

COX ADVISES STATE TO GRANT SUFFRAGE

Louisiana Legislature Told It Has Duty to Perform.

VOTE IN FALL POSSIBLE

Political Conferences Are to Be Postponed Until Leaders Return From San Francisco.

DAYTON, O., July 7.—If the legislature of Louisiana acts in accord with the opinion of Governor James M. Cox, democratic nominee for president, women will be enfranchised to vote at the November election and the democratic party may get the vote for making universal suffrage a fact.

In a telegram to Frank J. Looney, chairman of the Louisiana state central committee, Governor Cox expressed it as his opinion that the Louisiana legislature owes it as a duty to the democratic party to ratify at once. Mr. Looney had telegraphed the governor asking him to express his views to the legislature on ratification of the amendment.

The governor's answer to Mr. Looney follows: "I have your telegram as chairman of the democratic state central committee of Louisiana on the subject of the ratification of the suffrage amendment by the general assembly. I can only express my opinion. It is that the legislature owes it as a duty to the democratic party to ratify at once."

This official capacity as governor of Ohio, the democratic candidate has repeatedly placed himself on record as being in favor of giving the vote to women. He has signed a number of bills intended to enfranchise women in this state and in a special message to the legislature transmitting the federal amendment for ratification he urged favorable action.

Leaders Are Awaited.

It was stated today by those in close touch with the democratic presidential candidate that he contemplated conducting his campaign chiefly from Columbus, where he will necessarily have to spend much of the time in connection with his duties as governor. It has been the practice of the governor to leave Columbus Friday from Columbus and spend the week end with his family and at his newspaper office.

No political conferences of importance are expected until the party leaders return from San Francisco. The visit of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the vice-presidential nominee, which is expected Saturday, is not anticipated to divert the governor more than exchange of congratulations.

Mr. Roosevelt will stop here on his way home from the convention. The governor spent today at his newspaper office receiving callers and reading messages of congratulation. Among them were congratulations from all the candidates who were contenders for the honor that came to the Ohio governor, President-elect and Mrs. Marshall, cabinet members, governors, political leaders of both parties, representatives of business men and personal friends.

One message from Franklin K. Lane, ex-secretary of the interior, said: "I sincerely congratulate you and the country. The five-day campaign that is constructive, that will challenge the interest and support of the new voters. The people want to hear a definite word as to home affairs as well as foreign."

Homes Are First Thought.

Tonight the governor talked golf at a dinner at the Dayton country club. "There is an erroneous impression that golf is a rich man's game. It is not. A set of clubs doesn't cost much," he said. He declared it is a covered outdoor life and particularly country living.

"I have one public hobby that is more outstanding than any other. It has been the preaching of 'more homes.' You can preach patriotism to a man and appeal to his sense of duty, but you can't make the sort of appeal to him that you can make to his own reflections after he owns a home. He buys a lot, and quite often borrows money to build a home. His hopes are centered in the enterprise and he works for it and it becomes his own particular interest in his general allotment on God's footstool."

"When he finally achieves his objective and owns his own home, he realizes it is his and that he is protected in his ownership by his government; that under the laws, he is given the right to transfer what he has earned to the next generation, and realizes that this generation, too, will be protected."

"He gets a real object lesson of the relation that exists between the government."

Swing of Names Liked. Governor Cox believes the democratic vice-presidential nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, will be a good running mate. "Cox and Roosevelt, that's catchy, isn't it?" commented the governor, as he first learned who his associate on the ticket would be from the Associated Press in his home at Trail's End. The governor had left his newspaper office in the city before the vice-presidential nomination was made, and his office had forgotten to telephone him the result.

Governor Cox was sitting in a reclining chair in his library enjoying his pipe and chatting with some newspaper representatives when informed of Mr. Roosevelt's nomination. He appeared well pleased with the selection and at once dictated to the newspaper men the congratulatory telegram which he sent to Mr. Roosevelt; also the one sent to his campaign manager, E. H. Moore.

The governor admitted that he was not intimately acquainted with Mr. Roosevelt but declared him to be a vigorous, upstanding, courageous and progressive democrat. He commented particularly upon two addresses made by the vice-presidential candidate, one before the national democratic convention in Chicago last winter and the other on Americanization in Dayton. He said Mr. Roosevelt's service in the navy was a credit to his character and a wide acquaintance.

MANY FELICITATE ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Numerous messages from prominent members of the democratic party congratulating the vice-presidential nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt, were received today at his office in the navy department.

Ambassador Davis at London cabled his "congratulations and good wishes."

William F. McCombs, former chairman of the democratic national committee, wired the vice-presidential nominee: "You are aware that I expect great things of you upon your election and inauguration. You will fill this high office with distinction."

Others who sent congratulations to Mr. Roosevelt included Secretary of Labor Wilson, Governors Bamberger of Utah and Parker of Louisiana; former Senator Hollis of New Hampshire; Thomas was station of Georgia and Mayor Peters of Boston.

BUDGET OPINION GIVEN

ACTION AGAINST SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT DISMISSED. Supreme Bench Holds County Court Should Care for Mandatory Rules Before Discretionary.

SALEM, Or., July 7.—(Special.)—County courts in making their annual budgets of taxes should take care of mandatory levies in preference to those levies of a discretionary nature, according to Justice C. A. Johns, who in a supreme court opinion yesterday dismissed the action of school district No. 24, of Marion county, to compel A. M. Smith, county superintendent, to turn over to that district certain funds raised in excess of the mandatory levies.

When opposition was voiced to the Marion county court last December that the school district should pay 4 per cent instead of 10 per cent as provided by law, the county court ordered the superintendent to pay the deficiency. Collection of the latter tax was enjoined in the circuit court here on the ground that the law which was in excess of the 4 per cent limitation law.

School district No. 24 later brought mandamus proceedings in the supreme court to compel Mr. Smith, county superintendent, to apportion to that district funds raised through the second levy of $1.75 per capita. This suit was opposed by Mr. Smith on the grounds that his authority was confined to apportioning funds raised for school purposes, and that he was in no way connected with the levying or collection of the tax. His contention was upheld by Justice Johns.

Justice Johns' opinion was concurred in by other members of the court.

TREATY RENEWAL OPPOSED

Chinese Tell British Conditions Have Changed.

SHANGHAI, July 6.—Sir Belby F. Alston, British minister to China, has reached this city on his way to England, having been given a leave of absence. He is taking with him a petition to the British government from a score of leading Chinese commercial and student bodies, opposing a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

The document says the conditions which led to the negotiation of the treaty no longer exist, and declares that the treaty should be terminated. It asserts, in the only power with strength to do so, that the treaty is unworkable and is unthinkable that country would alter its established policy over night.

OHIO LEADERS WANT TO 'SWING CIRCUIT'

Harding "Front Porch" Plan Reported Disapproved.

PASSIVENESS IS OPPOSED

Republican Chieftains of State Confer With Chairman Hays; Ohio Result Not Doubted.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Ohio republican leaders who conferred today with William H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, were reported to have disapproved of the "front porch" campaign plan for Senator Harding today began the actual writing of his speech to be delivered on July 22, accepting the republican presidential nomination. He expects to complete it in about 10 days, during which time he plans to see and visit voters.

Johnson Stand Pleases. The announcement made by Senator Johnson of California, that he would support the republican ticket, greatly pleased Senator Harding, who is expected to be elected today. The statement did not come as a surprise, however.

"I am glad Senator Johnson is going to give the ticket his support," the republican nominee said. "I am glad to know of everybody's support."

Mr. Johnson's support is expected to have support on the grounds that our platform is appealing than on the grounds of interest in the nominees."

Senator Harding said that throughout the campaign he intended to emphasize "interest in party."

"It's going to be a fad in the campaign," said the Ohio senator. Attention was called to statements attributed to Governor Cox, democratic presidential nominee, who planned an intensive campaign with an extended speaking tour through the state.

"I should imagine he would but that does not change my plans any," Senator Harding said.

The senator today received a letter from Hubert T. Hart, editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, pledging to him the support of his publication as well as the "Tart family."

Mr. Hart said he very greatly to know that the Enquirer would support all the Tart family and the Times-Star," replied the senator.

PEACE IN EAST URGED

EDITOR ADVISES FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH JAPAN. Future of China Depends on Cordial Relations Between U. S. and Japan, Is View.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 7.—Peaceful development of the orient, especially in China, depends largely on the future relations of the United States and Japan, and a cordial agreement should be worked out between the two countries, according to Charles Cronman Rea, owner and editor of the Far Eastern Review of Shanghai, who today arrived in Seattle for the orient today.

Mr. Rea, who was a special adviser to the Chinese delegation at the conference, says China is in need of tremendous loans to reorganize her government and to promote her industries.

"America and Japan are the only two world powers able to provide the necessary funds and should do so in friendly terms, if for that purpose alone," said Mr. Rea. "While the territorial ambitions of Japan are holding her attention, they are but a natural sequence of her growth in population and some cognizance of the fact that she has a surplus population and the peaceful penetration of Manchuria and Mongolia should be her present objective."

JULY 10 IS LAST DAY

Arguments on Amendments Must Be Filed With Secretary.

SALEM, Or., July 7.—(Special.)—Saturday, July 10, is the last day for which arguments favoring any of the constitutional amendments and measures to be submitted to the voters at the general election on November 2 may be filed by the persons or associations initiating or proposing them, according to announcement made today by Sam A. Kozar, secretary of state.

Arguments opposing any of the amendments or measures will be filed with the secretary of state no later than July 20. With every argument filed, whether they be for or against the proposed amendments or measures, there must be deposited with the secretary of state $150 for each page of space required in the voters' pamphlet.

Prior to the primary election held May 21, a charge of $100 a page was made for space in the voters' pamphlet, but because of increased cost of paper and labor it was necessary to increase the rate to $150 a page.

Based on the present registration of voters in Oregon, it is estimated that 250,000 of these pamphlets will be necessary to comply with the law regulating their distribution.

WATER FRONT CASE UP

EQUITY IS SOUGHT IN LAND VALUED ABOVE $1,000,000.

Arguments Before Supreme Court Assert Plaintiffs Are Heirs of Late Henry Ploch.

SALEM, Or., July 7.—(Special.)—Arguments were heard by the supreme court today in the action brought by Virginia Bailey et al. to recover from the Oregon-Washington Railway & Navigation company, New York Trust company and Farmers Loan & Trust company, equity in lands located on Portland's waterfront which were said to be valued at more than $1,000,000.

Before the case was argued before the court that Henry Ploch settled on the lands involved in the suit on November 1, 1852, under the provisions of the federal statutes making it possible to take up donation land claims. He erected a cabin, according to the plaintiffs, made other improvements and continued to reside on the site until his death on March 1, 1852.

Because of the severe winter of 1852 the land was not surveyed, although plaintiffs alleged that Mr. Ploch otherwise complied with the donation land claim laws.

"I am glad Senator Johnson is going to give the ticket his support," the republican nominee said. "I am glad to know of everybody's support."

Mr. Johnson's support is expected to have support on the grounds that our platform is appealing than on the grounds of interest in the nominees."

Senator Harding said that throughout the campaign he intended to emphasize "interest in party."

ROOSEVELT TO MEET COX

Nominees Will Confer in Dayton and Map Plans for Campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Delegates to the democratic national convention, their work done and the big gathering adjourned in a last roar of enthusiasm for the party standard bearer, Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, were scrambling today for train accommodations homeward.

Every string of departing sleepers heading east, north or south, was loaded to capacity.

Mr. Roosevelt was due to leave during the day for Dayton, Ohio, to consult with Governor Cox, where preliminary plans for the campaign will be mapped out, subject to amendment later when the party machinery is organized. The assistant secretary intends to resign from the navy department as soon as he can clear up his desk and will spend 10 days or so in Washington for that purpose.

Harmony Elates Leaders. Democratic leaders were elated over the spirit of harmony which marked the last hours of the convention. There had been good feeling and tolerance shown throughout the convention struggle to reach a presidential nomination. It was said, but in the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt by acclamation following withdrawal of all other candidates, these leaders saw evidence of differences buried and a determination to work hard for victory.

It was generally agreed that the convention had been a great success. The struggle to reach a presidential nomination was a gauge of that success, there was ample ground for their view. Up to the time the delegates were ready to cheer or to demonstrate at every opportunity. In the afternoon the delegates when Mr. Roosevelt was nominated revealed that of the break up early in the morning, the delegates were ready to cheer or to demonstrate at every opportunity.

Westerner Gets First Move. Nominating speeches were again the order of the day when the convention assembled at noon. Half a dozen candidates were put forward and there was evidence that a strong movement was on to name a man from the west.

Just before that, however, a final demonstration had been made by the telegram from Governor Cox by Chairman Robinson thanking the convention for its expression of faith in him. For the last time the delegates ripped up the state standards, many of them showing scars of the struggle that were fought round them during the nomination fight. The parade through aisles went ahead tonight, raising the nomination of the Cox battle song of "Ohio, Ohio," thundered out by the band.

Aircraft Is Directed to Ship 95 Miles Away by Compass.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Guided entirely by radio compass signals, navy seaplane F-5-L today left Norfolk and flew 95 miles on a "beam-line" to pick up the battleship Ohio at sea, with no knowledge at the time of taking the air of the vessel's location. The airplane then navigated its return to Norfolk on a similar beam-line.

New department officials to whom the flight was reported said it was the first time radio compass apparatus had been used to direct aircraft to a ship.

DORMITORY BIDS OPENED

Cost of Building for Feeble-Minded Exceeds Expectations.

SALEM, Or., July 7.—(Special.)—Bids for the construction of a new dormitory at the state home for the feeble-minded were opened by the board of control here today. Six bids were received, the lowest being Anderson, $52,823; Carl Engstrom, $40,647; Peterson Waale, $45,796; Stebbins, $45,796; and W. A. G. Patten, $43,420; John Almeter, $33,374.

Because the lowest bid received was only $33,374, the board has authorized at the 1920 session of the legislature for the construction of the building, and does not include the heating and plumbing, which, it is estimated, will cost in the neighborhood of $7000, several features of the proposed structure will be eliminated for the present.

The accommodations will be outlined by W. C. Knighton, architect, and revised bids will be sought from Mr. Almeter and Mr. Engstrom, the two lowest bidders. The contract probably will be awarded later in the week.

Construction of this dormitory was made necessary under a bill passed by the last legislature providing for admission of children under 5 years of age. Heretofore only children over that age have been committed to the institution.

False Claims.

WE hope there is no Mother who thinks she can treat her sick baby without calling in a Physician, or with remedies that she uses for herself.

Most Mothers know that Baby requires remedies especially prepared for babies, yet there are some who think that what is good enough for them is good enough for Baby, and it is to these Mothers we appeal to give nothing to their babies that is not specially prepared for babies or recommended by their Physician.

False claims may kill, but false claims can never restore your child.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Mothers Must Use Care. Why do we so often call your attention to imitations of Fletcher's Castoria? Because it is a baby's medicine and imitations are always dangerous, particularly imitations of a remedy for infants.

Your druggist may not keep an imitation but they are to be found on drug-store shelves. Reliable druggists think only of the welfare of their customers. The other kind only of the greater profit to be made on imitations.

Your own judgment tells you that Fletcher's Castoria having for over thirty years at great expense held up its reputation, must jealously guard it.
