

11 MEASURES WILL APPEAR ON BALLOT

Several Tentative Bills Not Filed as Time Expires.

ASSIGNMENTS ARE MADE

Compulsory Voting Amendment Is First and Regulating Legislative Sessions Is Second.

SALEM, Or., July 1.—(Special.)—When the voters of Oregon go to the polls at the general election in November they will be confronted with two amendments referred by the legislative assembly, one by referendum ordered by petition of the people and eight proposals referred to the legislative assembly.

The so-called compulsory voting and registration amendment will appear first on the ballot. This amendment gives the legislative authority to enforce compulsory registration and voting by qualified electors and provides for mailing ballots by persons who are ill or absent from their voting precinct on election day.

Second on the ballot will be the constitutional amendment relating to legislative sessions and the payment of legislators. This amendment lengthens the legislative session from 40 to 60 days and places restrictions on the introduction of bills during the last 10 days. It also provides for an increase of the legislative day from $3 to $5 a day and mileage at the rate of 15 cents instead of 10 cents.

Oleomargarine Bill Third.—The oleomargarine bill, referred by the Associated Industries of Oregon, provides for the regulation and license of the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, butterine, renovated butter, process butter or any other substitute, and fixes the license fee to be paid by the manufacturer, wholesale dealers and proprietors of restaurants, dining rooms and boarding houses using these products. This bill will have third place on the ballot.

The single-tax amendment, which will appear fourth, was initiated by the Oregon Single Tax league, of which Harry A. Rice of Portland is president. This amendment proposes a partial single tax in 1925 and from that date the full appropriation by the state of all the annual rental value of land whether it is needed or not.

All other forms of taxation are abolished after 1925.

The so-called county office terms bill provides for the election of a county clerk, treasurer, sheriff, coroner and surveyor, who shall severally hold their offices for four years instead of two as at the present time. This bill was initiated by Herbert R. Dewart of Portland and if approved will become effective on the first Monday of January, 1922. This bill is fifth.

Port Power Sought.—The Port of Portland dock commission consolidation bill, initiated by the committee of 15, empowers the Port of Portland to purchase from the city of Portland properties under control of the dock commission, acquire additional lands necessary for commercial and shipping interests and for depositing materials removed from waterways, dispose of lands reclaimed, construction of canals to connect waterways, buy other wharfing facilities including terminals, operate lines of transportation necessary to promote water commerce and issue bonds, not including obligations assumed in the purchase of properties from the city, up to 3 per cent of assessed valuation and enlarging the port commission in event of purchase of properties from the city of Portland, and preserving powers now vested in the port. This bill has sixth place.

Another bill, initiated by the school protective league of Portland, provides for the mandatory vaccination and repeals all laws and ordinances requiring vaccination as a condition of school attendance or employment. This will be seventh on the ballot.

Interest Bill Filed.—The so-called legal rate interest amendment was initiated by the Albright of Oregon City, and limits interest to 4 per cent on open account and 5 per cent on contract. This measure has eighth place.

Another measure, which will be in ninth place, provides for ceding Madras lake to the federal government to be known as the Roosevelt Bird Refuge. This bill was initiated by the Roosevelt Bird Refuge association of Portland, of which John Gill is president.

In tenth place will be the bill which if passed will provide for divided legislative sessions.

There is also a local measure on the ballot, known as the county herd law. This measure provides against livestock running at large on the Umatilla reservation. Only the voters of Umatilla county will vote on this measure.

Proposed laws and amendments for which the required petitions had not been filed with the secretary of state at 3 o'clock this afternoon included the minimum wage bill, county fish and game control, measure, sealing traps and wheels, and the measure providing for the abolishment of cigarettes.

GRESHAM PROMISES FUN

MUCH VARIETY PROVIDED FOR CELEBRATION MONDAY.

Patriotism, Politics, Pyrotechnics and Pipers Will Combine to Furnish Entertainment.

GRESHAM, Or., July 1.—(Special.)

The city of Gresham promises to give a big party to celebrate the centennial of the birth of William McKinley on Monday. The tug-of-war, with Judge John Brown pulling for Harding and Colonel Kerr extending himself for the nominee of the San Francisco convention, will find a lusty line of tuggers on each end of the rope.

Scotch bagpipers from Portland will dance and play, in addition to the military band.

The business houses and local clubs are entering floats for the morning parade; and the grove on the county grounds is being made ready for the noonday community picnic, following the patriotic addresses by Mayor Kenney of Gresham and Judge Jacob Kanzier of Portland.

It is expected that the horse races in the afternoon will attract a large crowd. Athletic events will be held on the race track between heats. Airplane exhibition flights and air stunts will follow the races, with a band concert and dancing in the evening.

The women's auxiliary of the American Legion will operate a lunch counter for the convenience of out-of-town visitors.

At the big street carnival and auction of votes Saturday night, Miss Opal Phillips, the candidate of the Republican party for treasurer of the county, was declared the winner of the Goddess of Liberty contest, after much spirited balloting by the backers of Miss Vivien Lovelace, the choice of the Gresham Red Cross auxiliary. The other candidates were the Misses Lavene Maulding, Winifred St. Clair and Gertrude Brugger.

Don't Jazz Your Stomach—Drink Schlitz

IN the mad rush to produce new beverages at a rapid pace, many breweries are turning out "two-day" drinks—made in literally a trifle over twenty-four hours.

These beverages are not aged properly. They will ferment in your stomach—cause biliousness and interfere with all the foods they meet. Don't jazz your stomach—insist upon thoroughly aged Schlitz.

Schlitz undergoes a complete fermentation—lasting from eight to twelve days. Then it is aged in tanks of enameled glass until it is thoroughly matured.

Schlitz is a fully fermented drink, with the alcoholic content afterward reduced to the limit prescribed by the Federal Government, but with none of that delicious aroma and flavor, produced by fermentation, removed.

It cannot ferment in your stomach. It will not cause acidity nor flatulence. It will not make you bilious. Schlitz is delicious, sparkling, healthful and satisfying. Try it at dinner tonight.

On sale wherever drinks are sold. Or, order a case for your home from

Ninety Per Cent of Sickness Could Be Warded Off by Using Bark Root Tonic

Writes MR. JOHN BRICKSON, 326 Fourteenth Street, Portland, Oregon.

In the winter of 1918-19 I, among many others, was taken down with a severe case of influenza, and for many days lingered between life and death. Being fortunate, however, (thanks to an attentive and hard-working doctor) I regained my health after about seven weeks so that I was able to attend to business. My weight, which had been 160 pounds for about fifteen years, was reduced by the sickness to 129 pounds and gradually came up to 148 pounds as I improved in health. You see this was 12 pounds below normal, and no matter what I did the missing pounds could not be regained.

After about a year, by chance I became acquainted with your salesman, who suggested to me the use of BARK ROOT TONIC. I gave it a trial, and greatly to my satisfaction the scales showed my improvement in weight, and I began to feel like my old self again. I now weigh 158 pounds, just two pounds below normal, feeling better than two years ago. I no longer have to listen to my many friends telling me how badly I look, I've a good color and a clear eye.

I highly recommend BARK ROOT TONIC as a body cleanser, blood purifier and a builder, and fully believe that its use would head off 90 per cent of the ills of life.

TELLS HOW TO BEAUTIFY HAIR

Has Devoted Over Forty Years of Study to Hair and Scalp Troubles.

Prof. John H. Austin, bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist of Chicago, who now has his office at the Owl Drug Co., says that it is really remarkable that so few men and women nowadays possess an abundance of beautiful, healthy hair. Prof. Austin is probably right in saying that so little is generally known about the hair and scalp that when a little trouble actually arises the person afflicted turns to anything recommended by anybody, and usually the results are disastrous.

Science has proved that different ailments of the hair and scalp require different treatments. The particular trouble with which your hair or scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated.

Guesswork is of no practical value concerning hair troubles. Prof. Austin has had that only a powerful microscope can determine the exact trouble with which the hair or scalp is afflicted.

Prof. Austin says that the use of mange cures, dandruff cures, hair tonics, vasoline and oils is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.
