Eleven hits made it easy for the Beavers to trim the Vernon Tigers yesterday, 3 to 1. The southpaw benders of "Willie" Mitchell, Tiger twirler, did not trouble the Beavers to any great extent. George Malsel hammered out three singles. Dick Cox ame through with a like number and Biff Schaller connected for a double. As for the Tigers, outside of the second inning, when they edged in their one run, there wasn't a one that passed second base.
