

FAVORITE AND FIELD—McADOO AND TWELVE OTHER ASPIRANTS FOR PRESIDENT IN NOMINATION AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

DRAFT OF PLATFORM ADMITS PROHIBITION

Report to Be Submitted to Convention Today.

BRYAN TO WAGE FIGHT

Bone Dry Plank to Be Demanded on Floor—Other Planks Also Will Be Offered.

(Continued From First Page.) A conference with Senator Glass of the resolutions committee and it was finally announced that there was little prospect of the committee being ready to make its report before morning.

After a lengthy discussion from a record-breaking crowd which called for "Bryan, Bryan, Bryan," and "we want to hear Bryan," the convention adjourned until this morning.

Prospect of a convention floor fight on the league of nations diminished when it became known that some of the administration supporters were willing to accept without further opposition the reservations provided written into the league plank by the resolutions committee.

This provision proposed by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts and endorsed by the committee, declares the party does not oppose ratification of the league which may be deemed necessary to clarify the nation's obligations to the world.

Bryan Attitude Not Known. None of the administration spokesmen on the ground would make a public statement of their views, but it was learned they were inclined to regard the modified language of the plank as acceptable.

Whether W. J. Bryan would be satisfied to let the committee's decision stand without a floor fight was not revealed. He has advocated a declaration for immediate ratification with compromise reservations but in the committee last night he voted for the Walsh amendment, with the explanation that while it did not entirely cover his views it would be an improvement on the sub-committee draft.

The league of nations plank was adopted by the democratic platform committee early yesterday. A long, bitter fight followed between reform workers that the committee recessed until 10 o'clock.

The suffrage plank, as approved by the platform committee, is understood to follow the lines of that framed in the sub-committee, calling on the democratic governors and legislatures of Tennessee, North Carolina and Florida to complete ratification of the suffrage amendment in time to permit the woman to vote next November.

The committee adopted the labor and several other planks. As submitted to the committee, the administration treaty plank, according to authoritative statements, provided:

"We recommend ratification of the treaty of Versailles and the league of nations covenant without reservations which would impair its essential integrity."

The words added by Senator Walsh's amendment were:

"But we do not oppose reservations which make no clear specific our obligations to the social nations."

The substitute planks of Mr. Bryan and Senators Walsh, McCallister and Pomeroy of Ohio, went down to defeat. It was said, with but from 12 to 15 votes each.

Minority Report Likely. Chairman Carter Glass and other members refused to give out any information concerning the minority report to the committee, but it was indicated that, disatisfied with the treaty plank approved by a minority report for appeal to the convention was under consideration.

The labor plank adopted declared against compulsory arbitration and advocated that some peaceable way be found to settle industrial disputes.

The committee also put its approval on a declaration for legislation which would permit collective bargaining by farmers.

As reported by the subcommittee, the league of nations plank followed closely that adopted by the Virginia democrats. Senator Walsh of Montana submitted a minority report and the fight against the committee proposal, which had the backing of President Wilson.

Compromise Field Necessary. In the debate, which looked a flood of bitter feeling, Senator Walsh was seconded by Mr. Bryan, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts and Senator Pomeroy of Ohio, while the battle for the administration was led by Senator Glass of Virginia.

Senator Walsh's minority report provided for a plank pledging the nominee to the constitution and democratic senators to make such expressions as might be necessary to obtain ratification of the treaty. All of those who supported it told the committee bluntly that hope of ratification without modification might as well be abandoned and that the wise course was that of a compromise.

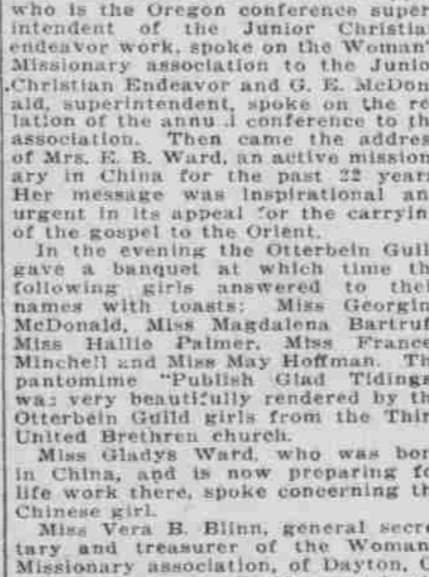

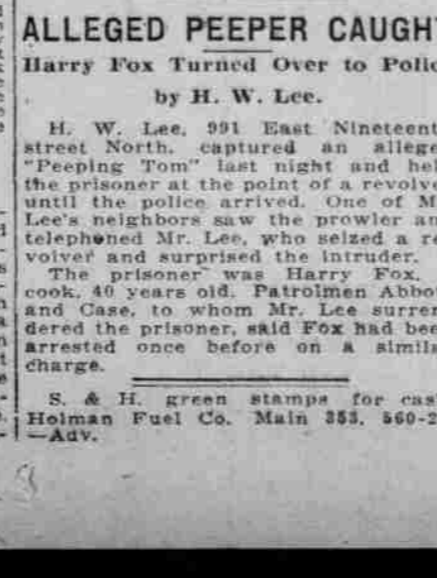

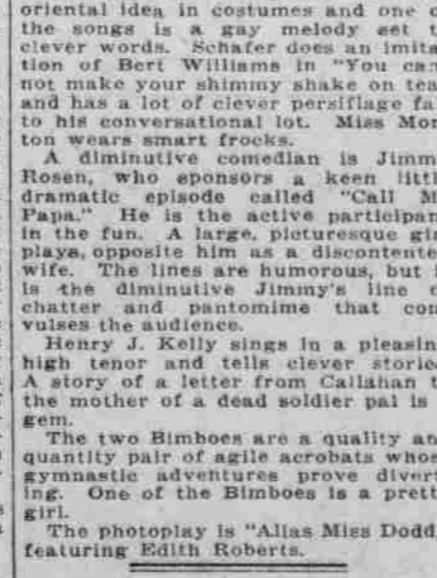

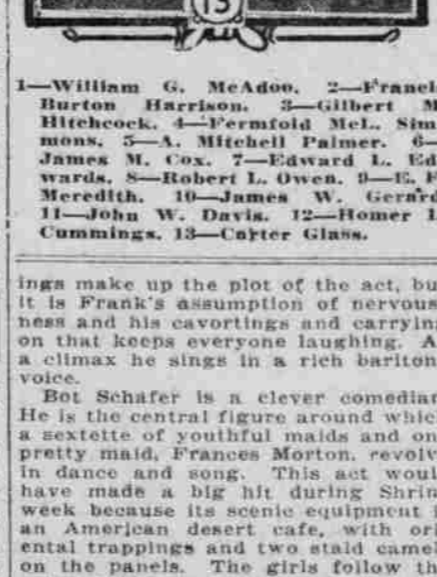

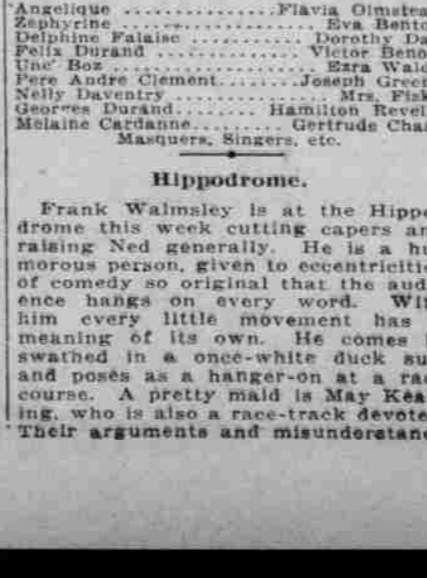

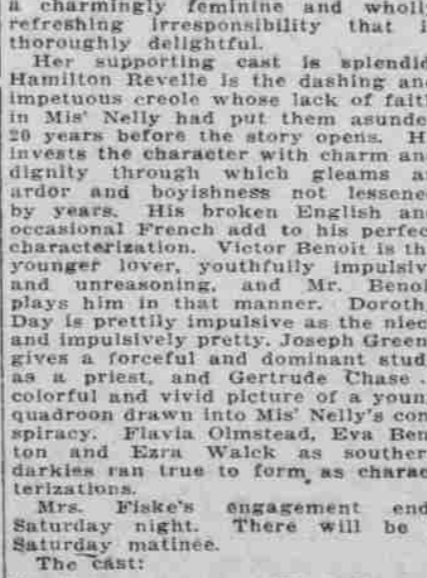

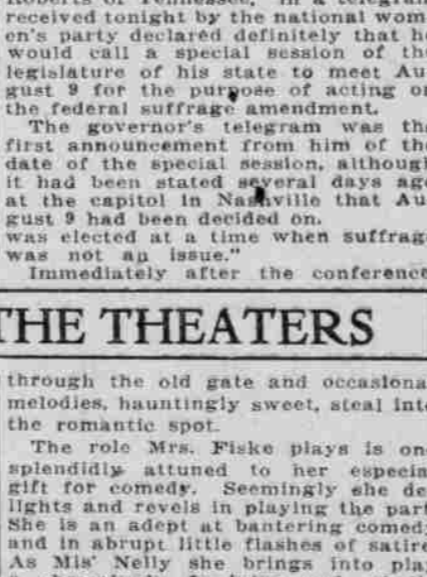

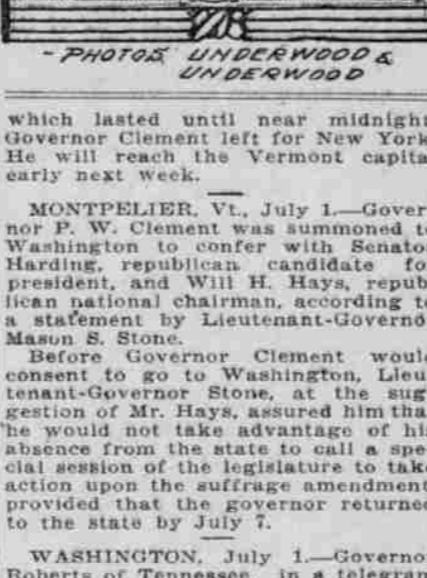

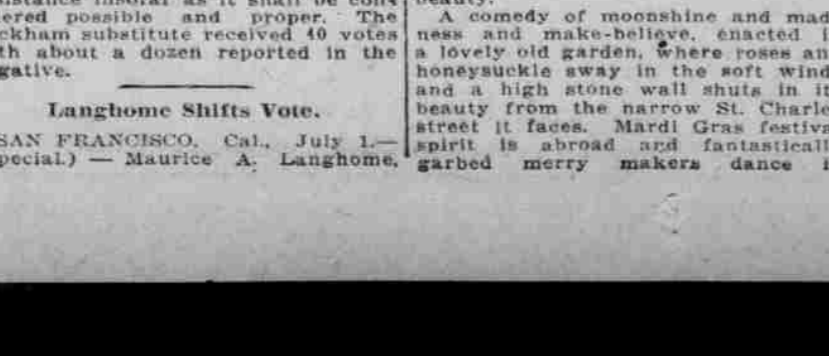

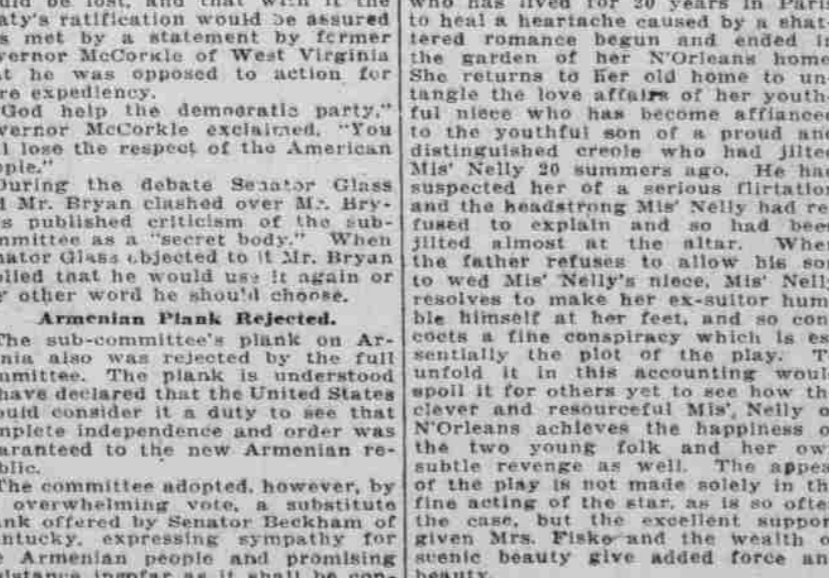

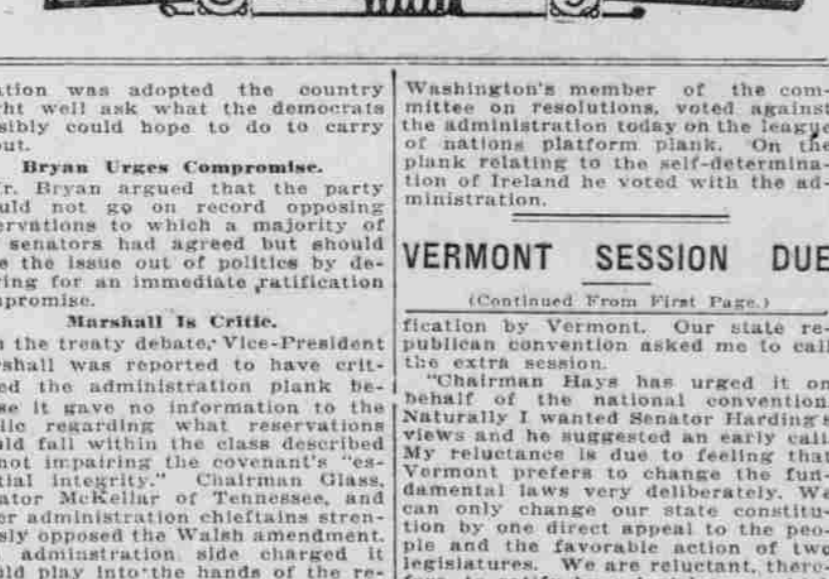

Mr. Bryan and several others wanted modifications of the wording of the league plank and as the discussion raged throughout the night the hopes of members that a declaration could be kept off the convention floor diminished.

Irish Principle Reiterated. On the prohibition issue the subcommittee made no recommendation and a big crisis of proposed wet and dry proposals was offered, with Mr. Bryan leading the drys in a determined crusade to keep the party from making a wet declaration or remaining silent on the prohibition issue.

The Irish plank submitted by the subcommittee reiterated in general terms President Wilson's principle of self-determination, expressed sympathy for the aspirations of the Irish people and suggested that the Irish problem could legitimately be brought later before the league of nations.

That is unusual for the committee members who are making a fight for a plank pledging the party to recognize the Irish Republic.

In his fight against the administration's league of nations plank, Senator Walsh declared that although he had been for the treaty without reservations, a year of effort had demonstrated that such a ratification was impossible. In the coming campaign, he asserted, the democrats could not hope to gain enough senators to make up the necessary two-thirds and if the administration de-which lasted until near midnight, Governor Clement left for New York. He will reach the Vermont capital early next week.

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 1.—Governor P. W. Clement was summoned to Washington to confer with Senator Harding, republican candidate for president, and Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, according to a statement by Lieutenant-Governor Mason S. Stone.

Before Governor Clement would consent to go to Washington, Lieutenant-Governor Stone, at the suggestion of Mr. Hays, assured him that he would not take advantage of his absence from the state to call a special session of the legislature to take action upon the suffrage amendment, provided that the governor returned to the state by July 7.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Governor Roberts of Tennessee, in a telegram received tonight by the national women's party declared definitely that he would call a special session of the legislature of his state to meet August 9 for the purpose of acting on behalf of the national convention.

Naturally I wanted Senator Harding's views and he suggested an early call. My reluctance is due to feeling that Vermont prefers to change the fundamental laws very deliberately. We can only chance our state constitution by one direct appeal to the people and the favorable action of two legislatures. We are reluctant, therefore, to ratify by a legislature which

NEW BILLS AT THE THEATERS

Heilig. BY LEO CASS BAER. MIS' NELLY OF NOBLEANS brings Mrs. Fiske back to the stage in the first good play she has brought us since "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" of some ten seasons ago.

The role Mrs. Fiske plays is one splendidly attuned to her special gift for comedy. Seemingly she delights and revels in playing the part. She is an adept at bantering comedy and in a way which she pictures as Mrs. Nelly and the charming picture she made in the dress of her 1856 romance helped her to a very real triumph last night.

Her supporting cast is splendid. Hamilton Revelle is the dashing and impetuous creole whose lack of faith in his conversational lot, Miss Moran wears smart frocks.

The play she brings in from the play shop of Laurence Eyre, who has an understanding of the values of sentiment in comedy-drama. One might even say he has an appreciation of the values of sentimental episodes. It is the delightful accounting of a southern belle of other days, who has lived for 30 years in Paris in her old home, and she returns to her old home to untangle the love affairs of her youthful niece who has become affianced to the youthful son of a proud and distinguished creole who had killed his father 20 summers ago.

He had suspected her of a serious flirtation and the headstrong Miss Nelly had refused to explain and so had been jilted almost at the altar. When the father refuses to allow his son to wed Miss Nelly's niece, Miss Nelly resolves to make her ex-suitors humiliate themselves and her own. She conceals a fine conspiracy which is essentially the plot of the play. To have declared that the United States should consider it a duty to see that complete independence and order was guaranteed to the new Armenian republic.

The committee adopted, however, by an overwhelming vote, a substitute plank offered by Senator Beckham of Kentucky, expressing sympathy for the Armenian people and promising assistance insofar as it shall be considered possible and proper. The Beetham substitute received 40 votes with about a dozen reported in the negative.

MISSION WORK REVIEWED

WOMEN IN OREGON LEAGUE RECIPIENTS OF MESSAGES.

Girls of Otterbein Guild Give Banquet in Evening to Further their Interests.

The final sessions of the Woman's Missionary association of the Oregon branch were held yesterday by the First United Brethren church, Fifteenth and East Morrison streets. The morning session was given over almost entirely to reports.

In the afternoon Mrs. Charles Oppel, who is the Oregon conference superintendent of the Junior Christian Endeavor and G. E. McDonald, superintendent, spoke on the relation of the annual conference to the association. Then came the address of Mrs. E. B. Ward, an active missionary in China for the past 22 years. Her message was inspirational and urgent in its appeal for the carrying of the gospel to the Orient.

In the evening the Otterbein Guild gave a banquet at which time the following girls answered to their names with loads: Miss Georgina McDonald, Miss Magdalena Bartruff, Miss Hallie Palmer, Miss Frances Minchell and Miss May Hoffman. The pantomime "Publish Glad Tidings" was very beautifully rendered by the Otterbein Guild girls from the Third United Brethren church.

Miss Gladys Ward, who was born in China, and is now preparing for life work there, spoke concerning the Chinese girl.

Miss Vera B. Blinn, general secretary and treasurer of the Woman's Missionary association, of Dayton, O., who is touring the Pacific coast in the interest of missions, gave an address.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Mrs. E. O. Shepherd, president; Mrs. G. K. Hartman, first vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Henkle, second vice-president; Mrs. E. K. Bartmes, treasurer; Mrs. G. E. McDonald, secretary; Mrs. Morris Goodrich, secretary of literature; Mrs. Albert Fuessman, secretary of thank offering; Miss Emma Fisher, secretary.

The photoplay is "Allas Miss Dodd," featuring Edith Roberts.

ALLEGED PEEPER CAUGHT

Harry Fox Turned Over to Police by H. W. Lee.

H. W. Lee, 991 East Nineteenth street North, captured an alleged "peeper" last night and held the prisoner at the point of a revolver until the police arrived. One of Mr. Lee's neighbors saw the prowler and telephoned Mr. Lee, who seized a revolver and surprised the intruder.

The prisoner was Harry Fox, a cook, 40 years old. Patrolmen Abbott and Case, to whom Mr. Lee surrendered the prisoner, said Fox had been arrested once before on a similar charge.
