SAN FRANCISCO, June 5 .- (Special.)-Buck Weaver has been sitting around on the Oakland bench for some time, finishing up an odd job now and then, so Del Howard finally started him in a game today. Fo champion, for he stepped right along on even terms with Polsen. But in the tenth, Buck cracked like a persimmon after a heavy frost. Portland scored five runs. The score

Fielding Is Exceptional.

Polsen pitched a wonderful game. His change of pace baffled the Oaks so that they seldom met the ball solidly. Three hits is all he allowed, and Weaver got the first of those in the sixth inning. The Oaks made one hit off Bill Piercy Sunday in the second round and as they did not get another one until the sixth inning, they went 12 innings without a safe blow.
