WIFE GETS DIVORCE FROM CONVICT MATE

Judge Tells Mrs. Bernice Harness She Is "Unhitched."

13 DECREES ARE GRANTED

Mrs. Caroline Maynard Says Husband Told Her He Had Authority to Slap Her.

"Unhitched," quoth Circuit Judge Stapleton, varying his routine remark of "Take your decree," as he awarded Mrs. Bernice Harness freedom from marital ties yesterday.

Chester Harness, it appeared from testimony, was not married for three years in the state penitentiary in Baker county last year for the theft of $7000.

"We have been unable to serve him," explained the wife's attorney, "because when we got the papers to Salem we were informed he had just broken out and was a fugitive."

The Harnesses were married in 1916 and have a child two years old. The wife is 22 years of age.

"He slapped my face, he said, not because he wanted to, but because he had the authority to do so."

Mrs. Caroline Maynard, who sought a divorce from W. H. Maynard, "He said a judge had told him the authority was granted him by the laws of Oregon, and he slapped me hard."

Before getting her decree, Mrs. Maynard testified to other cruel treatment, to being compelled to provide for herself, and a neighbor who was called a "fugitive."

Frank Sell found it difficult to maintain marital relations with Mrs. Estella Sell, he told Judge Stapleton, six weeks after their marriage...

"I went to work in the morning and when I returned home at night she was gone," explained the husband, "she never gave any reason or told me she was going."

The lure of the city drew Mrs. Alice M. Robbins from her farm near Dundee, declared her husband, George H. Robbins. He rented the farm and went to work in a sawmill here.

"The mill decided to close down the night shift, I was on my way home when I saw my wife in a street car going to town. I followed her and saw her get off at Fifth and Burnside. She met a man at Fifth and Ankeny. When he saw me he ran. She said she liked him better'n me."

In the course of the hearing Robbins attorney asked him if he had any property, to which he replied that he had not, having sold his farm.

"Oh, yes," said the witness, "I have a ball game ticket, music, music, brief addresses and a big picnic dinner at 7 P. M. Members of the Latter Day Saints mission and the club are co-operating to make the event a success."

How Much is a Million?

The moment you mention a million dollars to some people, they are antagonistic.

They imagine that a million dollars represents a tremendous part of the national wealth.

Instead it represents only one penny for each inhabitant of our country.

Swift & Company last year had an output of 5,500,000,000 pounds. A profit of one cent per pound would have resulted in $55,000,000.

The actual net profit was $14,000,000 or one-fourth of what we would have made had the profit been at the rate of 1 cent a pound.

An average profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound indicates a highly competitive condition in the industry and also proves our assertion that packer profits have practically no effect on prices.

Katherine MacDonald in a dramatic moment from "Playthings of Passion," which will close at the Liberty tomorrow midnight.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Columbia—William S. Hart, in "Sand." Rivoli—D. Henry's "The Garter Girl." Majestic—"The Deep Purple." Circle—Eugene O'Brien, in "The Broken Melody." Globe—Rex Beach's "The Girl From Outside."

FROM the novel of C. N. and A. M. Williamson, Katherine MacDonald's photoplay at the Liberty this week is replete with romance and adventure. It is from the book "Queens of Hercules," which more nearly represents its clean, clever plot and action than the screen title, "Playthings of Passion."
