the motorist in the effort to enlist his economic assistance toward remedying the deficit and bridging the gap.

BIG-HEARTED BOYS

Big-hearted boys they were—and are. Though Voltaire sired the sarcasm that God is always on the side of the heavy, the American people of Germany refuted it. And America will always proudly incline to the belief that her boys won because of their great hearts and manly attributes.

WILSON'S ATTACK ON CONGRESS

President Wilson's partisan mind is incapable of recognizing the very solid ground that the American congress controlled by the opposing party, or that the president himself is primarily responsible for the delay in urgent legislation.

"POWERS OF THE GRAY WOLF"

"He had the powers of the gray timber wolf. My son fell sick. I went to the doctor and he told me to give him my boy's blood."

THE FALLOUT OF PERCENTAGE

The falling out of percentage of increase in New York's population is due not wholly to decrease of immigration. Babies come high in the metropolis.

BY - PRODUCTS OF THE TIMES

Many of Our Common Words Have Had Queer Origin

We are entering one of the quadrennial periods that enrich the language. The venerable Guardian recalls that the now dignified word "constituency" was anathema to puritans 80 years since.

THE FACTS IN THE SUGAR CASE

The facts cannot be evaded. All except a small part of the Cuban crop was offered to the sugar equalization board on July 28, 1919. "Under such terms as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties at a price moderate, but compensating the producer and well within the economic reach of the consumer."

IN THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

Written by E. B. Pinney in the New York Evening Post. In the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the exhibit of the late King Charles I. is of the short-handled form, typical of the period, and the slender barrel is incised for nearly half its length with decorative patterns.

UNDER THE CAPTION "A FORGOTTEN WAR PROPHECY"

The Springfield Republican reports that the following article, published in the Army and Navy Journal of August 7, 1914: "The present war in Europe will not be the last as some of our writers are prone to believe."

LARGEST CARGO OF LUMBER

PORTLAND, June 4.—(To the Editor.)—What is the largest amount of lumber ever shipped on the coast steamer from the Columbia river?

SMALLER FRESHET IN PROSPECT

PORTLAND, June 4.—(To the Editor.)—Will you please let me know how the back water is expected to be this year?

THEATER MANAGERS SHOY

Baltimore, June 4.—(To the Editor.)—How is it that you do not get into musical comedy? I guess the managers thought it was too bad a precedent.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO

"I want a good-sized outside room on that side of the house where the parade will pass," he remarked to Ross Finnegan, clerk at the Benson Hotel.

THEY WERE TWO DEAR YOUNG THINGS

On a Twenty-third-street car, it was crowded to the fenders, and they were sitting on the seats, talking of modern traction problems. One was dark, vivacious and colorful. The other was a shade this side of trim and dignified.

A W. NORBLAD, KNOWN TO HIS IMPERIAL

As a Senator Norblad has implicated a certain Portlander one of the famed combatants of the world war. He was up nice in a cake of ice for more than a year, and each time he comes to Portland he is met by a throng of curious on-lookers.

"I'M WILLING TO GIVE UP MY ROOM FOR THE SHRINERS DURING CONVENTION WEEK"

I came to settle down in Oregon; the white fleeces clouds above me and the blue sky below me.

CAUSE OF FARM LABOR TROUBLE

SHERIDAN, Or., June 4.—(To the Editor.)—A recent editorial in the Oregonian, regarding the high cost of labor more than anything else to the general farmer, is a very interesting article.

BIRDS PROTECTED BY LAW

MILWAUKEE, Or., June 3.—(To the Editor.)—In our neighborhood are two men who call "cherry bird" small birds that they see; also several big boys who have "BB" guns, which carry quite a good size shot.

LAST CENTERBOARD DEFENDER

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 4.—(To the Editor.)—To settle a controversy, please send me a copy of the "centerboard" used by an American craft as American cup defender in international yachting races.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James H. Montague.

I have heard a lot of talk about a frame-up. That the bosses who control the G. O. P. Haven't got the least intention of Shall get messy over who's the Everything, my friends aver, has been decided.

THEY'VE BEEN TO SEE CONVENTIONS FROM MY HIGH SEAT

Some were mix-ups from the jump, and some were not. Some were slow to get in action, yet people with satisfaction. And I've never seen a dull one in the lot.

LITTLE AFFINITY

Soap and politics don't seem to mix. In a few weeks the one reminder of an advertisement is expected to be held in San Francisco will be Mr. Bryan's goat.

NATURAL AMBITION

A candidate is a politician who wants to be a statesman. (Copyright, 1920, The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

IN OTHER DAYS

Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian of June 7, 1895. San Francisco—Nineteen survivors of the ship Columbia, which was foundered in a hurricane off Manzanillo, arrived today on the steamer San Juan.

FLOUR IS QUOTED BY THE ALBINA MILL

At a largely attended meeting of citizens held last night in city hall it was decided to celebrate the Fourth in a manner to eclipse anything seen here in several years.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

From The Oregonian of June 7, 1870. The seventeenth session of the Oregon legislature, which opened in the Presbyterian church was held at Philomath last week, at which appointments for the district were made by Bishop Gloucester-brenner of Ohio presided.

JACOB KAMM RETURNED YESTERDAY BY THE STEAMER MOSES TAYLOR

New York.—Horace Greeley's illness has assumed a serious form. Apprehensions are felt for his recovery.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

So, after a long wait, the weather is fair, but gas is rare. Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

CITY'S SHADE TREES MISTRATED

Bad Pruning and No Pruning Give Streets Unkempt Appearance

PORTLAND, June 4.—(To the Editor.)—Portland is a beautiful city. As a man is untidy, unkempt and unattractive with long, untrimmed and unbrushed hair, so does Portland appear along many of her streets in some of the residential sections of the city.

SEVERAL YEARS AGO A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF PORTLAND COMMENTED ON THIS ASPECT OF OUR CITY'S RESIDENTIAL STREETS

It was crowded to the fenders, and they were sitting on the seats, talking of modern traction problems. One was dark, vivacious and colorful. The other was a shade this side of trim and dignified.

THEY WERE TWO DEAR YOUNG THINGS

On a Twenty-third-street car, it was crowded to the fenders, and they were sitting on the seats, talking of modern traction problems. One was dark, vivacious and colorful. The other was a shade this side of trim and dignified.

A W. NORBLAD, KNOWN TO HIS IMPERIAL

As a Senator Norblad has implicated a certain Portlander one of the famed combatants of the world war. He was up nice in a cake of ice for more than a year, and each time he comes to Portland he is met by a throng of curious on-lookers.

"I'M WILLING TO GIVE UP MY ROOM FOR THE SHRINERS DURING CONVENTION WEEK"

I came to settle down in Oregon; the white fleeces clouds above me and the blue sky below me.

CAUSE OF FARM LABOR TROUBLE

SHERIDAN, Or., June 4.—(To the Editor.)—A recent editorial in the Oregonian, regarding the high cost of labor more than anything else to the general farmer, is a very interesting article.

BIRDS PROTECTED BY LAW

MILWAUKEE, Or., June 3.—(To the Editor.)—In our neighborhood are two men who call "cherry bird" small birds that they see; also several big boys who have "BB" guns, which carry quite a good size shot.

LAST CENTERBOARD DEFENDER

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 4.—(To the Editor.)—To settle a controversy, please send me a copy of the "centerboard" used by an American craft as American cup defender in international yachting races.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James H. Montague.

I have heard a lot of talk about a frame-up. That the bosses who control the G. O. P. Haven't got the least intention of Shall get messy over who's the Everything, my friends aver, has been decided.

THEY'VE BEEN TO SEE CONVENTIONS FROM MY HIGH SEAT

Some were mix-ups from the jump, and some were not. Some were slow to get in action, yet people with satisfaction. And I've never seen a dull one in the lot.

LITTLE AFFINITY

Soap and politics don't seem to mix. In a few weeks the one reminder of an advertisement is expected to be held in San Francisco will be Mr. Bryan's goat.

NATURAL AMBITION

A candidate is a politician who wants to be a statesman. (Copyright, 1920, The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

IN OTHER DAYS

Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian of June 7, 1895. San Francisco—Nineteen survivors of the ship Columbia, which was foundered in a hurricane off Manzanillo, arrived today on the steamer San Juan.

FLOUR IS QUOTED BY THE ALBINA MILL

At a largely attended meeting of citizens held last night in city hall it was decided to celebrate the Fourth in a manner to eclipse anything seen here in several years.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

From The Oregonian of June 7, 1870. The seventeenth session of the Oregon legislature, which opened in the Presbyterian church was held at Philomath last week, at which appointments for the district were made by Bishop Gloucester-brenner of Ohio presided.

JACOB KAMM RETURNED YESTERDAY BY THE STEAMER MOSES TAYLOR

New York.—Horace Greeley's illness has assumed a serious form. Apprehensions are felt for his recovery.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

So, after a long wait, the weather is fair, but gas is rare. Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.

THE WEATHER'S FAIR, BUT GAS IS RARE

Now when I dine, I always pine because the cats are punk. And when I drink, this new red ink, The kick has always shrunk.