Nipponese Government Said to Offer Inducement for Large Families in America.

STOCKTON, Cal., July 15.—The immigration committee of the house of representatives, in its investigation of the Japanese question in California, visited the Japanese center of a Japanese community, John Reese, only American merchant in the city, told committee members he had been forced to abandon giving credit to Japanese because of the difficulty in collecting his bills, and had left on his books at the present time only two of their accounts, which were guaranteed by American produce firms.

Congressman Isaac Siegel said he found that Mr. Iwatsura's employees were mostly American, the rest Mexicans, and that they reported being satisfied with their positions.

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

The fusion party, 48 speakers today declared, was wrecked by that Gilbert Roe, La Follette's personal representative, characterized as the "intolerant."

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

"You can never make a class party in this country and have it amount to anything," he declared. "You can never build up a labor party successfully in this country as in Great Britain."

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

In the debate on whether to form still another party, Richard Potts of Texas announced he had "got something he wanted" at the farmer-labor convention and led the 48ers' bolt from the hall.

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

"Will you support us if we nominate La Follette and W. J. Bryan here?" Potts asked.

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

"No I won't," Potts retorted on his way out. "Christensen is better."

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

Parley P. Christensen, the farmer-labor nominee or president, was in the hall as a spectator, but he withdrew.

FIGHT ENDS CONVENTION

During the debate Chairman Hopkins suggested that the committee of 48 retain its existence as a political organization, without any political action, but remaining active in local and state matters.

Platform Is Announced. The platform as adopted by the labor-farmer group and which was considered too radical by the forty-eighters contains nine planks, summarized follows:

DRY VOTES ALSO SOUGHT

1.—Americanization: Demands the right of free speech, amnesty for political prisoners, repeal of espionage, sedition and "criminal syndicalism" laws, referendum and recall for federal judges and equal suffrage for all.

DRY VOTES ALSO SOUGHT

2.—Demands withdrawal of the United States from participation under the Versailles treaty, the reduction of conquered peoples to economic or political subjugation, recognition of the right of self-determination, the new Russian government, the abolition of secret treaties and withdrawal of the United States "from the dictatorship we exercise over the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Guam and Hawaii."

DRY VOTES ALSO SOUGHT

3.—Advocates government economy to reduce tax extravagance that has run riot under the present administration, denouncing the system that has created one war millionnaire for every three American soldiers killed in France, demanding that war-asset wealth be taxed on a basis to shift the tax burden from the poor.

DRY VOTES ALSO SOUGHT

4.—Calls for public ownership of all public utilities and natural resources, and the nationalization of the Esch-Cummings railroad law.

DRY VOTES ALSO SOUGHT

5.—Demands favorable laws for the farmer, the protection of public markets and extension of federal farm loan system.
