ODD FELLOWS INSTALL.—Mount Scott Lodge 185, I. O. O. F., held its installation of officers last Tuesday night. Dr. A. H. Johnson, grand master of the state, made an address and presented a jewel to William Etchel, commemorating 30 years membership in the order. The newly installed officers are: Walter Sanders, N. G.; Frank Merwald, V. G.; E. E. Cleve, land warden; Joe Schweitzer, conductor; W. E. Gorgingis, recording secretary; Roy E. Peterson, secretary; F. H. Peterson, Sr., treasurer; William Anderson, inside guardian; Carl Trim, outside guardian; George Dilley, R. S. N. G.; Tom Irvin, W. G. A. G.; Nelson R. S. H.; Axel Johnson, L. S. V. G. W. W. Wakefield, R. S. S.; F. W. Hummel, L. S. S.

NEGRO HELD ON TRUST CHARGE.—Sherman D. Negro, was held to answer to the grand jury on the charge of the larceny of a sack of sugar from the warehouse of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company by Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday. The defendant rested several days ago by Sergeant Burn with a sack of sugar for which he could not account and was sent to jail for 90 days on a charge of vagrancy. The sugar was later identified by the warehouse as the O. W. R. & N. Co. company, as having been taken from the warehouse of that company, and the larceny charge was filed.

PAKE AGENTS COMPLAINED OF.—Police were advised yesterday that two men were going about the city representing themselves to be government agents, and collecting money, which they say is for bringing home the bodies of soldiers killed in France. Mrs. Alice Ashida, 363 North Sixteenth street, reported to Inspector Abbott that she had seen the two men. One of the men is described as tall and slender, about 25 years of age, and wearing a dark suit and a wool cap. The other is said to be about 30, short and stout and well dressed.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS 'OUTING'.—Friends and members of the women's auxiliary of the American Legion are invited to take the trip on the barge Swan, July 27. A program, including dancing has been arranged and the proceeds will be used to aid all sick soldiers in the hospital. The auxiliary meets the first and third Monday of every month at the Multnomah hotel and members of the members act as chaperones at social functions. Mrs. Paul Bartholomew is chairman of the committee in charge of the Tuesday evening entertainment.

THREE BURGLARIES REPORTED.—A string of pearls, a watch fob, a ring and $5 were taken from the home of Mrs. J. Hildeman by burglars who entered some time during the night. The police were advised yesterday by A. J. Erley, 314 Albemarle terrace, reported that burglars entered his home through a window in the kitchen and stole a wrist watch. Burglars climbed over a sleeping porch into the home of L. T. Anderson, 1223 Williams avenue, and took the two watches, six rings and $7 in silver.

HARDING LEADS ON STRAW BALLOT.—During the noon hour Thursday, when about 50 of the Presbyterian ministers in attendance upon the meeting of the synod of Oregon, at the state university at Eugene, were seated around the table, Dr. Walker H. Nugent of Portland, vice-moderator of the synod, distributed ballots to ascertain the preference of the men for the next president of the United States. Of the 44 ballots cast, Harding received 32, Cox 9, and Debs 3.

FIRE DAMAGES AUTO.—An automobile belonging to Eugene Blaker, 737 Northrup street, was badly damaged by fire yesterday afternoon while the machine was parked at Broadway and Davis street. A lighted cigarette tossed into the machine by some smoker is believed to have started the blaze, which entirely destroyed the superstructure of the car. The fire was extinguished by the fire department.

DADDIES MEET MONDAY.—Monday evening the regular meeting of the Daddies' club will be held in their hall, 129 Fourth street. Matters of importance to the membership will be considered, especially with reference to the welfare of former service men who returned home physically incapacitated. It is announced. All members of the club are asked to be present.

THEIF GETS PAROLE.—William S. Reese pleaded guilty to a larceny charge for theft of a watch before Circuit Judge Gatens yesterday, and was sentenced to three years, but admitted to parole. The parole was on the recommendation of the grand jury.

WIDOW WAIVES CLAIM.—All claim to property rights in the estate of the late August L. Bjorklund, Thurman street grocer, who died from a bullet wound May 21, was waived yesterday by the widow, Mrs. Frankie Hart Bjorklund, who is under indictment for the alleged murder of her husband, on payment to her of $2150 in cash and title to household goods. An agreement to this effect was signed before Circuit Judge Taxwell yesterday. Bjorklund was found dying beside his wife, who had attempted suicide, May 21, and the grand jury accused the wife of turning the revolver on her husband before shooting herself. She recovered from her injuries and is at liberty on bond of $2000.

CATHOLIC CHURCH GETS GRANT.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Gorman, residing at the Stelwyn apartments, have given 115 acres on the Columbia highway, to be used as a Catholic recreation center. The tract is at Ellensburg, between Honnville and the mouth of Eagle creek canyon. Fifty acres have been set aside for the Catholic church of Portland and on this ground Archbishop Christie will erect a chapel. Sixty-five acres will be apportioned among various fraternal societies and the sistershods, each being given sufficient land on which to establish a summer camp. The 50 acres, known as Christie park, will be equipped with facilities for boys of "scout" age in the parishes.

CHURCH DELEGATES CHOSEN.—Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh and Rev. Hiram Gould, pastor of the Montavilla Methodist church, will be the Oregon delegates at the prohibition national convention. The plan of the prohibitionists was to endorse the ticket which took the strongest stand on the "dry" question, but as neither party featured such a plank, the prohibitionists decided to put a ticket of their own into the field and nominate W. J. Bryan for president, and if Bryan refused, to nominate Dan Poling, formerly of Oregon, and now acting president of the World's Christian Endeavor.

DIVORCE WIVES SEKS INSURANCE.—Mrs. Lillian M. Naughton, divorced wife of the late William Naughton, wants the $1000 life insurance policy from the Order of Railway Conductors of America. Mrs. T. P. Murray of Melrose, Pa., sister of Naughton has put in a claim for the insurance. The order of conductors has placed a check for $1000 in the hands of the clerk of the federal court, and the check will be turned over to the person given the award by the federal court.

DEAD BOY'S UNCLE LOCATED.—Raymond T. Dearing, the young Oregon agriculturist college student who was drowned in the Willamette river near Independence Thursday night, has an uncle in Portland, W. H. Dearing, of 311 South Jersey street. The uncle was located by Sheriff Harburt yesterday at the request of Independence authorities, who did not know of the youth's relatives. The young man was working at Independence.

ARMY MAN WARREN BY COURT.—Andrew Montag, aged 32, a shoemaker of Sellwood, was put on three months' probation by Judge Kanzier of the court of domestic relations yesterday following a hearing on a charge of molesting small girls. A neighbor of Montag's, Wood, testified during that period. Montag was warned by the court that further complaint against him would be followed with summary action.

WOMAN SUED FOR DAMAGES.—With the contention that Julia B. McCarthy made accusations of theft against him from malice, filing a charge against him in the municipal court and causing his arrest, Chester E. Gunderson began suit for $5000 damages against the woman in the circuit court yesterday. He was accused July 9 of stealing some automobile hub caps.

CAFETERIA OWNER SUED FOR $15,000.—Damages of $15,000 are being sought by Harold L. Clayton of the Coffee Cup cafeteria company for injuries received June 21, 1920, when an iron door leading into the basement of the cafeteria at Broadway and Washington street fell on his head as he was bringing up a case of spinach from the basement.

100 ALIENS DEPORTED.—More aliens were deported from Oregon in the fiscal year ended June 30 than in any previous year, according to R. P. Conham, chief immigration inspector. Warrants were issued for 118 alien undesirable and all but seven were served. An even 100 were deported.

SUIT FILED FOR DAMAGES.—Damage claims based on alleged violation of contracts for the handling of hops are made against the J. W. Seavey hop company to the total of $1500 in suits filed in the circuit court yesterday by Arthur C. Smith and by E. J. Perkins.

DR. WOLF SUCCEEDS DR. MURPHY.—Dr. Louis J. Wolf was yesterday appointed state contagious disease control officer by Dr. David N. Roberg, state health officer. He succeeds Dr. J. M. Murphy, who resigned.

ALL LIFE INSURANCE PEOPLE ARE INVITED TO THE LUNCHEON at the Benson hotel this noon, 12:15 to 2:15. President Edwards of the National Association of Life Underwriters.—Adv.

LEGION COMMANDER TO VISIT PORTLAND

Franklin D'Olier Will Be Guest on August 7.

MASS MEETING PLANNED

Banquet in Armory for ex-Servicemen in Honor of Visitor to Be Part of Entertainment.

Franklin D'Olier of Indianapolis, national commander of the American Legion, will be the guest of local officers of the Legion on Saturday, August 7, according to a telegram received by William E. Follett, state commander, yesterday. He may remain in the city for several days. A mass meeting of ex-service men in the armory the night of Mr. D'Olier's arrival, and a banquet in his honor are being planned. From Portland he will go to Centralia, Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane. No particular significance is attached to the trip at this time, although D'Olier has had an active interest in anti-red propaganda of the American Legion in the northwest. He is making a tour of the Pacific states, coming to Portland from San Francisco.

Programme to Be Discussed. Next Wednesday, July 21, a meeting of representatives from half a dozen western states to discuss the Americanization programme of the American Legion is scheduled. Lemuel L. Bolles, formerly of Seattle, national adjutant of the American Legion, will attend, as also will Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York city and present chairman of the national Americanization committee of the Legion. Representatives are expected from Washington, Idaho, California, Utah, Nevada and Montana. The meeting will be held at state headquarters of the legion in the Morgan building. Delegates to the second state convention of the legion will be elected at the meeting of Portland post next Monday night. A heavy attendance at the meeting, to be held in library hall, is expected. Nominations were made two weeks ago. There are 23 delegates to be picked. The state convention will be held July 20 and 21 at Astoria and August 1 at Seaside, according to present plans. Either a special train or boat will carry delegates from Portland. There will be 37 posts of the state represented.

Report to Be Made in August. At the first meeting of Portland post in August a report will be made by the committee recently appointed by James R. Bain, acting commander, on the proposed reorganization. This committee of 12 was selected to permit all viewpoints a voice in determining the best way of injecting "pep" into Portland post, which has been accused by some of the members of dying with dry rot. On the committee are: T. Henry Boyd, Arthur A. Murphy, Joseph Hammond, J. W. Jorgenson, A. DeCamp, Harold Holmberg, William A. Ekwall, Arthur D. Monteith, F. A. Walton, James S. Gay, Fred H. McNeil and Kenneth S. Jordan.
