

PORTLANDERS CITED AS SUGAR GOGGERS

L. M. Starr, Richard Adams Accused in True Bills.

COMPANIES ARE INDICTED

Total Amount of Profiteering Charged in Three Alleged Deals is $7710.

L. M. Starr, president of the Starr Fruit Products company, and Richard Adams, agent for Parrott & Co., a wholesale commission house, were indicted...

Misrepresentation Is Alleged.

It is alleged that the defendant Starr represented that the sugar was needed for the use of his own corporation...

Third Transaction Charged.

On May 8, the defendant Starr is alleged to have purchased 100 sacks of sugar...

Others Will Be Indicted.

Mr. Lusk said he had information which connects up other persons and other corporations with alleged violations...

TWO SAY ARREST UNJUST

Shriners Exonerate Dr. Anderson From Blame on Highway.

That Dr. Walter Anderson by no means acted "hard-boiled" but was unjustly arrested at Multnomah Falls...

Frocks on Terms

1/3 Off CHERRY CHAT Cherry's remarkable Reduction Sale of suits, frocks, sport coats and sweaters is unique...

New Salmon Cannery Planned.

CHINOOK, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—A salmon cannery to be owned and operated by ocean trollers...

THE MISSISSIPPI

The Misses Marshall entertained yesterday at a small bridge tea at their home in Alexandria court.

At an attractive home wedding at 4 o'clock yesterday Miss Blanche Wilson became the bride of Lester C. Gunther...

A number of society folk motored to Vancouver last night for the ball at the barracks for the Army and Navy league.

Mrs. Clarence F. Morse (Mina Cohn) and young son of Ithaca, N. Y., who arrived in Portland Saturday...

The delightful summer weather has turned people's thoughts and plans toward the mountains and woods...

The road to Cloud Gap Inn, which is closed during the winter and now new to motorists and campers who have been up to the inn...

Among those who have been at Mount Hood lodge and Cloud Gap Inn recently are: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Abel, Paul Ferrans, B. W. Rubin, Dr. R. L. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Ainge, Miss Jessie Ainge, J. Hunt, Henrickson, R. Ames, Henrickson, C. Campbell, H. J. Terrell, and others.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lawson, 757 Montgomery drive, was recently the scene of a wedding Wednesday at high noon...

Members of the woman's auxiliary to the Railway Mail association will celebrate charter member day at the home of Mrs. J. Butterworth, 287 East Fifty-first street, at 12 o'clock today...

The Mayflower club will hold its final meeting of the season Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the blue room of the Hotel Portland...

Mrs. Helen Jackson Banghart, president of the Progressive Women's league, accompanied Mrs. McNaught, is attending the national democratic convention at San Francisco...

The Rose Social club meets tomorrow at 25 East Sixteenth street north. Mrs. Frederickson and Mrs. Clinkinbeard are to be joint hostesses...

McMINNVILLE, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—The state board of the Daughters of the American Revolution met in this city yesterday with Yanhill chapter No. 12...

THE DALES, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Automobiles in this city are jubilant today. The gasoline shortage was broken when a tank car from California arrived with 12,420 gallons.

Colonel and Mrs. W. H. C. Bowen and their daughter, Miss Gwladys and C. M. Hill, local manager for Famous Players-Lasky corporation. Among the other Oregonians present were: Cy Danz, Astoria; W. A. Long, Oregon City; George Hunt of Medford and Grant Pass; A. H. MacDonaid, Eugene; Guy Matlock of Baker and Pendleton; T. George, Bligh, Sale and C. M. Hill of Albany and Roseburg.

At the close of the sessions every exhibitor there signed for membership. Any exhibitors in the state may apply for membership and share in the booking rights. Men will be sent to canvass the motion picture owners of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana and within the next few weeks it is expected the membership will be considerably increased.

Members of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives will be in Portland July 11 or 12, and will be met near Multnomah falls by a delegation from the chamber of commerce. In the party are: James W. Good, J. R. Haysman, William Wood, Indiana; Louis C. Cramton, Michigan; Milton W. Shreve, Pennsylvania; Joseph W. Byrnes, Tennessee; John M. Evans, Montana; John J. Egan, New Jersey; James A. Gallivan, Massachusetts.

With the announced purpose of preventing profiteering in film rentals and stabilizing the cinema market, exhibitors representing 183 motion-picture houses of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana met in Seattle yesterday and Tuesday and voted to let their own motion picture owners do all the buying for them.

Exhibitors at the meeting, called by Jensen & Von Herberg, formed the Independent Booking company. Officers were elected and a reception will be held in the gray parlor in Seattle, with a branch office to be opened in Portland in the near future. The company is being financed on the percentage of investment plan while the entire business policy is not known, the share of one Portland theater alone will be over $11,000.

An informal reception in honor of Victor Heinze, piano virtuoso, of Chicago will be held in the gray parlor of the Multnomah hotel tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Heinze will play and give a recital of his piano playing and truly efficient piano teaching. All progressive teachers, advanced students and music lovers are invited to meet and hear Mr. Heinze.

SEVERAL ALBANY people went to Portland today to attend the wedding of Elmer E. Williamson, vice-president of the Albany State bank, and Miss Hildegarde Spillman of Blodgett, a former Albany young woman. The wedding took place in the gray parlor of the home of E. W. Capen, 1327 East Alder street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William S. Gordon, pastor of the Sellwood Methodist church of Portland, former pastor of the First Methodist church of Albany.

Mr. Williamson, one of Albany's prominent young business men, is a native of Albany, graduated from Oregon Agricultural college in 1909 and was principal of one of the Albany schools for three years. He entered the Albany State bank in 1913. During the war he served as a popular student and has been a member of the Albany high school, where he and Mrs. T. B. Williamson, his wife, who formerly resided for many years in Benton county, a few miles west of Albany.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spillman of Blodgett, who resided for several years near this city. She graduated in 1916 from Albany High school, where she was a popular student and has been attending Albany college. She was a member of the Girls Glee club of the college during the last year and prominent in various college activities.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES Confederates are to gather at the country home of Mrs. J. W. Mackie on Garden home for their annual picnic. Arrangements have been made for a most delightful day and an elaborate picnic luncheon will be served. The picnic will leave from Seward hotel, Third and Alder streets, at 10:30 A. M.

Announcement is made of the annual business meeting of the Oregon Tuberculosis association at 4 o'clock Friday, July 2, in room A, central library. Reports of the officers and members of the staff, which will review the work of the association since January, 1919, will be read and discussed.

Members of the woman's auxiliary to the Railway Mail association will to celebrate charter member day at the home of Mrs. J. Butterworth, 287 East Fifty-first street, at 12 o'clock today. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. C. H. Miller.

The Mayflower club will hold its final meeting of the season Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the blue room of the Hotel Portland. The president, Mrs. Helen Jackson Banghart, will review the work of the entire year.

Mrs. Alice M. McNaught, president of the Progressive Women's league, accompanied Mrs. McNaught, is attending the national democratic convention at San Francisco. Mrs. McNaught is alternate for Judge Crawford.

The Rose Social club meets tomorrow at 25 East Sixteenth street north. Mrs. Frederickson and Mrs. Clinkinbeard are to be joint hostesses. All Royal Neighbors are welcome.

McMINNVILLE, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—The state board of the Daughters of the American Revolution met in this city yesterday with Yanhill chapter No. 12. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Apperly, regent of the local chapter. Mrs. F. J. Keating, state president, presided. The board consists of the regent of each local chapter in the state and chairmen of the state committees, making a board of 20 members.

BUYER APPOINTED BY 'MOVIE' HOUSES

Exhibitors Announce Purpose to Stabilize Market.

PROFIT SAID NOT SOUGHT

Wish Declared to Protect Small Producers and Get Pictures at Reasonable Prices.

With the announced purpose of preventing profiteering in film rentals and stabilizing the cinema market, exhibitors representing 183 motion-picture houses of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana met in Seattle yesterday and Tuesday and voted to let their own motion picture owners do all the buying for them. Exhibitors at the meeting, called by Jensen & Von Herberg, formed the Independent Booking company. Officers were elected and a reception will be held in the gray parlor in Seattle, with a branch office to be opened in Portland in the near future. The company is being financed on the percentage of investment plan while the entire business policy is not known, the share of one Portland theater alone will be over $11,000.

HOOD MEN ELIMINATED

By the new organization road men who have sold the films to individual exhibitors throughout the northwest will be eliminated. Exchanges will be maintained in Portland, Seattle and Butte, but it is probable their duties will henceforth be more of a distributing than selling nature.

Professionals beggars and mendicants of all types will no longer be permitted on the streets of Portland. The city council yesterday, at the request of City Commissioner Pier, withdrew the power granted the commissioner of finance to issue permits for beggars. It will therefore be impossible in future for any mendicant to secure permits without appearing before the entire city council.

BEGGING TO BE CURTAILED

Consent of City Council Required in Future for Permits.

Professional beggars and mendicants of all types will no longer be permitted on the streets of Portland. The city council yesterday, at the request of City Commissioner Pier, withdrew the power granted the commissioner of finance to issue permits for beggars. It will therefore be impossible in future for any mendicant to secure permits without appearing before the entire city council.

Young Woman Forest Lookout.

REDDING, Cal., June 30.—(Special.) The forest service lookout at the summit of the mountain in Trinity county, known as Hatford Baldy, is Miss Elsie Luckie, a young woman of that section. Miss Luckie lives alone at the summit, 15 miles from the nearest ranch house and 5000 feet above sea level.

Urish Conrood Crushed to Death.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Urish Conrood of Birdie Bree was crushed to death by a log at Kesterson's mill, near the California line, Monday. He leaves a widow and infant son. Burial will be at Yreka, Cal.

Burglar Suspect Captured.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Sheriff Thomas F. Johnson left tonight for Spokane to return W. G. Schoene here to face the charge of burglarizing the store of M. Yasul & Co., Japanese merchants, Sunday night. Schoene, according to a telephone message from Spokane authorities, was apprehended while trying to dispose of loot consisting of jewelry and cutlery. A partner, believed to have been an accomplice in the theft, made his escape.

Centralia Decorates for Elks.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—The business section of Centralia was decorated today for the three days' celebration to be held July 3, 4 and 5 under the auspices of the Elks. Hundreds of American flags compose the decorations.

Centralia Decorates for Elks.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—The business section of Centralia was decorated today for the three days' celebration to be held July 3, 4 and 5 under the auspices of the Elks. Hundreds of American flags compose the decorations.

MOTHER REGAINS CHILD

Two-Year-Old Son, Kidnaped by Father, Located in Portland.

TACOMA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—Little Elmer Brewington, aged 2, is again with his mother, and his father has promised to go to work immediately and pay $50 a month toward the support of his two children, with the understanding that he is to see them at reasonable times. Brewington was charged with abducting his child, but finally confessed he had left the lad in the care of a Portland family. With detectives he went there and found him.

BERDEN WORKS FOR DESTROYER.

BERDEN, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—In an effort to enlist a crew for a special destroyer, which will be stationed permanently at Grays Harbor, if efforts now being made are successful, a naval reserve recruiting station will be established here during the three days of the Grays Harbor splash, July 2, 4 and 5. A 1500-ton destroyer of the latest type will be allotted to this district if a crew of between 50 and 80 men and four to eight officers can be obtained by July 30 to man the vessel.

It has been estimated that 55,720 pairs of old shoes are needed for every mile of a road composition made of slag, rock, asphalt and scrap leather that has been patented in Great Britain.

PAPERS REFUSED GERMAN APPLICANT FOR CITIZENSHIP LECTURED BY COURT.

Exemption From Military Service Claimed Because of Being Alien Enemy.

HOUSE MEMBERS COMING

Committee on Appropriations to Gather Information.

Members of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives will be in Portland July 11 or 12, and will be met near Multnomah falls by a delegation from the chamber of commerce. In the party are: James W. Good, J. R. Haysman, William Wood, Indiana; Louis C. Cramton, Michigan; Milton W. Shreve, Pennsylvania; Joseph W. Byrnes, Tennessee; John M. Evans, Montana; John J. Egan, New Jersey; James A. Gallivan, Massachusetts.

Consent of City Council Required in Future for Permits.

Professional beggars and mendicants of all types will no longer be permitted on the streets of Portland. The city council yesterday, at the request of City Commissioner Pier, withdrew the power granted the commissioner of finance to issue permits for beggars. It will therefore be impossible in future for any mendicant to secure permits without appearing before the entire city council.

Young Woman Forest Lookout.

REDDING, Cal., June 30.—(Special.) The forest service lookout at the summit of the mountain in Trinity county, known as Hatford Baldy, is Miss Elsie Luckie, a young woman of that section. Miss Luckie lives alone at the summit, 15 miles from the nearest ranch house and 5000 feet above sea level.

Urish Conrood Crushed to Death.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Urish Conrood of Birdie Bree was crushed to death by a log at Kesterson's mill, near the California line, Monday. He leaves a widow and infant son. Burial will be at Yreka, Cal.

Burglar Suspect Captured.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Sheriff Thomas F. Johnson left tonight for Spokane to return W. G. Schoene here to face the charge of burglarizing the store of M. Yasul & Co., Japanese merchants, Sunday night. Schoene, according to a telephone message from Spokane authorities, was apprehended while trying to dispose of loot consisting of jewelry and cutlery. A partner, believed to have been an accomplice in the theft, made his escape.

Centralia Decorates for Elks.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—The business section of Centralia was decorated today for the three days' celebration to be held July 3, 4 and 5 under the auspices of the Elks. Hundreds of American flags compose the decorations.

MOTHER REGAINS CHILD

Two-Year-Old Son, Kidnaped by Father, Located in Portland.

TACOMA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—Little Elmer Brewington, aged 2, is again with his mother, and his father has promised to go to work immediately and pay $50 a month toward the support of his two children, with the understanding that he is to see them at reasonable times. Brewington was charged with abducting his child, but finally confessed he had left the lad in the care of a Portland family. With detectives he went there and found him.

BERDEN WORKS FOR DESTROYER.

BERDEN, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—In an effort to enlist a crew for a special destroyer, which will be stationed permanently at Grays Harbor, if efforts now being made are successful, a naval reserve recruiting station will be established here during the three days of the Grays Harbor splash, July 2, 4 and 5. A 1500-ton destroyer of the latest type will be allotted to this district if a crew of between 50 and 80 men and four to eight officers can be obtained by July 30 to man the vessel.

With Sugar "Sky-High"

Cook and Preserve with

Crimson Rambler Mellowar Syrup

—the one satisfactory and economical substitute for sugar. Gives required sweetness with no foreign flavor; insures your preserves against "candy-ing."

Use Mellowar for every meal —as a spread or in the cooking. So many places it can be used to save sugar— —you'll be surprised!

Get the Crimson Recipe Cabinet by sending us a Crimson Rambler Syrup label and 10c.

CONNER & CO. Portland, Ore.

tonight for Spokane to return W. G. Schoene here to face the charge of burglarizing the store of M. Yasul & Co., Japanese merchants, Sunday night. Schoene, according to a telephone message from Spokane authorities, was apprehended while trying to dispose of loot consisting of jewelry and cutlery. A partner, believed to have been an accomplice in the theft, made his escape.

It has been estimated that 55,720 pairs of old shoes are needed for every mile of a road composition made of slag, rock, asphalt and scrap leather that has been patented in Great Britain.

Advertisement for Zerolene oil, featuring a can of Zerolene Medium oil and the text 'The oil for your car' and 'The Standard Oil For Motor Cars'.

Just say Hires

if you want the genuine - in bottles for the home at soda fountains and on draught

VICTOR HEINZE of Chicago

Known as "The Leschetizky of America" This reception will be held in the gray parlors of the Multnomah hotel

Friday, July 2, at 4 P. M. At this reception Mr. Heinze will deliver a lecture on "Artistic Piano Playing and True Efficiency in Piano Teaching." Mr. Heinze will conduct classes and give private instruction in Portland during the summer. Any persons interested kindly call Mrs. S. T. Edward, Wd. 2305, or L. Carroll Day, Bdwy. 2555, 148 Thirteenth St.