BILLION-DOLLAR GOAL FAILS THROUGH POOR SUPPORT.

Withdrawal of Baptists and Presbyterians Big Factor in Causing Abandonment.

NEW YORK, June 28 .- The billion dollar campaign of the inter-church world movement has been abandoned, meeting of the executive committee, The entire project may end July 8, it was said, when the general committee

Several reasons were back of the decision, the committee stated, the principal one being the present prevalence of "drives of various kinds." The withdrawal of the Baptist church, North, and the Presbyterian church, North, also were said to be important factors in the decision to give up the campaign. Originally the inter-church world movement proposed to direct the raising of $1,320,-214,551 for the work at home and

TEXAS MAN. AFTER SLAYING DOCTOR, ATTACKS SISTER.

Heroic Efforts of Negro Saves Women's Lives-Murderer Under Guard.

LENINGTON, Ky., June 28 .- (Special.)-Dr. J. T. Nuttall, aged 76, one of the wealthlest and best-known men in central Kentucky, was killed today by his brother-in-law, Charles Chestnutt, aged 60, a maniac, at Newcastle Ky. Chestnutt then attempted to kill sister, Mrs. Nuttall, and daughter, but they were saved by Ed Durrell, a negro, who grappled with the lunatic and stopped the attack of Chestnutt had come from Texas to visit the Nuttalls some weeks ago. Last week he showed signs of insan-ity and Nuttall determined to seek a lunacy inquest today. Chestnut learned of the contemplated move and became violent.

Nuttall locked Chestautt in a room last night. This morning a man pass-ing saw Chestnutt trying to get out of a window. This man notified Nuttall, who entered Chestnutt's room to quiet him. Chestnutt rushed at Nuttall, who ran, but Chestnutt overtook him who ran, but Chestnutt overtook him on a landing. Chestnutt was armed with a razor, and after a battle with Nuttall, succeeded in cutting Nuttall's throat from ear to ear.

Nuttall died instantly. Mrs. Nuttall, accompanied by her daughter, ran to the aid of her nusband, when Chestnutt seized Mrs. Nuttall. He had her head under his arm and was trying to cut her throat when Durrell, hearing the woman scream, rushed in, and, being sunable to break the man's hold on the woman, grasped Chestnutt by the legs and hauled him through a window to the street, where he was overpowered by men who had feared to enter the house.

Members of the companies inspected last evening will entrain July 6 for Camp Lewis to attend the field training encampment there from July 6 to 20 inclusive. Companies seen in review were E. B. F. G and H. as well as the supply, medical corps and head-quarters personnel.

Equipment of the men was found to be in first-class condition, and it is said their drill is improving rapidly. Many spectators saw the parade drill which ended the review. Inspection was unusually rigorous last night because of the intended departure of the troops.

Queer Accident Reported to Police by Bystanders.

A furore of excitement was caused last night when an unidentified woman fell face foremost on the pavement from an automolleb driven pavement from an automolleb driven by Dr. Frank C. Hart, 1995 Williams avenue. The accident occurred at the east end of the Broadway bridge. Dr. Hart said the woman had fallen ascidentally when the door of the coupe opened while she was leaning against it. He declined to tell her

Mr. and Mrs. G. Guthrie, 1069 Moore street, and John T. Riley of the Foster hotel helped Dr. Hart put the woman back in his car and then reported to the police that the doctor had thrown the woman from his automobile while ne machine was in motion.

Such is the slogan of that master of character acting. Theodore Roberts, known by some as "the Duke of Hollywood," by others as "Pop," and by the vast army of photoplay patrons as a truly great artist.

Since he was a mere stripling Roberts has been making folk laugh and cry by turns. For years he spoke to them from across the footlights. Now he talks to them through the silver screen. He makes them cry if necessity demands, and makes them laugh when the opportunity offers.

"The schools in the larger centers are being developed largely along vocational lines, according to Mr. Stone. There are more men on the bench in Detroit who were trained in Y. M. C. Smiles, which members of the orchestra accompanying him tease out of the young violinies as he plays, add to the general charm.

Blanche Sweet is always good. "Simple Souls," her latest photoplay and the present Rivoll feature, is no exception. Its plot is unpretentious, but the production in its entirety is unusually well directed, has an abundance of humor and is not without lits thread of pathos.
