O'Dowd to Meet Ortega in 158-Pound Bout.

BOTH MEN APPEAR FIT

All-Star Card Prepared for Fans at Milwaukie Arena by Boxing Commission.

BY DICK SHARP. Mike O'Dowd and Battling Ortega will fight for the 158-pound championship of the world tonight over the ten-round route at the Milwaukie arena. The match will be the main event of the greatest bill of goes that has yet been presented under the auspices of the Milwaukie commission sion.

They will weigh in this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Olympic gymnasium, but that process is hardly necessary, as both were below the required limit yesterday and should not shiver the beam today unless they ate strawberry shortcake last night or imbibed too much "nearbeer."

Boys Are Equal Favorites. Battling Ortega will get the oppor-tunity tonight that he has been look-ing for for three years, a crack at Mike O'Dowd, and for the first time in some years a Pacific coast boy is an equal favorite with a champion. Despite O'Dowd's wonderful aggres-Despite O'Dowd's wonderful aggressiveness and past record, a number of the boxing followers are picking Ortega to give as good as he takes against the St. Paul mittman.

If condition makes a fight, tonight's battle should be a pippin, as both men are as fit as the proverbial fiddle. The contestants went through a light workout in the gymnasium yesterday, punching the bag a few rounds, skip-ping rope and shadow boxing.
