DECISION EXPECTED SOON

BOARD TO ACT ON REQUEST FOR WAGE INCREASES.

Rearing to Be Granted to Certain Short Line Railroads Not Previously Represented.

SALEM, Or., June 22.—(Special.)—
The United States labor board will make a decision at the earliest possible date on the requests for wage increases of rallroad employes, which were presented to the board in the recent hearings held in Washington and Chicago, according to a letter received at the executive offices here Monday from R. M. Barton, chairman of the board.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 22.—(Special.)—Thousands of dollars are being saved farmers of Oregon through farm bureau emergency measures such as grasshopper campaigns and purchasing of distillate for tractor operations.

An outbreak of grasshoppers occurred ten days ago in Union county which threatened to destroy the crops. In one field, within two days, grain to the extent of 15 acres was destroyed. Quick action was taken

"Inasmuch as a hearing has not yet been given to representatives of certain short line railroads and other carriers which were not represented by the railroad executives' committee," said the letter, "the decision will necessarily cover approximately 93 per cent of the railroad employes of the United States. As soon as practicable, the board will give a hearing to representatives of the short line and other carriers not represented at the and other carriers not represented at JAP WEDS WHITE WOMAN the recent hearings, and as soon thereafter as possible a decision for the employes of these carriers will Ceremony at Tacoma Performed by

"The decision will be effective as of May 1, 1920, and will apply, according to the time served, to all employes who were in service as of May ployes who were in service as of May it, and who remained therein or who it, and who remained therein or who is a warried in Tacoma yes.
