

Morning Oregonian

VOL. LIX—NO. 18,601

Entered at Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

PORTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1920

PRICE FIVE CENTS

ROOSEVELT WINS PLACE WITH COX

Democracy Makes Choice for Vice-President

TAMMANY IS OVERRULED

Name Goes Over in Band Wagon Style—Others Fall by Wayside.

CONVENTION WORK IS OVER

Tumultuous Sessions End With Adoption of Formal Resolutions.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice-president today by the democratic national convention and became the running mate of Governor Cox of Ohio, the democracy's choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with the shouts of the vote of acclamation by which Roosevelt was nominated without a ballot.

Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him, Roosevelt's name went over with a band wagon movement during which all other candidates were withdrawn.

Lewis' Name Withdrawn.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Dunne; Governor Stewart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward L. Doherty of California, and former Governor Hawley of Idaho, were withdrawn; and Major-General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee announced that he would not be a contender, as did David R. Francis of Missouri. Nomination of W. T. Vaughn of Oregon, who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, who was considered as a candidate and refused to allow his name to be used, finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted." Finally the Tammany crowd decided to accept Roosevelt, who brought to the ticket the participation of an administration man, and Mr. Colby's name was not considered further.

Farmer Makes Nomination. Mr. Roosevelt was placed in nomination by Timothy L. Ansberry, a farmer representative from Ohio, who sat as a Cox delegate in the District of Columbia delegation. Seconds sprang from all parts of the convention hall and although Roosevelt was not formally nominated until well after the business of nominations was taken up, there was never any doubt about it and never at any time was there any opposition. The seconding of his nomination by Governor Smith of New York, from the Tammany delegation, clinched it.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination and Chairman Cummings of the democratic national committee, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

Choice Left to Convention.

After its tumultuous session of 44 ballots, the convention reassembled at noon to finish its work. There was at first a delay, utilized by the Cox managers to hear from the governor about his wishes on the vice-presidential nomination. E. H. Moore of Youngstown, O., who managed the governor's fight, let it be known that Cox was willing to leave the selection of his running mate to the convention. With that the forces easily and quickly coalesced and after Roosevelt's nomination applauded an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Josephus Daniels.

During the closing moments of the convention the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted with a resounding approval.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The population of Pendleton, Or., will be announced at 10:30 A. M. tomorrow.

BRYAN CHANTS DIRGE FOR SELF AND PARTY

Peerless One Says Heart in Grave With Cause.

Commoner Is Silent on Work of Convention With One Exception—That Leaky Plank.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—"My heart is in the grave with our cause, and I must pause until it comes back to me," said William J. Bryan today in giving his reason for not making any extended statement on the work of the democratic national convention.

"My views on the convention's action in reference to the endorsement of prohibition are known," said Mr. Bryan. "I regard it as a very serious mistake—it opened the door to the nomination of a wet candidate. I need not repeat here what I have said before in regard to the evasion of other issues."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

"I do not care to say anything about the nomination plans, but the question suggests a subject which the public cannot overlook, namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitting beverages or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

300 "DRY" VOTES PUT COX ACROSS

Anti-Wet Wing Breaks to Humiliate McAdoo.

HINTS TO PULL OUT IGNORED

Palmer Signals Failure of Efforts at Combine.

STAMPEDE GETS STARTED

Delegates Then Roll Son-in-Law Out on Floor and Begin Drubbing of Wilsonites.

NEGROES DIE AT STAKE

PARIS, Tex., July 6.—Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, aged 19 and 23 years, brothers, who last Friday shot and killed their landlord, J. H. Hodges, and his son, William, on the latter's place northeast of Paris, Tex., were burned by a mob here tonight.

The negroes were arrested early last night at Valliant, Okla., by officers and a posse from Paris and were brought here and put in jail this afternoon.

IDABEL, Okla., July 6.—J. W. Dewitt, sheriff of McCurtain county, Oklahoma, tonight quoted Sheriff C. D. Clarkson of Paris, Tex., as declaring one of the two negroes burned in Paris tonight was "not the right one" and that he was doubtful whether the "other was the right party."

The Paris sheriff went on into Arkansas tonight on the trail of the two negroes, he believes killed the Texas farmer and his son.

HUNT BEGUN FOR SAILOR

Man Who Tried to Reach Golden Gate in Open Boat Missing.

VALLEJO, Cal., July 6.—Mrs. Anna Torstensen of Bremerton, Wash., today appealed to naval officers of this district to aid in the search for her husband, Helgar Torstensen, who sailed from Bremerton for San Francisco, June 2, in a 22-foot open boat. Wireless messages were sent to every light house on the coast between this port and Bremerton asking that a lookout for Torstensen be kept.

Torstensen was picked up June 17 by a life-saving station at Aberdeen, Wash. His boat was taking water and making a losing fight against heavy seas, but he was making repairs. Torstensen again set out for the golden gate.

DEATH BEATS AIR RACE

Judge F. V. Brown Dies Before Wife Can Reach Bedside.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 6.—Judge F. V. Brown, western lawyer, of the Great Northern railroad and prominent attorney of Seattle, died suddenly here this afternoon after his wife and daughter had flown from Seattle. Victoria in an airplane to be at his bedside.

Judge Brown had been ill for several months, following an operation. He formerly lived in Minneapolis, Minn., where he served as a state judge for a number of years. He was 58 years old.

VILLA SIGNS ARMISTICE

General Reported Ready to Surrender on Condition.

EL PASO, Tex., July 6.—A dispatch to the El Paso Times from its correspondent in Torreón, Mexico, says Francisco Villa has signed an armistice and agreed to cease attacks on trains, garrisons or towns.

Villa has also agreed to surrender under certain conditions to be approved by Provisional President de la Huerta. The armistice was negotiated by Elias L. Torres, who left El Paso two weeks ago for Villa's camp in the mountains near Saucillo.

MERCURY IS AT 89, SETTING 1920 RECORD

MAY 7 AND JUNE 3 AT 87 AND YEAR AGO LEVEL ARE PASSED.

New High Mark Is Likely as July 14 in 1919, Hottest Day in Month, Registered 100.

Portlanders, young and old, alighted for another day of vacation yesterday as the thermometer climbed steadily up to 89, making yesterday the hottest day this year. Two days in succession of holiday life at the beaches and in the mountains under ideal conditions have not fitted good citizens for the hottest day of all, and they longed for more cool breezes, as the temperature rose from 75 at noon to 89 at 5 o'clock.

The only two days this season approaching yesterday's high mark were May 7 and June 3 with 87 degrees. Yesterday was also several degrees warmer than July 6 a year ago, but judging by last year's report, more warmth may be in sight, for July 14 of 1919 saw the maximum at the 100 mark. Fair and continued warmer, tomorrow's prediction, gives little hope of an early relief.

FIRECRACKERS FIRE HOME

Youth Is Arrested on Complaint of Assistant Marshal.

Fire started by firecrackers shot by boys at 12:30 yesterday afternoon did about $300 damage to the building and $50 damage to the contents of the residence at 187 Twelfth street, occupied by E. Cross. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Eugene Simpson, 18, was arrested and charged with shooting firecrackers inside the city limits. The complaint was made by Captain Roberts, assistant fire marshal. According to Captain Roberts, near-by residents warned Simpson against shooting the firecrackers, but he persisted.

The boy will have a hearing in the municipal court today.

BRYAN ENGAGEMENT OFF

Commoner Unable to Deliver Scheduled Address Here.

William Jennings Bryan will not fill his speaking engagement in Portland, as planned. The Commoner was scheduled to speak at the Auditorium early this week, but the deadlock at the San Francisco convention interfered with all plans.

According to word received yesterday by Hal M. White, manager of the Auditorium, Bryan will reach Portland tomorrow morning, but will be forced to leave before night in order to reach Eastern Oregon in time to begin a Chautauqua tour.

GERMANS GET PROPERTY

Seized Holdings Worth $150,000, 500 to Be Restored to Owners.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The amendment to the trading with the enemy act passed by the recent session of congress authorizes the return of $150,000,000 of enemy property, according to estimates of the alien property custodian's office.

There will remain more than $250,000,000 of seized property in the hands of this office.

ASYLUM INMATE WINS ACTION FOR MILLIONS

Prospector Charges Fraud in Declaring Him Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO U. S. Circuit Court Restores Alaska Holdings and Orders Accounting for Ore.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—After he had been confined in an insane asylum as the result of an alleged conspiracy to defraud him of mining claims valued at more than $500,000 on Chicagogoff Island, Alaska, John Tuppala, a prospector, was restored to the possession of his holdings by the United States circuit court here today.

He was also given an accounting judgment for the amount of ore taken out of his claims by the defendant, the Chicagogoff Mining corporation, which would bring his judgment into the millions of dollars.

Tuppala and the Chicagogoff company held four claims in which each had a half interest. Following his incarceration in an asylum at Sitka, he charged that he was defrauded of his holdings through their fictitious sale to the Chicagogoff company, which he also accused of illegally placing him in the asylum.

FIRMS ALONE INDICTED

Hearing of California Profiteering Cases Continued.

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—The indictments alleging profiteering in violation of the Lever act, returned by a federal grand jury here June 24 against the Globe Oil mills and the Gores-Hartman Gins, Imperial valley concerns, were scheduled to come up on demurrer today before Judge B. F. Bledsoe in the United States district court, but were continued until July 12.

These indictments were against the companies only and not against the officers of either, as previously erroneously announced. The officers of the Globe Oil mills, W. E. Keller, president; A. H. Morgan, vice-president, and A. D. Buckley, secretary and treasurer, were not indicted. Neither were W. J. Hartman, president, and Robert G. Gores, secretary-treasurer of the Gores-Hartman gins.

NON-PARTISAN HAS LEAD

Senator Gronna Still Behind Ladd in North Dakota Race.

FARGO, N. D., July 6.—Dr. E. F. Ladd of Fargo tonight still had a slight lead over United States Senator A. J. Gronna for the republican nomination for United States senator. Returns from 173 precincts out of 264 in the state from last Wednesday's primary gave Ladd, non-partisan league candidate, 46,329 and Gronna 45,715.

League officials declare Dr. Ladd will have a majority of 3000.

With less than 100 precincts in the state missing, Governor Lynn J. Frazier, league candidate, in 5000 votes ahead of William Langer, independent republican, for the republican gubernatorial nomination.

WET VOTE IS MAIN STRENGTH OF COX

Some Delegates Decide on "One Best Bet."

OTHERS RESENT MANHANDLING

Browbeating Methods Hurt McAdoo's Chances.

BRYAN'S ATTITUDE FACTOR

Support Given by Many Simply Because Ohioan Was One Most Despised by Bryan.

BY CHARLES C. HART.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Correspondent for The Oregonian.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—(Special)—"Thank God, the time is coming back when we will be able to get a drink," remarked the hotel clerk as I asked for my key at 3 o'clock this morning on my return from the convention.

He was commenting on the nomination of Governor Cox as the democratic standard bearer. He actually believed that the naming of Cox meant the upsetting of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead enforcement act. The same thought undoubtedly ruled many others who enthusiastically supported the Ohio governor.

This was the keynote of the bosses' campaign for Cox, though not the moving impulse of many delegates who voted for the Ohio governor.

Wets for Cox From First.

From the first Governor Cox had the support of the wets, and all of the big bosses were wet and just as liberal on some other questions as they were on the liquor issue. Many very respectable persons joined in the nomination of Cox simply because they believed that he was the strongest candidate of the entire array before the convention.

Some voted for him because they resented the browbeating and manhandling methods of the federal machine to nominate McAdoo. Some supported him because he was the one most despised by William Jennings Bryan. The result, however, was a great big surprise, because, while more than a majority of the delegates to this convention were wet, it was not believed that a large number of them representing dry states would have the courage to vote their personal convictions against the high moral sense of the constituents.

Tammany Votes Are Helpful.

The nucleus of Cox's strength consisted of the 70 wet votes of Tammany, the 25 wet votes which originally belonged to Governor Edwards (Concluded on Page 2, Column 3.)

REPUBLICANS SEE NO DANGER FROM COX

Chieftains Undisturbed by Democratic Ticket.

Chairman Hays Refuses to Discuss Rival but Confines Self to Lauding Harding.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Republican chieftains who gathered here today to formulate plans for the coming presidential election appeared undisturbed by the democratic choice of a nominee from the home state of their candidate.

After the arrival of Chairman Hays work was begun on mapping out the campaign. A series of conferences is being arranged.

Chairman Hays refused to discuss the nomination of Governor Cox. Instead, he confined himself to laudation of the personal qualities of Senator Harding.

The first decision announced was that Senator Harding would remain in Ohio during most of the campaign. The Ohio "front porch" plan will be emphasized more than ever, it was said, while an endeavor will be made to satisfy local pride of other sections by spreading the word that the Senator "will listen to reason."

Much satisfaction was expressed in the rumor that General Wood and Senator Johnson were to follow the course set by Governor Lowden in supporting Senator Harding.

Party leaders here for conference include Elmer Dover, Washington, and Harry M. Daugherty, Harding's campaign manager before the convention.

The work to be done, Mr. Hays explained, is organization incidental to the natural development and expansion of the scope of activities of the campaign committee.

Republican leaders indicated that the league of nations issue would be in the presidential campaign, with "democratic inefficiency" a secondary issue. It was said that efforts would be made to keep prohibition problems from becoming a leading issue.

Party chieftains say Chicago will be made the principal headquarters of the campaign. Charles R. Miller, secretary of the national committee, will remain here and Will Hays is also expected to spend much time here.

In a statement today the national chairman said he was "very happy about the situation."

ELK DECLARED NUISANCE

Animals Liberated Recently Are Ruining Farmers' Crops.

SALEM, Or., July 6.—(Special)—A. R. and S. G. Meyers, who reside on the north fork of the Santiam river, about 50 miles from Salem, were here today on their way to Portland, where they will confer with the state game warden regarding a band of elk liberated recently in that section of the state.

The Meyers brothers told Governor Olcott this morning that the elk were as gentle as cattle and that all efforts to keep them off their land were fruitless. The elk are said to have destroyed a field of rye valued at several hundred dollars and now are grazing in the wheat fields of that vicinity.

At the last session of the legislature a law was passed making it a penitentiary offense to kill elk in Oregon, and they can be slaughtered only with the consent of the state game warden.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather. YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 59 degrees; wind, light and variable; rain, 0.20. TODAY'S—Fair; continued warm; north-easterly winds to 10. Domestic. Roosevelt named running mate of Cox by demarcate. Page 1. Wet vote nucleus strength nomination for Cox. Page 1. Alaska prospector, who charges fraud in declaring him insane, wins suit to regain millions. Page 1. Three hundred votes of dry delegates with nomination for Governor Cox. Page 1. Non-partisan home-building plan is failed. Page 5. Committee report to National Educational association opposes affiliation of teachers with labor unions. Page 4. Bryan says his heart is in the grave with party's cause, commenting on convention outcome. Page 2. Roosevelt's honor elates home town. Page 2. Democrats re-delivered to bourbonism, both political and alcoholic. Page 1. Choice of Cox leaves republicans undisturbed. Page 1. Pacific Northwest. Oregon supreme court holds Clackamas county bond issue invalid. Page 7. Sports. Coast league results: Portland 9, Vernon 2; Los Angeles 11, Sacramento 5; San Francisco 1; Sacramento 2; Seattle 5; Oakland 7. Page 14. Portland makes splendid showing in Vancouver tourney. Page 14. Isidore Westerman and Harry Neer win tennis titles. Page 14. Commercial and Marine. Reserve stocks of butter in United States are small. Page 20. Corn breaks at Chicago on ideal crop prospects. Page 21. Money market releases and Wall Street stocks advance. Page 20. Shipping board steamer Hayden assigned to the Columbia-Pacific shipping company. Page 15. Portland and Vicinity. Contractors' road bids are opened and contracts held up pending solution of financial trouble. Page 12. Portland's offer of $50,000 for country club site is rejected. Page 12. Federal court assesses fines for violations of prohibition act. Page 12. Oregon National Guard units strain for Camp Lewis. Page 8. Cox choice splits democratic ranks. Page 12. Mercury went to 59 yesterday, setting record for 1920. Page 12. Auditorium claims committee starts hearings. Page 8. Debate Wilcox at Portland legion session. Page 6. Mr. Dodson's views presented to shipping board. Page 6. Milk sold to condenseries in state costs Portland distributors 40 cents more, price probe revives. Page 5. Career of James M. Cox, democratic nominee, is declared to be an inspiring one.

OLD BOURBONISM IS REINSTATED

Political and Alcoholic Forces in Power

COX CHOICE HITS WILSON

Nomination Is Utter Rout for Bryan, Whose Hostility Is Open.

M'ADOO MACHINE IS BLAMED

Collapse of Campaign and Bold Plans of Old Guard Both Vital Factors.

BY EDGAR B. PIPEL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—(Editorial Correspondence).—The true explanation of the nomination of Governor Cox is that the democratic party has been re-delivered to the forces of Bourbonism. The present-day Bourbonism of the party is both political and alcoholic. I did not believe it could possibly happen. I thought better of the democratic party.

That it did happen was due as much to the utter futility of the McAdoo management and the collapse of his campaign as it was to the bold, well-laid and consistently carried out designs of the old democratic guard.

It is perfectly true today that yesterday a majority of the delegates were strongly against Cox. Many of them are sorely disappointed and chagrined at the result. Some of them do not now hesitate to predict a great party disaster.

Wilson Congratulates Nominee.

President Wilson has congratulated the candidate but his nomination was in a distinct sense a defeat for Wilson. It was brought about by his enemies.

It is at the same time a rout for Bryan. The commoner did not conceal his hostility to Cox before the nomination, and he says now that it should not have been made. He says even more. He declares that the nomination of Governor Cox signifies the surrender of the democratic party into the hands of the reactionaries on both the liquor question and the financial interests generally.

That Mr. Bryan is inclined to hold President Wilson responsible for everything that happened here is shown when he says that a "wet" president has tried to run a dry convention on a straddling policy and the same evasion has characterized the other important issues.

Wilson Classed With Wets.

The general pose of Mr. Bryan throughout the pre-convention period was that he was friendly to the president and that he was trying to help the democrats to wise decisions for Wilson's good, not his own, even against Wilson's will. It is going far even for Bryan to line up Wilson with the wets and inferentially with Wall street and the brigadier generals of the old guard, namely, Murphy, Taggart, Brennan (Sullivan's successor) and a few lesser lights. But that is what he does. He is mad all over. They trampled on Bryan's cherished ideas and ambitions at St. Louis in 1906 and nominated Parker. What happened to Parker when Bryan went on the stump for him was ample. What will happen this year is in the dark caverns of the future.

Over-Generalizing Is Evident.

The democratic convention was over-generated from Washington. Its members were largely made of office-holders or their friends or of gentlemen and ladies of a certain local political eminence who had high hopes of an office-holding career. The latter did not all belong to the federal outfit. But just as distinctly they were units of some other outfit. Moved as they were by thoughts of what would do them the most good they had a wholesome respect for the political opinions of their various communities and a lively appreciation of the difficulties of the democratic national situation in the current year.

As a matter of course, they were with the president on the league of nations.

