Franklin D. Roosevelt issued this statement:

Accord Declared Splendid.

"I wish that every American could have been a silent witness to the meeting between these two great men. Their splendid accord and their high purpose are an inspiration. I need only add that my regret in leaving my post under President Wilson is softened by the knowledge that my new commander-in-chief will be his wholly worthy successor."

"We are agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the democratic platform," declared Governor Cox, "and the duty of the party in the face of threatened bad faith to the

In a talk with newspapermen in the White House offices after his visit with the president, Governor Cox said Mr. Wilson had promised to "help the campaign in every way he could," but that he had not indicated details of his plans for assistance.

Conversation Not Detailed.

Asked as to the president's health, Governor Cox replied: "In splendid condition; in most agreeable shape."

Governor Cox refused to give any details of his conversation with the president, stating that he regarded such a course improper.
Governor Cox said the newspapermen would have to draw their own conclusions from the formal statements, adding:

"There will be no mistaking my position after my speech of accept-The governor, however, said that he had no hesitancy in stating that the prohibition enforcement law had nor been mentioned during his visit with the president. Platform Also Discussed.

Crowds lined the White House fences and gates to watch the arrival and departure of the president's visitors and cheered the candidates as their automobile passed. The conference continued so long that Governor Cox was unable to realize his desire to attend church. Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt had a long talk with Senator Glass of Virginia, chairman of the platform com-mittee, at the San Francisco conven-The governor said they discussed the platform briefly.

Leaving the White House at 2:45 o'clock, Governor Cox returned to the home of his host, ex-Representative Ansberry, to meet Representative Flood of Virginia, chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committeee, and others.
