

NEW OREGON BISHOP GREETED BY METHODISTS

William O. Shepard Meets District Representatives.

450 PERSONS ATTEND

Many Pastors From Out of Town. Attracted to Gathering—Tribute Paid Predecessor.

To Methodists of Portland, and in fact, to members of the church all over Oregon, last night was a night of rejoicing, as the occasion on which the new bishop, William O. Shepard, officially greeted representatives of the district.

It is a love for new interests in life that keeps a man young," he said. "Out here we realize more than ever the great opportunities for the greatest work of all that are offered, and these opportunities are here today than ever before, for we are living in a wonderful age—an age of leaders, mature men."

Dr. W. W. Youngson Presides. Dr. W. W. Youngson, district superintendent of the Methodist church, presided. Addressed the gathering were Rev. R. N. Avison of the First church of Salem in behalf of the Oregon conference, and Rev. Eugene H. Leach of the Laymen and Dr. Joshua Stanfield of the First church of Portland for the Methodists of the city.

Large Delegation Arrives. 150 Members of Had Temple Arrived at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 18.—(Special)—Aboard the scheduled train, the first of the eastern delegations routed through Seattle to the Shrine convention, which opens in Portland next week, 150 members of Had Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Evansville, Ind., were given a rousing welcome by the nobles of the local temple when they alighted from their special cars at the King-street station at 10 o'clock this morning.

The church parlors were gaily decked with flowers and several musicians added a pleasant touch to the occasion. Guests flocked into the building and kept the hosts busy for practically an hour. In the receiving line were the Rev. H. B. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Youngson, Dr. Avison, Dr. and Mrs. Stanfield, Rev. D. H. Leach of Eugene, Mr. Booth, Carl C. Doney, president of Willamette university; H. J. Talbot, president of Kimball College of Theology in Salem; Mrs. Talbot, Rev. E. E. Gibbs, who is district superintendent in the capital city; Mrs. Gilbert, Rev. Lester C. Poor, president of the Methodist ministerial association; Dr. and Mrs. Howarth and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wells. Dr. Hoop is executive secretary of the Portland area of the Centenary Methodist church and Mr. Wells is president of the Laymen's association of Oregon.

Many Pastors Attracted. The gathering attracted a large number of pastors from out of the city. Among those who came here to greet Bishop Shepard were: Rev. J. C. Spencer, Albany; Rev. C. L. Dark, Woodburn; S. S. Stulliger, Kent; Wash.; Rev. G. O. Oliver, Tillamook; Rev. A. A. Helst, Astoria; Rev. C. P. Johnson, Dallas; Rev. George Park, Medford; Rev. Ernest Smith, McMinnville; Rev. R. E. Meyers, Graham; Rev. M. T. Wire, Oregon City; Rev. H. Charles, Lewiston, Idaho; Rev. Charles A. Bowen, Salem, and Rev. E. H. Todd, Tacoma.

In the speaking during the evening the circumstances of the election of Bishop Shepard was referred to frequently. He was given as the district's first choice at the meeting in the east, but word was sent that Portland would not be likely to secure him and a second choice must be named. Upon suggestion of Dr. Stanfield word was sent that the first choice was Bishop Shepard and the second choice, as well, would be Bishop Shepard.

Special Train Bearing Easterners Due to Arrive in Portland Monday Morning.

Three thousand New Yorkers are on their way to Portland in special trains. The general New York committee, headed by Dr. M. B. Marcellus and Mrs. H. B. Marcellus, has an appeal last night to all former New Yorkers to call this morning and register at New York state headquarters at the Rubin Motor company, Broadway and Hoyt, opposite the new Postoffice, and at the west end of the Broadway bridge.

Nine temples from New York state are sponsors for the huge delegation, which is expected Monday morning. "We want every New Yorker in Portland to come and register," said Dr. Marcellus. "The first thing these people from New York will say is 'Can you tell me where to find the blanket? They moved to Portland three years ago.'"

"Now we have the incomplete records of the old New York state society, but we want the latest addresses and telephone numbers, and that is why we appeal to New Yorkers to call today and register."

In addition, we want a large number of former New Yorkers to be at our headquarters at 19 A. M. Monday to help welcome New York Shriners for whom special entertainment features have been planned."

NEW HEAD OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN OREGON HONORED AT GATHERING.

BISHOP WILLIAM O. SHEPARD.

This was the information given by headquarters yesterday to hundreds of persons who called to inquire. One east side woman said she had planted her entire garden in flowers and greenery to represent the Shrine flag.

DEGENERATE FREED AND SENT TO OREGON

New York Supreme Justice Criticized for Action.

MAN IS OLD OFFENDER

Attacks Made on Little Girls When Attendant Is Eluded—Public and Press Aroused.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 18.—New York newspapers of the public are much wrought up over the release by Supreme Court Justice Tierny of Milton Schwartz, a degenerate, on a little girl, who was given into the hands of relatives to be taken to Oregon. Both the Tribune and Globe have run editorials denouncing the action of Justice Tierny, who granted the plea for Schwartz's release on the ground that he was to be removed to the Pacific coast and would therefore no longer be a menace to the little girl.

Under the heading, "Other States' Children," the Tribune and Globe seem that the little children of Oregon, or any other state, have as good a right to protection as the children of New York. In an editorial captioned "The Children of Oregon, Too," the Globe said that Justice Tierny, a physician, and another physician, made to the effect that it is dangerous for him to be at large.

C. J. Post Makes Charges. He was accused by Charles Johnson Post, a newspaper man and a son of Louis Post, assistant secretary of labor of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Apartment House Sold. Marshall-street Property Brings $50,000.

W. F. Young, of Sherwood, Disposes of Building to F. S. Chapman. Sale of the Marshall apartments, 624 Marshall street, was concluded yesterday when the property was sold by W. F. Young of Sherwood to F. S. Chapman of Portland, the consideration for which was $50,000.

Girl's Father Explains Case. In a letter to the Oregonian news bureau here, Charles Johnson Post writes: "This man, Milton Schwartz, noble Harry D. Hurley, chairman of the Nile temple's entertainment committee, said today that his committee was making arrangements to receive approximately 400 tomorrow and some more Sunday. For two or three days small parties have been arriving, but the nobles from Evansville compose the first solid delegation to reach the city."

Rate Declared Unreasonable. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 18.—Rates charged the Northern Grain & Warehouse company of Portland by the Northern Pacific railroad and connecting lines on several carloads of oats shipped from points in South Dakota to Portland and Helix, Or., and Tacoma, Wash., were found unreasonable by the interstate commerce commission today. The rate charged was 76 cents and the commission held the rate should have been 81 cents. Reparations were awarded.

AMERICAN ADMIRAL'S WIDOW APPEARS AT HEILIG THEATER. Frivolous Stepmother in "Clarence" Is Mrs. Marx in Private Life. Stage Employs Mind and Prevents Dwelling on Grief.

BY LEONE CASS BAER. TWENTY-FOUR years ago the 31st of last month Grace Filkins deserted Broadway, where she had become a personage, and married Adolph Marx, who was not then Rear-Admiral Marx, but one of the several stages of promotion which were his from the time he was graduated in 1858 from the naval academy until he was made rear-admiral in July, 1908.

The marriage was a romance and the gallant Marx took Miss Filkins from two other suitors, landmen, one of whom seemed sure to win, until the famous sailor put in an appearance. Miss Filkins threw them over quickly, however, and their wedding was a notable event.

For a while she gave up the stage, returning occasionally when she had a particularly good play that appealed to her. A little daughter came to add to her happiness. They named her Lydia, but they pronounce it Leoda, like Leoda Filkins Marx.

Life Seen in Many Places. All over the world Mrs. Marx traveled with her distinguished husband, in every port where ships enter or leave, in Australia, she had in far-out-of-the-way spots, in India, in Egypt, in China, Japan, in South America and in Australia. She had the distinction of being presented to the old Emperor and Empress of Japan, and she hobnobbed socially with England's royalty and folk of the peerage. One year when the admiral was busy Mrs. Marx took her little girl and a governess and maid and encircled the globe.

Now the little Marx maid has been to young womanhood and the wonderful husband and daddy passed on a year ago. With his loss Mrs. Marx felt the absolute need of something to keep her mind from dwelling too much on her grief, and after a few months of desperate seeking she found in books, religion, friends and her daughter's musical career, she turned instinctively to the stage.
