DAYLIGHT HOLDUP AT STATION REPORTED

Negro Porter Is Arrested After Lively Chase.

BURGLARS DECLARED BUSY

Houses in Many Parts of City Entered and Clothing and Other Valuables Taken.

A daring daylight hold-up and numerous burglaries were among the contributions to the Shrine convention on the part of crooks yesterday. With a hundred additional patrolmen and a visiting detective co-operating with the local department, Chief of Police Jenkins and Captain of Detectives Clark are waging an aggressive campaign against such depredations and a number of arrests were reported yesterday.

S. H. Loving, negro porter, was arrested yesterday at the Union station. He is said to have held up J. Hendry, a traveling passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, in one of the pullman cars at the station and, under threats of cutting his throat with a razor, to have taken $20 in bills and money from him. The hold-up occurred shortly before noon yesterday, when the railroad yards were filled with policemen, detectives and incoming Shriners.

Patrolmen Cameron and Chandler gave chase to the porter, who sought to lose himself in the crowd, they reported, and arrested him. The money was recovered and is being held at the police station as evidence.

Arrest Follows Chase.

Walter Long, who was arrested by Patrolmen Abbott and Yost, on the charge of burglarizing the home of O. W. Mickelson, 58 East Ninety-second street North, is held at the station and will have a hearing in the municipal court today. Long, according to the police, stole $100 worth of silverware from Mickelson's home. Mr. Mickelson gave chase as he was leaving the house and, assisted by the policemen, caught the alleged burglar.

Inspectors Hill and Cahill arrested Floyd Hopkins, 15, at Third and Burnside streets, and charged him yesterday morning with larceny from a dwelling. According to the inspectors, Hopkins participated with Long in the burglary of the Mickelson home, but made his escape at that time, only to be picked up later in the night.

A third man, Harry Duval, 18, was arrested by Patrolmen Sullivan and Forken at Twelfth and Columbia streets and was charged with carrying concealed weapons. Duval is believed by the inspectors to have been associated with Long and Hopkins in the burglary of the home of Frank Spady at Hillsdale. The revolver which he carried, according to them, was taken from the Spady home.

Three Shriners to Be Married.

Wonder if the camel has gone into partnership with Dan Cupid these days? At the marriage license window in the county clerk's office, one would have almost thought so. Yesterday that office issued 23 licenses to as many couples. Three of the men, Anthony C. Eppler, William J. Harvey and Charles O. Parrott, are Shriners from out of town.

W. H. Stanfill, 7215 Eighty-second street southeast, which resulted in the overturning of the automobile and the serious injury of two-year-old Willis Stanfill, son of Mr. Stanfill. Charges against the deputy sheriff were preferred by Mr. Stanfill. Mr. Stanfill swore his machine in an effort to prevent the collision. It overturned, throwing the occupants to the pavement. The little boy's right leg was badly fractured and it was feared that he would bleed to death. Attendants at the Good Samaritan hospital announced yesterday that he would recover. Mrs. Stanfill sustained an injured shoulder.

Mid-Summer Frocks for Shrine Week $25

Delightful gowns that will be useful day after day—and most of them are pretty enough for evenings.

They are of georgette crepe with beads and embroidery, dotted swiss with cunning white pleatings, pastel colored organdie and charming cotton crepe printed like georgette. Most of the georgette dresses are lined with silk.

A number are trimmed with many rows of lace or cool net fichus.

Each one is cool and fresh—just arrived from our New York makers.

Sizes for misses and women.

—Meier & Frank's: Fashion Salons, Fourth Floor.

Genuine Navajo Indian Rugs

Personally Selected at the Indian Reservation

Fourth Less

Navajo rugs are as typical as anything we know of in this great western land. Navajo rugs are made of the wool raised by Navajo Indians on their own reservation. The ones we have are of pure wool, sheared, dyed and carded by the Indians. In them one sees the Navajo characters which stand for moon, rivers, lightning and the fiery sunsets of the southwestern plains.

There is a peculiar fascination about these real American rugs which makes them especially prized by collectors.

Not all rugs which look like Navajos are the real Navajos, however. That is why our rug buyer went directly to the Indian reservation in New Mexico and selected our extraordinarily interesting stocks of them.

As we realize that a great many visitors in Portland will wish to take one of these rugs away, and as expressage to distant points will cost something additional, we offer our entire collection of Navajo rugs at a fourth less for this week—as long as they last.

Sizes range from about 2 feet 6 inches x 4 feet 6 inches to 4 feet x 7 feet.

Prices were $15 to $45, are $11.25 to $33.75.

—Meier & Frank's: Rug Store, Seventh Floor.

AUTO THIEF SENTENCED

MAN WHO STOLE CAR IN PORTLAND GETS 13 MONTHS.

Initial Case to Be Tried Under New National Motor Vehicle Act.

Thirteen months in federal prison was the sentence meted out by Judge Wolverton yesterday morning as the penalty for stealing an automobile in Portland and driving to Seattle. This case, in which Ray Roland, 29, was the defendant, is the first under the new national motor vehicle theft act to be tried in this district.

This federal law, which went into effect six months ago, makes it an offense against the United States government to take a stolen motor vehicle across a state line, to conceal such a car or otherwise aid in the interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle.

Echoes of the Dubinsky murder as a reason for greater severity in dealing with automobile thieves were heard in the United States district court yesterday, when Judge Wolverton said, in sentencing Roland: "A man was killed a few days ago because a couple of boys wanted to take a joy ride. This liberty with other people's automobiles is becoming too common and must be dealt with harshly."

The case was prosecuted for the government by Charles W. Roames, assistant United States attorney.
