

HOME TOWN NEWS FOR VISITING NOBLES OF THE MYSTIC SHRINE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

went into executive session to worry over the strike while eight civic organizations prepared to man the cars if employees quit.

The mystery woman in the Elwell murder in New York is Miss Elly Hope Anderson, 3112 Columbus ave., Minneapolis. She was Victor von Schlegell's companion the night Elwell was shot. Police in New York raided her apartment after she left, seized her mail and took snapshots.

It's going to be cold in the north-west this winter. Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Superior civic bodies wired governors, senators and the interstate commerce commission, begging for haste in getting coal westward.

The Nicolet property at 715 Nicolet street, rented for 100 years at $500,000. The Nash trial hit a new snag when Jacques asked delay and got a postponement to Friday because he did not want to interfere with Mike Weisman's trial on a vice racket charge. Mike's defense witnesses were heckled by prosecution.

Cleveland, O. CLEVELAND, O., June 22.—(Special.)—Arthur R. Bullock, 1190 Lake avenue, filed suit for $50,000 and possession of patents against Bos Prodnos company.

Ball bond for $2000 for David Rubins was ordered forfeited by Judge Westover in federal court Tuesday because he was 15 minutes late in coming to trial.

Business men will be hosts to 200 orphans Wednesday. Ice cream, candy, automobile rides and movies are scheduled.

M. E. Daly is willing to show the books of the East Ohio Gas company to city investigators.

Maybe it is June but the weather man's foot must have slipped. The temperature has failed to rise above 69 since summer was declared.

Albert Knevel, 3192 East One Hundred Thirty-fourth street, and Frank V. Aige, 3585 East One Hundred Thirty-eighth street, were fined $100 and costs Tuesday by Judge McMahon for running a baseball pool in a city factory.

Henry L. Emerson says if republicans support Burton he will come out and defend in federal court. A $400,000 bond issue for East Cleveland schools is to be made this week.

Doughnut hut on public square was opened officially Tuesday. The Salvation Army drive is on.

The city club will start open forum meetings on public square this summer.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, of the temple, leaves shortly as delegate to the international Zionist conference in London, July 6.

The John Joyce Zionist case was postponed until after the murder trial.

Reading, Pa. READING, Pa., June 22.—(Special.)—County and city authorities are searching for the driver of a motor truck that struck John Travis, age 20, of Wyoming, late at night on River road and mangled him so badly that he soon died in Homeopathic hospital. The truck did not stop, Travis being found later by passersby.

The Reading Iron company puddle mill was partly wrecked and put out of operation for a week when a section of the roof fell in today. Cracking timbers gave employees enough warning to escape, but George Mock was seriously injured by flying debris.

Two additional police were announced today by the mayor, who said 50 less patrolmen are now available for duty than normally.

While freight of all kinds is at a standstill on local divisions of the Philadelphia & Reading, the chamber of commerce formally appealed to the merchants and producers today to call on their employees for volunteers to help harvest the crops on farms in this district. A food shortage is predicted as the alternative.

Reading hospital drive reached $142,937.77, while $49,491 and $1,000 worth of sugar were secured for Berk's tuberculosis sanitarium in last night's canvass.

New York City, N. Y. NEW YORK, June 22.—(Special.)—Engineering societies here will help build a $3,000,000 memorial to American officers who died during the war.

The Bronx will try to induce the board of estimate to build a $3,000,000 hospital in that borough.

Lillian Lee, movie actress, has chosen a role in romance of real life. She is to marry her butcher.

Police here are seeking a mystery man in a hunt for the slayer of Manual Gabin.

Nicholas Murray Butler has issued a public apology to Colonel Proctor, campaign manager for General Wood. He says his charge against the general's supporters was unwarranted.

The Caruso gem theft is still a mystery. Detectives hope for another offer if the inquiry is resumed tomorrow.

The Fidelity Trust company will merge with the International bank. Aggregate resources will exceed $23,000,000. The Fidelity office is to be headquarters.

No arrests have been made yet in the Elwell murder mystery. The district attorney declares a grand jury is the "most baffling of the century."

San Francisco, Cal. SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—(Special.)—Idore B. Dockweiler, national democratic committee man from California, favors the candidacy of Edward L. Doheny, Los Angeles oil magnate, for vice-president.

Governor William D. Stevens endorsed the candidacy of Senator Warren G. Harding and said he would support the republican nominee.

The plant of the Simon Mattress company, Eighteenth and Bryant, was destroyed by fire early this morning. Loss is $15,000.

Jeremiah Johnson, prominent Mason and Olympic club man, surprised his friends by marrying Miss Lottie F. Baker of Stockton.

Pete McDonough went on the stand in his own behalf this afternoon and entered a complete and detailed denial of the charges of Attorney Ric-card, that he, McDonough, had "kicked" Sherman and Clay.

Fred Sherman of Sherman & Clay will make a business trip by aeroplane tomorrow, visiting five cities. His daughter will be a passenger.

Mrs. William Lord, Stockton society matron, was paroled from the Alameda county jail after serving more than three months of a six months sentence for driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Night "hiking" over Marin county hills will be a misdemeanor if plans of the Mill Valley outdoor club are carried out. It is claimed by clubwomen that night hiking is bad for young girls.

Mayor Rolph entertained a score of the visiting newspapermen from the east here for the democratic convention at his home tonight.

Atlanta, Ga. ATLANTA, Ga., June 22.—(Special.)—Telephone officials gave notice Tuesday that at an early date they would file with the state railroad commission a petition for increased phone rates throughout Georgia. The proposed rates were not stated.

Dr. W. M. Etheridge was elected by city council to succeed Dr. J. B. Rains, resigned, as fifth ward councilman, defeating Foster L. Hunter, 28 to 4.

James Ewing, prominent real estate dealer, denied today that the majority bees are buzzing in his ear and is reported to have said he would limit his political ambitions to the role of interested bystander.

Councilman R. E. Stone, third ward, announced Tuesday he would be candidate to succeed himself in the primary June 26.

City board members elected by council, Dr. C. E. Barber, third ward, Grady hospital board; S. S. Selig Jr., second ward; W. G. Gainey, third ward; Carnegie library board; John S. Owens, sixth ward, water board.

Organized labor will fight rent increases in Atlanta and Georgia by backing the bill aimed at this evil which will be introduced in the session of the legislature Wednesday, it was announced Tuesday afternoon at a conference of state labor leaders here.

Candidates for office in the city primary are wrought up over what they term excessive entry fees and are planning protest at the democratic executive committee. Fees range from 150 for councilman candidates to 250 for mayor and other offices.

C. V. Hobenstein, secretary of the Men's club, has become associated with the Atlanta business college as vice-president. He formerly was with the Atlanta Georgian.

Because of the high cost of material and the fact that $200,000 is needed to complete the Shrine temple in Macon, the committee in charge announces the temple will be built in sections. The auditorium section, costing more than $200,000, will be built first.

Baltimore, Md. BALTIMORE, Md., June 22.—(Special.)—"Eleanore," the estate of Mrs. William Lanhan at Charles street and Belona avenue, has been purchased by the convalescent patients George Horton, ex-fire chief, who engineered the great Baltimore fire of 1904, died last night at his home, was 74 years old and saw 50 years service in the fire department.

A threat to put at the bottom of the priority list all railroad men who do not return at once to work is having a restraining effect upon the spread of the latest switchmen's strike here today.

Howard Bryant, president of the second ward, again took up the reins of the municipal government on account of the absence of Mayor Broening.

Leo Skalanski, 12-year-old boy of 118 South Broadway, was arrested Monday on the charge of being dirty. The person who shot Mrs. Marian Anker, wife of Carl B. Anacker of Morell park, yesterday.

Ex-state senator Eppler of Cumberland Monday assumed his duties as member of the state industrial accident commission.

John P. Hopkins, ex-magistrate, 42 years old, of Towson, was found dead early Monday at his home.

Captain Ellis, professor of military science and tactics at Johns Hopkins university, has stepped back into civil life after 16 years' service in the army.

William Pepper, constable of the board of liquor license commissioners, has sent his resignation to the governor and it has been accepted.

Irving Horseman, 19-year-old boy of Taylor's island, was fined $11.35 in United States court Monday for violation of the migratory bird treaty act. Horseman pleaded guilty to shooting four geese on Taylor island on February 13.

Columbus, O. COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—(Special.)—Columbus will be the center of great activity on the afternoon and evening of July 21, the day before Senator Harding is formally notified of his nomination for the presidency.

The republican party. The republican nominee is expected to attend a dinner here that evening.

Voters here will be asked to support a school bond issue of $5,840,000 at the August primary following action taken by the school board Monday night. The issue will be to cover expenses and erect 14 new school buildings.

A few strikers at the Ohio Fuel Supply company returned to work and the supply to Columbus was assured for another day. Officials say there has been no settlement of the strike.

The city council has passed an ordinance to increase firemen and policemen in Columbus $15 per month. Other employees not advanced will present demands at the council meeting Friday night.

N. E. Otto was chosen president of the enlisted men's club at a meeting Monday night.

About 4500 are expected to attend the 25th convention of the Ohio Christian Endeavor union, which opened its session here tonight. Nearly 2000 had registered at noon.

Toledo, O. TOLEDO, O., June 22.—The government through John Barton Payne, agent under the transportation act, today began suit in United States district court here against 15 Sandusky defendants for $10,174.33 which charges is due as taxes on 44 drums of alcohol alleged to have been stolen by the crew of a railroad car at St. John, near here, last February.

Helena, Mont. HELENA, Mont., June 22.—(Special.)—Anton J. Horaky of Helena announced today he would make the race on the republican ticket for the office of district judge of the district embracing this county.

The Broadwater hotel was formally opened here this evening with a big dance and dinner. The tourist season is on and the hotel is already filled with guests.

Major Charles L. Sheridan today filed his declaration of becoming a candidate on the republican ticket for the office of state auditor.

Gilbert Benedict, owner and resident of the Central Hotel on Broadway and a pioneer of Montana, was stricken with a paralytic stroke this morning. Mr. Benedict's wealth is estimated to be $100,000.

According to Adjutant Hill Green the national guard of Montana will be reviewed within the next two months. Companies are to organize at Bozeman, Roundup, Billings, Miles City, Sidney, Glendive, Kallispell and Plena.

Twenty-five counties of the state reported rain today. According to the commissioner of agriculture and publicly this rain assures a crop in this state.

Ninety-five nurses from all parts of Montana are in Helena taking the examination for a nurse's license before the state board of examining nurses.

Indianapolis, Ind. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 22.—(Special.)—Miss Indianapolis sends greetings to Marat temple and sends warning not to fall too deeply in love with the city of roses. We still have some in the Hoosier capital.

S. O. S. Special—No, the earthquake reported out on the coast never touched us—missed us 2000 miles.

Extra! Extra!—Streetcar company put on another new car on College avenue. The straphangers are celebrating.

Toledo bumped the Indianapolis ball club off its winning streak after the locals had won eight straight games.

Henry Scott Frazer, 70, well-known railroad man, is dead of heart trouble. He was formerly general freight agent of the New York Central line.

Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont Mr. Gerard admitted being a candidate himself. Women and men on the train boarded the wet plank.

A huge all-metal monoplane, a rebuilt German Fokker, owned by John M. Larsen of New York and formerly of Omaha, landed at the government air mail hangar today. On board were Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, Major L. B. Lent, general superintendent of the air mail service; Pilot Acosta and Mechanician Larsens. They flew from New York to attend the wedding of Miss Carita O'Brien, daughter of T. J. O'Brien, to John Markel, of Lincoln, Wednesday. The party left New York last Friday.

The Elks club today attended the funeral of J. D. ("Dad") Weaver, secretary of Aksarben for nearly 15 years. Burial was in Elks Rest in Forest Lawn cemetery. The eulogy to Weaver was read at Aksarben Monday night.

Dean Tancock, pastor of Trinity Cathedral, was summoned in police court today on a charge of speeding 30 miles an hour on Eighteenth street. The case was continued to Friday. Judge Fitzgerald intimated that a $5 fine would be assessed.

Philadelphia, Pa. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 22.—William T. Gabel, director clerk of the defendant North Penn bank, was found guilty on seven counts this afternoon. The jury was out only 45 minutes. The maximum penalty is 29 years.

W. L. Alexander, paying teller at the United States treasury in Washington, told the special federal grand jury investigating the Bergdoll escape, how James E. Roming obtained $105,000 in gold for the slacker. Eight other witnesses were called. The investigation will be finished tomorrow.

Sheldon Potter and William Hancock, city representatives on the Philadelphia Rapid Transit board of directors, in a report to council today advised that operation of the whole system be thrown on the Union Traction company, the principal underlying company.

The "outlaw" railroad strike is breaking up, according to officials of the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia & Reading.

Phyllis Hare Yarrow received a divorce today from Walter Kumbia Yarrow, real estate broker and aviator. Mrs. Harry M. Vogel received a divorce from John C. Vogel, manufacturer and clubman.

Vice-Provost Penniman has been made acting provost of the University of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Edgar Fahs Smith.

Louisville, Ky. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 22.—(Special.)—The E. E. Wathen Distilling company offered to pay the difference between the medicinal and beverage tax on liquor removed from the local plant and shipped via truck to Covington last winter. According to Levi Cooke, attorney, the government has assessed $10,000 taxes on the 8000 cases.

Six drug addicts at the city hospital tied the ward orderly to a bed, took his keys and left for parts unknown. All were voluntary patients. None of the remaining patients, some of whom were prisoners, made any effort to get away.

The state dry law will become effective July 1, and local officials today got together to formulate plans for making Louisville a second Sahara.

Captain Schuyler A. Donella, stationed at the local customs house for the past 24 years in secret service work, has resigned to devote the rest of his life to chicken raising.

3000 counterfeiters to prison during his career and was one of the most feared agents in government service. Sheriff Will Ross has offered a $500 reward for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of his deputies who are failing to suppress gambling. The offer followed the arrest of Deputy Daniel Schenk with six other retards in alleged handbook at 418 West Jefferson street.

St. Paul, Minn. ST. PAUL, Minn., June 22.—(Special.)—The continuation of the building of the union station in St. Paul was assured today when plans for the financing of the present unit were completed. The new financing involved more than $1,000,000 and will

Springfield, Mo. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Joshua Sharick, 103 years old, took an air trip Sunday. The centenarian was delighted with his journey, volves more than $1,000,000 and will

St. Louis, Mo. ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Four hundred and forty-two thousand, four hundred and forty-two dollars are to be returned to St. Louisians under the recent supreme court decision, according to the computation of State Auditor Hackman, who has ordered Collector Loeb to refund. Each state income taxpayer is to get 40 cent week.

Hank Weisk is free of the perjury charge in connection with his municipal campaign.

John Schmoll "For Sheriff" placards have appeared in the municipal campaign. Schmoll is surprised. He has no idea how they got there.

In two years from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Danville, Va. "blives" syndicate, who have even put drummers on the road to sell their lot from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Los Angeles, Cal. LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 22.—(Special.)—News that a slight quake had been felt in the Big Creek district near here because of the fact that it is situated on what is termed by geologists as a flood plane.

The supreme court in an opinion

filed today in Los Angeles denied rehearing in the damage suit instituted by Nina J. Litherbury against the Los Angeles Gas & Electric company for injuries received when a truck of the defendant company struck an automobile in which the plaintiff was riding. The plaintiff had been awarded $4000 damages.

Although scheduled to go on hearing before the police commission today, the cases of Detective Sergeants James McNamara, Ambrose Boyd, F. D. Carroll, Bert Cowan and Patrolman J. L. Kirby were held over for one more week. All the men are charged with inefficiency.

Registration for the summer session of the southern branch of the University of California will continue until Saturday.

Omaha, Neb. OMAHA, Neb., June 22.—(Special.)—Captain John T. Dunn, chief of city detective department, who is under suspension pending the disposition of charges filed against him by Chief Eberstein, testified before the city council today that he considered the $100 reward from Weinberg of Fremont more than a year ago as a personal gift instead of a reward. The council will give its decision Saturday.

Hot words were exchanged by Mayor Ringer and Butler during the probe.

James W. Gerard, ex-ambassador to Germany, stopped en route to the San Francisco convention. On a special train with delegations from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont Mr. Gerard admitted being a candidate himself. Women and men on the train boarded the wet plank.

A huge all-metal monoplane, a rebuilt German Fokker, owned by John M. Larsen of New York and formerly of Omaha, landed at the government air mail hangar today. On board were Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, Major L. B. Lent, general superintendent of the air mail service; Pilot Acosta and Mechanician Larsens. They flew from New York to attend the wedding of Miss Carita O'Brien, daughter of T. J. O'Brien, to John Markel, of Lincoln, Wednesday. The party left New York last Friday.

The Elks club today attended the funeral of J. D. ("Dad") Weaver, secretary of Aksarben for nearly 15 years. Burial was in Elks Rest in Forest Lawn cemetery. The eulogy to Weaver was read at Aksarben Monday night.

Dean Tancock, pastor of Trinity Cathedral, was summoned in police court today on a charge of speeding 30 miles an hour on Eighteenth street. The case was continued to Friday. Judge Fitzgerald intimated that a $5 fine would be assessed.

Philadelphia, Pa. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 22.—William T. Gabel, director clerk of the defendant North Penn bank, was found guilty on seven counts this afternoon. The jury was out only 45 minutes. The maximum penalty is 29 years.

W. L. Alexander, paying teller at the United States treasury in Washington, told the special federal grand jury investigating the Bergdoll escape, how James E. Roming obtained $105,000 in gold for the slacker. Eight other witnesses were called. The investigation will be finished tomorrow.

Sheldon Potter and William Hancock, city representatives on the Philadelphia Rapid Transit board of directors, in a report to council today advised that operation of the whole system be thrown on the Union Traction company, the principal underlying company.

The "outlaw" railroad strike is breaking up, according to officials of the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia & Reading.

Phyllis Hare Yarrow received a divorce today from Walter Kumbia Yarrow, real estate broker and aviator. Mrs. Harry M. Vogel received a divorce from John C. Vogel, manufacturer and clubman.

Vice-Provost Penniman has been made acting provost of the University of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Edgar Fahs Smith.

Louisville, Ky. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 22.—(Special.)—The E. E. Wathen Distilling company offered to pay the difference between the medicinal and beverage tax on liquor removed from the local plant and shipped via truck to Covington last winter. According to Levi Cooke, attorney, the government has assessed $10,000 taxes on the 8000 cases.

Six drug addicts at the city hospital tied the ward orderly to a bed, took his keys and left for parts unknown. All were voluntary patients. None of the remaining patients, some of whom were prisoners, made any effort to get away.

The state dry law will become effective July 1, and local officials today got together to formulate plans for making Louisville a second Sahara.

Captain Schuyler A. Donella, stationed at the local customs house for the past 24 years in secret service work, has resigned to devote the rest of his life to chicken raising.

3000 counterfeiters to prison during his career and was one of the most feared agents in government service. Sheriff Will Ross has offered a $500 reward for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of his deputies who are failing to suppress gambling. The offer followed the arrest of Deputy Daniel Schenk with six other retards in alleged handbook at 418 West Jefferson street.

St. Paul, Minn. ST. PAUL, Minn., June 22.—(Special.)—The continuation of the building of the union station in St. Paul was assured today when plans for the financing of the present unit were completed. The new financing involved more than $1,000,000 and will

Springfield, Mo. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Joshua Sharick, 103 years old, took an air trip Sunday. The centenarian was delighted with his journey, volves more than $1,000,000 and will

St. Louis, Mo. ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Four hundred and forty-two thousand, four hundred and forty-two dollars are to be returned to St. Louisians under the recent supreme court decision, according to the computation of State Auditor Hackman, who has ordered Collector Loeb to refund. Each state income taxpayer is to get 40 cent week.

Hank Weisk is free of the perjury charge in connection with his municipal campaign.

John Schmoll "For Sheriff" placards have appeared in the municipal campaign. Schmoll is surprised. He has no idea how they got there.

In two years from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Danville, Va. "blives" syndicate, who have even put drummers on the road to sell their lot from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Los Angeles, Cal. LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 22.—(Special.)—News that a slight quake had been felt in the Big Creek district near here because of the fact that it is situated on what is termed by geologists as a flood plane.

The supreme court in an opinion

filed today in Los Angeles denied rehearing in the damage suit instituted by Nina J. Litherbury against the Los Angeles Gas & Electric company for injuries received when a truck of the defendant company struck an automobile in which the plaintiff was riding. The plaintiff had been awarded $4000 damages.

Although scheduled to go on hearing before the police commission today, the cases of Detective Sergeants James McNamara, Ambrose Boyd, F. D. Carroll, Bert Cowan and Patrolman J. L. Kirby were held over for one more week. All the men are charged with inefficiency.

Registration for the summer session of the southern branch of the University of California will continue until Saturday.

Hot words were exchanged by Mayor Ringer and Butler during the probe.

James W. Gerard, ex-ambassador to Germany, stopped en route to the San Francisco convention. On a special train with delegations from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont Mr. Gerard admitted being a candidate himself. Women and men on the train boarded the wet plank.

A huge all-metal monoplane, a rebuilt German Fokker, owned by John M. Larsen of New York and formerly of Omaha, landed at the government air mail hangar today. On board were Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, Major L. B. Lent, general superintendent of the air mail service; Pilot Acosta and Mechanician Larsens. They flew from New York to attend the wedding of Miss Carita O'Brien, daughter of T. J. O'Brien, to John Markel, of Lincoln, Wednesday. The party left New York last Friday.

The Elks club today attended the funeral of J. D. ("Dad") Weaver, secretary of Aksarben for nearly 15 years. Burial was in Elks Rest in Forest Lawn cemetery. The eulogy to Weaver was read at Aksarben Monday night.

Dean Tancock, pastor of Trinity Cathedral, was summoned in police court today on a charge of speeding 30 miles an hour on Eighteenth street. The case was continued to Friday. Judge Fitzgerald intimated that a $5 fine would be assessed.

Philadelphia, Pa. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 22.—William T. Gabel, director clerk of the defendant North Penn bank, was found guilty on seven counts this afternoon. The jury was out only 45 minutes. The maximum penalty is 29 years.

W. L. Alexander, paying teller at the United States treasury in Washington, told the special federal grand jury investigating the Bergdoll escape, how James E. Roming obtained $105,000 in gold for the slacker. Eight other witnesses were called. The investigation will be finished tomorrow.

Sheldon Potter and William Hancock, city representatives on the Philadelphia Rapid Transit board of directors, in a report to council today advised that operation of the whole system be thrown on the Union Traction company, the principal underlying company.

The "outlaw" railroad strike is breaking up, according to officials of the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia & Reading.

Phyllis Hare Yarrow received a divorce today from Walter Kumbia Yarrow, real estate broker and aviator. Mrs. Harry M. Vogel received a divorce from John C. Vogel, manufacturer and clubman.

Vice-Provost Penniman has been made acting provost of the University of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Edgar Fahs Smith.

Louisville, Ky. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 22.—(Special.)—The E. E. Wathen Distilling company offered to pay the difference between the medicinal and beverage tax on liquor removed from the local plant and shipped via truck to Covington last winter. According to Levi Cooke, attorney, the government has assessed $10,000 taxes on the 8000 cases.

Six drug addicts at the city hospital tied the ward orderly to a bed, took his keys and left for parts unknown. All were voluntary patients. None of the remaining patients, some of whom were prisoners, made any effort to get away.

The state dry law will become effective July 1, and local officials today got together to formulate plans for making Louisville a second Sahara.

Captain Schuyler A. Donella, stationed at the local customs house for the past 24 years in secret service work, has resigned to devote the rest of his life to chicken raising.

3000 counterfeiters to prison during his career and was one of the most feared agents in government service. Sheriff Will Ross has offered a $500 reward for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of his deputies who are failing to suppress gambling. The offer followed the arrest of Deputy Daniel Schenk with six other retards in alleged handbook at 418 West Jefferson street.

St. Paul, Minn. ST. PAUL, Minn., June 22.—(Special.)—The continuation of the building of the union station in St. Paul was assured today when plans for the financing of the present unit were completed. The new financing involved more than $1,000,000 and will

Springfield, Mo. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Joshua Sharick, 103 years old, took an air trip Sunday. The centenarian was delighted with his journey, volves more than $1,000,000 and will

St. Louis, Mo. ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—(Special.)—Four hundred and forty-two thousand, four hundred and forty-two dollars are to be returned to St. Louisians under the recent supreme court decision, according to the computation of State Auditor Hackman, who has ordered Collector Loeb to refund. Each state income taxpayer is to get 40 cent week.

Hank Weisk is free of the perjury charge in connection with his municipal campaign.

John Schmoll "For Sheriff" placards have appeared in the municipal campaign. Schmoll is surprised. He has no idea how they got there.

In two years from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Danville, Va. "blives" syndicate, who have even put drummers on the road to sell their lot from freight cars in yards here, has been unearthed. Goods valued at $125,000 were in the cars. Several arrests have been made.

Los Angeles, Cal. LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 22.—(Special.)—News that a slight quake had been felt in the Big Creek district near