SALEM, Or., June 14.—(Special.)—John W. Cochran, who was appointed deputy secretary of state recently, announced to-day that he would tender his resignation as secretary of the republican state central com-mittee at its next meeting, which will be in Portland some ime in July.

Mr. Cochran assumed his new duties last Monday. Prior to coming to Salem he had been employed as reporter on The Oregonian for a number of years. He also had acted as chief clerk of the state senate during several sessions. He always has been a republican and has taken an active interest in party affairs.

It is said several persons have filed applications to succeed Mr. Cochran as secretary of the state central committee, but as yet no names have been given
