French Champions Go Down to Bad Defeat.

PARKE TO MEET TILDEN

Japanese Expert Being Watched End of Tourney

WIMBLEDON, England, June 23.—
(By the Associated Press.)—The third day's play in the British tennis tournament brought forth a number of astonishing reverses of expected esults, chief among them the defeat of two of France's most skilful play-ers, Andre Gobert and William M. Laurentz, who have been mentioned as France's representatives in the Davis cup matches. Gobert and Laurents were vanquished respectivethe Japanese player Shimidzu and J. Brugnon of France.

All the American players except one came through the day's play successfully. Three of them defeated op-ponents in singles matches, while two others went through the first round of the doubles, disposing of their op-ponents in straight sets. The sole defeat of an American was due to
