

4 KILLED IN AUTO CRASH NEAR ALBANY

Southern Pacific Train Hits Tourists' Motor Car.

2 ON THEIR HONEYMOON

Driver Is Joseph P. Schrimsher of San Francisco; Others Are Wife and Her Family.

ALBANY, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Four persons were killed at Alford crossing, south of Harrisburg, at 11:50 A. M. today, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by northbound Southern Pacific train No. 18.

The dead were: Mrs. Joseph Paul Schrimsher, 1563 Ellis street, San Francisco; Mrs. R. V. Joste, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Schrimsher's daughter; Billy Joste, 3-year-old son of Mrs. Joste.

Mr. and Mrs. Schrimsher had been married in San Francisco on June 2 last, according to a marriage certificate found in their effects. Her name had been Mrs. Mary E. Rowe. They had gone to Portland soon after that and had lived at the home of Mrs. Kenneth R. Downing, 550 Hoyt street. They were driving from Portland back to San Francisco when the accident happened, traveling in a small machine.

The driver of the car was Mr. Schrimsher. Mrs. Schrimsher was killed instantly. The others, terribly injured, were placed aboard the train to be brought to a hospital here, but Schrimsher died before the train reached Halsey, about six miles from the scene of the accident, and Mrs. Joste died as the train was pulling out of Shedd. The little boy died in St. Mary's hospital here at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Auto Carried 120 Feet.
The front end of the automobile was about in the center of the track when the engine of the train hit it. The car was carried and rolled along for about 120 feet and then tumbled into the ditch. The car, except the rear portion, was entirely demolished.

Mrs. Joste was thrown out near the crossing and dragged a few feet by the train. The others were carried with the car ahead of the train. The boy was under the wreckage of the car and the dead body of the elder woman beside it under a pile of bedding tossed from the wreck. The man was thrown about 20 feet beyond the wrecked car.

Neither Schrimsher nor Mrs. Joste ever regained consciousness. The man died without speaking at all. The woman talked irrationally on the train, giving in her semi-conscious condition over the injury to the child. The little boy was able to talk before he died and nurses at the hospital thought he said his name was Joe Ross, but because of his youth and suffering nothing definite could be learned.

Papers Establish Identity.
The identity of the man was established by papers in his pockets and the identification card with the license tag on it.

The party was traveling in a Ford automobile with a camping equipment. Receipted bills in the man's pockets showed they had been in Portland recently. With the bills was a slip of paper bearing the address of May Parks, 86 North Fifteenth street, Portland. There was also a newspaper clipping regarding a story of Mrs. Mary Parks having a man named Charles H. Rowe arrested in Portland.

The dead man was apparently about 35 years old and the younger woman between 25 and 30.

Coroner Goes to Scene.
Coroner Fisher went to the scene early this afternoon and is making a complete investigation of the accident.

There is a fairly clear view of the track southerly from the Alford crossing, but the view to the north is somewhat obstructed. It is believed the driver was trying to see toward the north in approaching the crossing and failed to see the train coming from the south.

Word of the accident was sent forward and a physician and nurse met the train at Halsey to accompany the injured to Albany. The boy's physical injuries were not necessarily fatal, but he was too young to survive the shock.

MRS. DOWNING HELPS SEARCH

Dead Man Had Tried to Obtain Work in City.

Identification of the four persons killed in the accident near Harrisburg was confirmed in Portland by Mrs. Kenneth R. Downing, 550 Hoyt street, at whose place the entire party had been rooming while in Portland. They started their trip from Mrs. Downing's home Monday to return to San Francisco to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Schrimsher came to Portland with the expectation of living here, said Mrs. Downing, "but he was not able to obtain employment in the shipyards, where he desired work, so they concluded to go back to San Francisco. They came here a short time before the Shriners convention and remained at my residence all the time with the exception of a few days when they went to Hot Springs, Idaho, to visit Mr. Schrimsher's mother. She has returned to Portland and is living in St. Johns. I believe they were very fine people and were greatly shocked by a family scandal that developed while they were here."

The scandal referred to was the arrest of Mrs. Schrimsher's son, Charles H. Rowe, brother of Mrs. Joste. Rowe was arrested on complaint of Mrs. May Parks, 86 North Fifteenth street, who swore to a vagrancy complaint against him. She declared that he had been hanging about her place to see her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Parker, who she said was assisting in the man's support by turning over to him money she earned in a factory. She said that her daughter, dressed only in her night-gown, had entertained Rowe in their yard.

Charges against Rowe were heard in justice municipal court Saturday and at that time Judge Rossman declared he would give the man until Saturday to make up his mind if he would marry Mrs. Parker or leave her alone. Rowe was released on his own recognizance by action of Judge Rossman, who said last night the man had practically agreed to leave the woman alone. The case, however, is scheduled to come up for decision Saturday.

At the time Rowe was arrested police announced that his wife and

PROFITEERING HELD TO BE OUTRAGEOUS

Chautauqua Speaker Says Americans Extravagant.

TODAY SET FOR MUSICALS

Young People's Industrial Clubs to Demonstrate Pressure Cookers and Dryers.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Carlton Chamberlayne, publicist of New York, spoke on "Tomorrow" before the Chautauqua audience this afternoon. He declared for upholding the proposed league of nations as the necessary step to solve the international problems of the future and advancing the belief that the mass of people in the United States will not permit politics to interfere with it.

The speaker criticized the American people for being "wickedly extravagant" and remaining apathetic while the most conscienceless and outrageous profiteering in history is going on. The dangers of the present day are greater than the dangers of the war, averred Mr. Chamberlayne.

The Alaska duo, Miss Lona Laska, soprano, and Miss Huldah Voedisch, contralto, gave musical programmes both afternoon and evening, providing several delightful numbers. E. H. Fish, exponent of 100 per cent Americanism, gave a talk at the evening session on "The Cure for Industrial Utrage."

Wednesday will be a musical day from start to finish. The prelude of the day will be given by Raul Pereira and his string quintet. The director has been musician to the court of Portugal and enjoys an established reputation in other European countries.

In the afternoon Arthur Katchel, dramatic interpreter, will present "The Music Master," made famous by David Warfield. In addition to the Pereira organization in the evening, Miss Mary Adel Hayes, operatic soprano, will give a program.

Alumni and students of Pacific university at Forest Grove will hold a reunion picnic at 12 o'clock following the Chautauqua, including the address of Robert Fry Clark, president of the university, at the forum hour. Many of the college students residing in Portland are expected for the day's programme.

Mackburg will meet West Linn in the 3:30 baseball game. King Cole pitched a shut-out game for Crown-Willamette, Tuesday, the mill men downing Estacada 3-0.

Demonstration of the pressure cooker and dryer will be shown by the young peoples' industrial clubs and also canning processes will be demonstrated. The clubs of Willamette and Oregon City will take part Wednesday.

Wednesday's programme follows:
Morning.
8-10—Physical culture.
9-11—Children's Chautauqua under direction of Miss Helen Kemper.

11-12—Bible hour, Dr. John H. Boyd.
12-1—Forum hour under auspices of Pacific university, address by Dr. Robert Fry Clark.
12-2—Pacific university picnic.

Afternoon.
1:30—Concert, Raul Pereira and his string quintet. "The Music Master," Arthur Katchel.
2:30—Baseball, Mackburg versus West Linn.
3-4—Applications of Heat and Cold, American Red Cross.

5-6—Symposium, Parent-Teachers' association, Mrs. C. E. Hayburst, state president.
Evening.
7:30—Concert, Raul Pereira and his string quintet. Concert, Mary Adel Hayes, American soprano.

Roseburg Child Missing.
ROSEBURG, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Woodrow Wilson Hall, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hall of this city, left his home yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and nothing has since been heard of him. The boy was dressed in a cotton shirt and overalls and took with him his play wagon.

3 MENTIONED FOR MAYOR

TWO CITY COMMISSIONERSHIPS TO BE FILLED.

Announcements Withheld by Prospective Candidates—Kellaher Throws Hat in Ring.

With petitions in circulation urging Herbert Gordon, a contractor, to enter the mayoralty race this fall, Mayor Baker, considering requests that he seek a second term and with ex-City Commissioner Kellaher casting his hat into the ring for the mayor's chair, interest is beginning to become manifest in city politics.

None of the three men who have been mentioned as candidates for the job have yet made formal statements, and indeed neither Mayor Baker nor Mr. Gordon have even indicated that they will be candidates.

Dan Kellaher has indicated that he would enter the race, and formal announcement to this effect is anticipated within a few weeks. It is possible that all prospective candidates are waiting until Mayor Baker has decided what he intends to do.

Should Herbert Gordon consent to be a candidate it will be necessary for him to withdraw as a candidate for a seat in the next legislature. And should he decide to run there is no doubt that the building zone ordinance will form the basis of his campaign, for he has been one of the foremost opponents of the zone plan.

It is not known what planks Mr. Kellaher will select to run upon, but it is said that his usual public ownership plans will be introduced by the former city official.

Two vacancies of city commissionerships will be filled at the November election. Both City Commissioners Mann and Barbur have indicated they will seek re-election and former City Commissioner T. L. Perkins has announced that he will enter the race.

As far as is known, no other aspirants for the city offices have indicated intention to enter the race, although those interested in city politics expect that at least five or six candidates will face the barrier in the commissioner's race.

Should Mayor Baker enter the mayoralty race it will no doubt be an aid to the present incumbents who seek re-election, as they would be included in the administration's acts which will be presented as the reason for the retention of the present officials of city government.

POLICE HEAD ODDFELLOWS

Albina Lodge Has Drill Team of Peace Officers.

Star Lodge of Oddfellows, Killingsworth and Albina avenues, has a complement of officers, every member of which is likewise a member of the Portland police department, as the result of an election held there Thursday of last week. E. C. Brothers, police sergeant, was chosen noble grand of the organization and Harry W. Wright, police inspector, was elected vice-grand.

The lodge also has a drill team composed entirely of policemen.

CITIZENSHIP IS REQUIRED

Chauffeur's License to Be Withheld If New Law Enacted.

Full American citizenship will be one of the requisites for those seeking licenses to operate for-hire cars and taxicabs in Portland, if an ordinance now being prepared by Deputy City Attorney Myers, for City Commissioner Mann, is adopted by the city council.

According to Commissioner Mann, many men who refused to apply for first papers during the war so that they would not be drawn for service with the American forces, have now secured first papers, and are seeking chauffeurs' licenses. Many of these men, according to the city official, cannot read the English language sufficiently to learn the traffic laws.

William Henry Lewis, negro citizen, former assistant United States attorney-general, will speak at the Lincoln high school Monday evening on "The Reign of Law." John K. Kollock, a classmate at Amherst college, Mass., will introduce him. Mr. Lewis will also speak at the Chamber of Commerce members' forum on Monday and will address the Rotary club on Tuesday. This is his first trip to the west.

Mr. Lewis worked his way through the Virginia normal and collegiate institute, Amherst college, the Harvard law school. He practiced law in Boston, was elected to the state legislature in 1902 and headed the naturalization bureau for the next six years.

VANCOUVER IS TO PAVE

$130,000 in Contracts Awarded by City Council.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Hard-surface pavement to the extent of about $130,000 was authorized by the city council at the meeting last night. The Fruit Valley road will be paved by the United Contracting company for $66,845; Columbia street by the same company for $28,519; Park & Scram will pave Seventeenth street for $25,982.

The bids on Sixteenth street went more than 10 per cent above the city engineer's estimate, so this matter was postponed. In paving the Fruit Valley road, the city will be assisted in paying for it by the county, and the property owners will contribute $2500.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express my thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown and the sympathy extended to me in the loss of my son, David B. Thomas, especially thanking the members of the Portland water bureau, Hazzard, Judge, G. O. F., Vernon lodge of Rebekas, Fraternal Aid union and those who sent the many beautiful floral offerings.
