

SIX WATER EXPERTS FOR SEATTLE SHOW

Multnomah Delegation After Northwest Titles.

WOMEN DIVERS ENTERED

Cody to Take Trio of Champions South for Olympic Trials at Neptune Beach.

Jack Cody, swimming instructor of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, announced yesterday that the six swimmers and divers who will represent the local club in the second half of the Pacific northwest championships to be held in Seattle next Monday will be Virginia Pembroke, Helen Hicks, Loretta Webster, Jack Pochanska, Ted Alonen and Ben Lombard.

Louke Webster will compete in the breast stroke, back stroke and plunge for distance; Jack Pochanska will enter in the back stroke event; Ted Alonen will take care of the 100-yard race and Ben Lombard will appear in the junior races.

Cody for California. Instructor Cody will be unable to accompany the team north, as he leaves Monday with his trio of divers—Louis Kuehn, Thelma Payne and Mrs. Constance Myers Dressler—for California, where they will appear in the far-western swimming and diving championships and Olympic games to be held at Neptune beach June 26 and 27.

During the past two months the three local divers have spent considerable time in mastering the style of spring board work which they will be compelled to perform in the try-out for the Olympic team. The diving call for practically an entirely different method than that called for by the Amateur Athletic Union rules. One of the requirements which calls for a radical change from the method used by the local divers is that the arms are held at the sides instead of over the head. In some dives the take off is made from feet instead of two, as is usually the method used by divers of this country. The Olympic rules also call for the jack knife to enter into water on the five.

Board of Two Heights. For fancy diving the springboard is of two heights—one and three meters—and in high diving the board is five and ten meters high. Four dives are required from the five meter board and four from the ten meter.

Don Stryker, Multnomah club diver, received an injury while practicing on the springboard recently that will probably cause him to give up the diving game for good. While attempting a difficult dive he struck his head on the edge of the springboard. This is the second time such an accident has happened to Stryker. It was very unfortunate that the accident happened at this time, since Stryker has been recommended by T. Morris Dunne, secretary-treasurer of the Pacific Northwest Amateur Athletic Association, to compete in the Olympic team to be selected at a swimming team to compete in the Olympic games.

Al Baegrene, prominent Multnomah Amateur Athletic club swimmer, is on his way to Finland where he will start training for the Olympic games in which he will compete as a member of the Finnish swimming team. He competed for the same country in the last Olympiad at Stockholm eight years ago.

BALL GAME TOMORROW

GUARDS TO PLAY IRON WORKERS AT VAUGHN STREET.

Sluggers, Fast Fielders and Good Pitchers Enrolled on Both Inter-City Clubs.

The Vaughn-street park will be surrounded with the old familiar sounds tomorrow afternoon when the Multnomah Guards and Portland Iron workers Inter-city league squads will endeavor to settle their differences by a game of inter-city baseball and alter the appearance of the percentage table. This will be their first and only clash this season, the intricacies of scheduling permitting of but one game. It will also mark the first Saturday afternoon game played by inter-city league teams in Portland for many a moon.

Both teams have two or more 500 sluggers, both have one of the classiest infielders in the circuit, and both have a good pitching staff. The Portland Iron workers hurlers are all of the south-paw variety, while the guard moundmen are right-handers.

Nuenschwander and Miller hurl for the guards and Bowers, Robbins and Ted Anderson for the iron workers. This is a regularly scheduled league contest played under the auspices of the Portland Baseball association. Frexy Routledge has assigned Ivanovich, more familiarly known as "Van," to handle the indicator. This will mark his first appearance in the local leagues. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Sunday afternoon the guard team will meet the fast Honeyman Hardware Company Inter-city league team at Vaughn street.

AMERICAN VICTOR IN TENNIS

Johnston Defeats Veteran English Internationalist at London.

LONDON, June 17.—William M. Johnston of San Francisco, American singles champion, defeated M. J. O. Ritchie in the fifth round of the London lawn tennis championship tournament here today. Johnston won in straight sets by scores of 6-2, 6-2.

The elimination of the veteran English internationalist, who won decisively from R. Norris Williams II of Boston yesterday, indicates that the Californian has reached the height of his form and will be a formidable contender in the British championships at Wimbledon, beginning next Monday.

William Tilden of Philadelphia, the only other American remaining in the tournament, also was victorious in the first round. He beat E. J. C. Norton, 6-2, 7-5.

Johnston, paired with William T. Tilden, Jr. of Philadelphia, scored an impressive victory in the fourth round of the doubles. They defeated Randolph Lycett of Australia and H. Roper Barrett of England two out of three sets, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2.

Barrett has held the British singles and doubles championships on several occasions, while Lycett is one of the most prominent of the Australian players.

KING OF SWAT BELTERS

RUTH PUTS 19TH HOMER OVER IN CHICAGO GAME.

32 Hits Made When Browns Win and Boston Beats Tigers in Pitchers' Battle.

CHICAGO, June 17.—"Babe" Ruth, the home-run king of the New York Americans today made his 19th circuit drive of the season, the visitors winning from Chicago, 7 to 2. Ruth had struck out twice previously. A man was left stranded on base on each occasion.

"Lefty" Williams wobbled in the fourth, and after two were out he walked Ward and Pipp. He then had the call, two and two, on Ruth, and took a chance. He grooved a fast one, waist high, and the big slugger drove it over the right field bleacher wall. The high wind deprived Ruth of another homer in the last inning. He hit in the same reaction, but the north wind carried it foul by a few feet. He followed this with drive to right for two bases and was thrown out trying to stretch it into a triple. Mays kept the locals' hits scattered. The score: R. H. E. New York... 7 1 1; Chicago... 2 7 2; Batteries—Mays and Hannah; Williams, Wilkinson and Schalk; Lynn.

St. Louis 12, Philadelphia 9.

It was the locals' eighth consecutive victory. Bigbee, who started for the visitors, was driven from the box in the third after allowing six straight hits and giving one pass. Austin, the first pitcher to face Hasty, who succeeded Bigbee, hit a home run, driving in Williams, who had doubted. Sothoron was unsteady throughout and was relieved by Wellman in the ninth while the bases were full with only one out.

BARBUR'S LAURELS WITHERED

30-Pound Trout Myth Rudely Exposed at Bend.

BEND, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—Laurels as premier angler which were conceded to Commissioner A. L. Barbur, who died early in the month when he arrived in Bend with a 30-pound steelhead trout taken at East Lake, were rudely snatched away today. Members of the party who accompanied Mr. Barbur on his fishing trip admitted that the giant fish was not the one which had won the margin of the lake when "snagged" by a camp workman and presented to one of the Bend fishermen, who in turn gave the trophy to the commissioner.

When he departed for Portland Monday night Mr. Barbur modestly displayed his "catch" and related the story of a thrilling 60-minute battle with the big steelhead.
