

NON-PARTISANS PICK WASHINGTON TICKET

Action in Regard to Fusion With Other Liberals.

JOINT SESSION CONTINUES

Railway Men's League Convention Delegates Name C. F. Stimson Congressional Candidate.

YAKIMA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Nearly a complete state ticket was selected late this afternoon by the non-partisan league state convention in session here. In conjunction with conventions of the triple alliance, committee of 48, railway men's welfare league and other "liberal" organizations. Candidates were named by ballot, or unanimous vote, for governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney-general, land commissioner and insurance commissioner.

Whether or not this points to independent action by the non-partisan league tonight was somewhat obscure, but the understanding of most of the delegates appeared to be that the naming of these candidates was preparatory to going into the joint committee of all conventions, which will pick out state and congressional tickets, if plans of the leaders are carried out.

Fusion Center of Fight.
One of the questions around which warm battles have been fought in several of the conventions is whether the separate conventions here shall attempt fusion into a third party and nomination of state and congressional tickets, or seek to attain their ends by "entering" by the primaries of one or the other of the present parties. Leaders of the non-partisan league have strongly opposed fusion. Nevertheless, there was manifested today a disposition to discontinue the separate meetings and it was stated tonight that the non-partisans were taking part in joint deliberations over platform and candidates.

The state ticket as named by the non-partisans was: Governor, Robert Bridges, Seattle; lieutenant-governor, E. Bowles, Prosser; secretary of state, Lucy L. Case, Seattle; treasurer, Frank Fesse, Seattle; attorney-general, W. D. Lane, Spokane; state land commissioner, Samuel Smyth, Goldendale; state insurance commissioner, M. Mecklem, Tacoma. Bridges received 29 votes for nomination for governor, others voted for being J. E. Scottard, Chehalis; William Bouck, Sedro-Woolley; James Duncan, Seattle.

Spokane Man Withdraws.
John Mulligan of Spokane was the first choice of the non-partisans for attorney-general, but withdrew his name on the plea of lack of time.

Delegates to the railway men's convention from the fourth congressional district tonight caucused and named C. F. Stimson as their choice for congressional candidate. This completes the railway men's congressional slate.

By general agreement, the rail men appeared to have accorded the privilege of picking the congressional candidate whom the fusion convention is expected to endorse.

Convention leaders appeared confident tonight that third-party fusion would be accomplished through the two tasks upon which effort was concentrated were the framing of a platform acceptable to the non-partisan and stronger groups and the selection of a ticket. Whether either platform or ticket can be put through a joint convention, however, without starting a fight that will disrupt the entire programme is regarded by many of the delegates as doubtful.

Farmers' Union Moves Offices.
SPOKANE, Wash., July 20.—Offices of the Washington Farmers' Union today were being transferred to Yakima, which is to be the new headquarters of the organization. W. B. Armstrong, newly-elected secretary, superintended the moving.

Attorney Files as Non-Partisan.
VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—H. W. Arnold, local attorney, today filed for office of judge of the superior court of Clark county on the non-partisan judicial ticket. John Schaefer filed for the office of county clerk on the republican ticket. He was a lieutenant with the overseas forces in France.

SHRINE THANKS FIREMEN
Drill Exhibitions Given Visitors Are Appreciated.
Expression of appreciation for the splendid drills performed by members of the Portland fire bureau on the Lewis building, opposite the Multnomah hotel, during the week of the Shrine convention for the benefit of the eastern visitors in Portland that week was received yesterday by Chief Dowell from the Shrine general committee.

Throughout the convention period picked men from the fire bureau were assigned to these drills, which consisted of life-saving exhibitions, ladder scaling and other similar "stunts." The letter of appreciation also recognized the work of the firemen in assisting the police in keeping order and contained thanks for the co-operation of the firemen in the floral parades and other events of the Shrine-Rose Festival week.

LEGION LEADERS CONFER

REPRESENTATIVES FROM SEVERAL STATES IN CITY.
Aim is to Decide on Policy of Organization Toward I. W. W. and Other Radicals.

For the purpose of formulating recommendations to the second national convention of the American Legion, meeting in Cleveland, O., next September, as to the future policy of the American Legion toward the I. W. W. and kindred organizations, representatives of western departments of the legion will meet in Portland today. William E. Pollett, state commander of Oregon, will preside over the conference.

Lemuel L. Bolles, formerly of Seattle but now of Indianapolis, national adjutant of the American Legion, is expected to arrive this morning to attend the meeting. Arthur Woods, national chairman of the Americanism committee of the legion and former police commissioner of New York City, planned to come, but has been prevented by illness, according to a telegram received yesterday by Mr. Pollett.

The states of Washington, California, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Montana and North and South Dakota have been requested to send delegates to the conference, preferably the state chairmen of Americanism committees. The chairman of the Americanism committee of the legion in Oregon is Rogers MacVeagh, who recently returned from a conference with legion heads in the east.

The sessions will open at 9 o'clock at state headquarters of the legion in the Morgan building.

Because of the special knowledge which Centralia has of the activities of the I. W. W., as demonstrated in the Armistice slaying of four ex-service men, a representative of Grant Hodge post of that city has been especially invited.

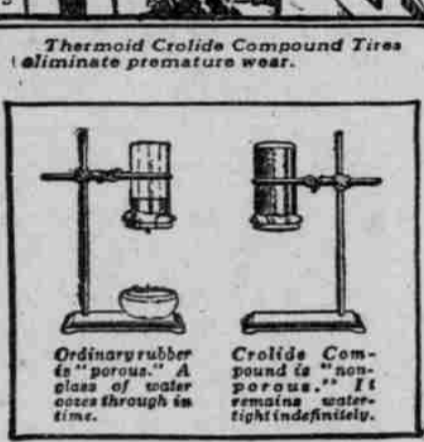

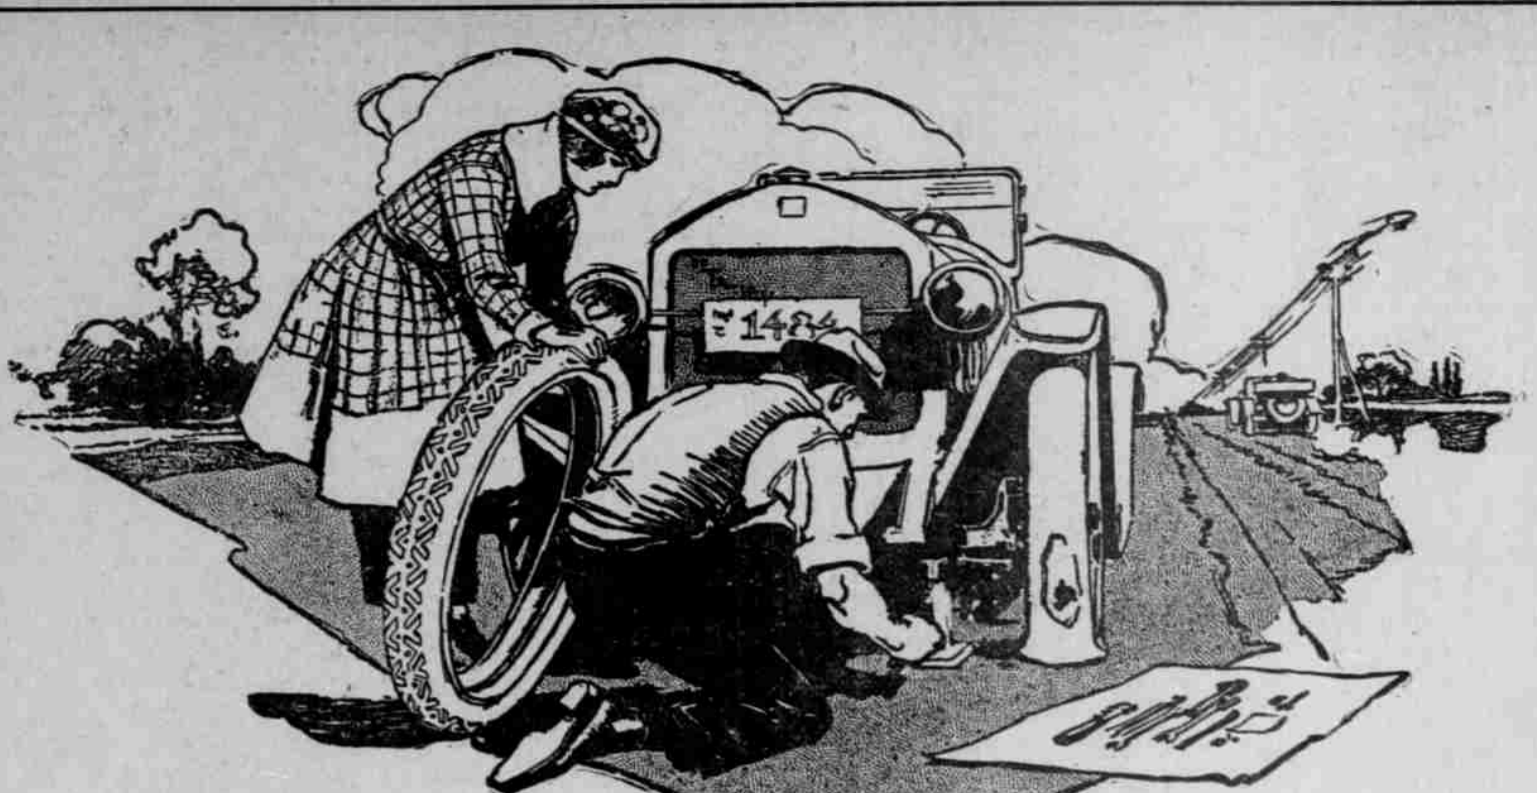

Edward J. Elvers, department adjutant of Oregon, who represented this state at a recent conference on radicalism held in Spokane, will attend today's meeting, as also will George A. White, state executive committee member of the legion and adjutant-general of Oregon.

Saves you many a dirty job like this!

Non-porous rubber is 50% to 100% tougher than average tire rubber

DOWN under the back wheel pumping up the jack! How about your clothes? How about the train you meant to catch? What's the cause of roadside trouble like this? Can't the tire makers build a casing that will stand the gaff? Aren't tires any better than they were five years ago? Are these the questions that are frequently in your mind?

You can get better tires. You can save yourself many a dirty job of tire changing. The chief cause of premature tire trouble—sand boils, blow-outs, a loose flapping tread, a shoe that wears off "as fast as putty"—is ordinary porous rubber. Tires made of such rubber weaken and disintegrate on the road. Soon they are absorbing dirt, moisture, grease, oil and other injurious substances. The tire is ready to give way at the first sudden strain or shock.

Due to the discovery of a remarkable compound, these common troubles can now be greatly reduced. Crocide Compound, first produced in 1917, makes tires non-porous. It seals the millions of tiny pores. It makes rubber practically impervious to moisture, oil and grit. It prevents rapid disintegration.

Crocide Compound Tires now available

Made of Crocide Compound, this new rubber is 50% to 100% tougher than ordinary rubber, and yet resilient. A one-inch strip, stretches to 7 1/2 inches.

Because they are made with this remarkable compound, Thermoid Tires eliminate the premature trouble you experience with ordinary tires. Either the cord or fabric type gives maximum mileage under all road and weather conditions.

You are invited to call and see these new tires—also the famous Crocide Compound tubes. Let us tell you interesting detail facts; experiences and tests that show why Thermoid Tires and tubes end premature trouble and give better mileage.

Vancouver to Raise Awnings.
VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Awnings in the business section of the city in many cases strike a tall man's head and knock off his hat if he is not watching. The city council has passed an ordinance making it compulsory to have the awnings at least six feet above the sidewalks, hereafter, E. V. Coats, a member of the council, who introduced the ordinance, reported that merchants have had them at various heights.
