Patrol Has Engine Trouble One Hour After Leaving Medford, 60 Miles East Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 8 .- (Special.) -Pilot Heyet and Observer Davis, in forest patrol plane, were compelled to make a forced landing 60 miles east of Roseburg yesterday afternoon near what is known as Throne Flat in the Black Rock lookout district according to information received here tonight. Forest Supervisor Ramsdell, since early this morning, has been making an effort to locate the lost plane and its occupants.

Neither the pilot nor observer was njured. The plane reached the ground turned completely over and buried it self in the thick underbrush.

The plane left Medford yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and one hou later the pilot, having engine trouble made a hasty descent, landing in one of the most isolated and thickly timbered districts of the county. He had little time to choose a land-
